STOCKHOLM: Scandinavian Airlines pilots in Sweden, Norway and Denmark early Tuesday called off a strike that has been causing major disruption for 15 days after reaching a deal with management. The carrier has said the strike has led to the cancellation of around half of all SAS scheduled flights and had impacted thousands of passengers per day.

UK hits record 40° C as Europe sizzles

AGENCIES / London

Britain on Tuesday experienced its hottest day on record with temperatures soaring past 40C (104F) amid growing rail travel chaos as schools shut again and millions of people responded to the extreme heat by working from home.

The mercury hit an unprecedented 40.2C (104.4F) at London Heathrow Airport at 12.50 pm - around an hour after a reading of 39.1C (102.4F) in Charlwood, Surrey, beating the previous all-time UK high of 38.7C (101.7F) in Cambridge in July 2019. In third place is 38.5C (101.3F) in Kent in August 2003, and 38.1C (100.6F) in Suffolk on Monday is fourth.

Forecasters said an absolute maximum of 43C (109F) is possible later on - and the highs in England are equal to the warmest spots anywhere in Europe. The UK is also hotter than Jamaica, Maldives and Barbados. The Met Office also confirmed that Tuesday night was the warmest night on record in Britain, with temperatures not falling below 25C (77F) in many areas of England and Wales. The highest overnight minimum in the UK last night was 25.9C (78.6F) at Emley Moor in West Yorkshire, while it was 25.8C (78.4F) at Kenley in Croydon, South London.

The Met Office red warning of danger to life from extreme heat remains in place for much of central, northern, and south-east England, including the capital city. At least five people are believed to have drowned after attempting to escape the heat in rivers and lakes.

"Tuesday will be a pretty unprecedented day, with the mercury possibly reaching highs of 41C in spots in England. This will make it the hottest day on record and the first time we have seen temperatures as high as 40C," said Rachel Ayers, a Met Office forecaster. Deadly wildfires in France, Portugal, Spain and Greece have forced thousands of people to evacuate their homes.

Two people were killed by forest fires in Spain's north-western Zamora region and trains in the area were halted because of fire near the tracks. An elderly couple died while trying to escape fires in northern Portugal.

Wildfires were still burning a day after several French cities including Nantes in the west saw their hottest-ever day. More than 30,000 people have had to flee, with several camp sites destroyed and emergency shelters set up for evacuees.

London mayor: Heat wave brings surge in number of city fires

AGENCIES / London

The mayor of London says a heat wave that has brought temperatures of 40 degrees Celsius (104 Fahrenheit) is causing a "huge surge" in the number of fires in the city.

Mayor Sadiq Khan said on Tuesday the fire service is under "immense pressure".

The blazes include a grass fire in Wennington on the eastern edge of the city that is being tackled by 100 firefighters. The London Fire Brigade said it had declared a "major incident," which means it can call on resources from other emergency services.

13 missing as passenger ship capsizes in Indonesia

AGENCIES / Jakarta

A passenger ship with 77 people on board sank in the waters off Indonesia's eastern province of North Maluku, leaving 13 people missing.

The ship, KM Cahaya Arafah, was hit by huge waves in a poor weather condition when it was sailing in the waters off Halmahera Selatan (South Halmahera) district on Monday night, according to Yusuf Latief, the spokesman of the national search and rescue office.

Personnel from the office and the local disaster management agency, soldiers, policemen and volunteers have been carrying out a search and rescue operation, as 64 people have so far been rescued, Xinhua news agency reported quoting the spokesman. "Search and rescue for the missing is under way now," he said. The rescuers were combing the area around the coasts, the spokesman said.

Judge sets Oct trial for Musk-Twitter dispute

AGENCIES / Wilmington (US)

An epic legal fight between Elon Musk and Twitter began in earnest in a Delaware court on Tuesday as lawyers for both sides fought over how soon the trial should begin.

Twitter is trying to force the billionaire to make good on his April promise to buy the social media giant for USD 44 bn - and the company wants it to happen quickly because it says the ongoing dispute is harming its business.

Musk, the world's richest man, pledged to pay USD 54.20 a share for Twitter, but now wants to back out of the agreement.

"It's attempted sabotage. He's doing his best to run Twitter down," said attorney William Savitt, representing Twitter in Delaware's Court of Chancery before the court's Chancellor Kathaleen St. Jude McCormick. The hearing was held virtually after McCormick said she tested positive for Covid. Musk has claimed the company has failed to provide adequate information about the number of fake, or "spam bot", Twitter has.

Lanka Parl to directly elect Prez in 3-way contest

AGENCIES / Colombo

For the first time in 44 years, Sri Lanka's Parliament will directly elect a President on Wednesday in a three-way contest, with last minute political manoeuvring projecting a close fight between acting President Ranil Wickremesinghe and Dullas Alahapperuma, a rebel leader of ruling party who is backed by the opposition as well as a majority of lawmakers from his parent party.

Wickremesinghe, Alahapperuma and leftist Janatha Vimukthi Peramuna (JVP) leader Anura Kumara Dissanayake were proposed by lawmakers on Tuesday as the three candidates for the July 20 presidential election to pick the successor to Gotabaya Rajapaksa after he resigned following a popular uprising against his government for mismanaging the

Indian official attacked

AGENCIES / Colombo

A senior Indian government official posted in Sri Lanka sustained grievous injuries in an unprovoked assault, the Indian High Commission here said on Tuesday as it urged its nationals to remain aware of the latest developments in the island nation and plan their movements and activities accordingly. The Indian High Commission in a tweet said the relations between the people of India and Sri Lanka have always been cordial and friendly. "In the current situation, #Indian nationals in #SriLanka are requested to remain aware of latest developments and accordingly plan their movements and activities."

SUNAK FIRMS UP POSITION

ADITI KHANNA London

Rishi Sunak cleared another round of voting on Tuesday to consolidate his position as one of the two candidates who will go head-to-head in the race for the British PM's post. The former Chancellor of Indian origin received 118 votes in the fourth round, just shy of the 120-mark -- or one-third of Conservative Party MPs needed to confirm his place as one of the final contenders.

Trade Minister Penny Mordaunt got 92 votes and Foreign Secretary Liz Truss 86 votes leaving the race for the second place wide open. Former minister Kemi Badenoch became the latest candidate to be knocked out.

The elimination of Badenoch with 59 votes will now turn the focus on where her considerable support within the Tory members will go; these MPs are being wooed by both Mordaunt and Truss to shore up their chances of grabbing that all-important second spot.

Covid triples across Europe: WHO

AGENCIES / London

The World Health Organisation said on Tuesday that Covid cases have tripled across Europe in the past six weeks, accounting for nearly half of all infections globally.

Hospitalisation rates have also doubled, although intensive care admissions have remained low.

In a statement on Tuesday, WHO's Europe director, Dr Hans Kluge, described Covid as "a nasty and potentially deadly illness" that people should not underestimate.

He said super-infectious relatives of the Omicron variant were driving new waves of disease across the continent and that repeat infections could potentially lead to long Covid. WHO said the 53 countries in its European region, which stretches to central Asia, reported nearly 3 mn new Covid infections last week and that the virus was killing about 3,000 people every week.

Globally, Covid cases have increased for the past five weeks, even as countries have scaled back on testing. "With rising cases, we're also seeing a rise in hospitalisations, which are only set to increase further in the autumn and winter months," Kluge said.

"This forecast presents a huge challenge to the health workforce in country after country, already under enormous pressure dealing with unrelenting crises since 2020."

Australian Covid cases to double

AGENCIES / Canberra

Australia's health minister said that "real number" of Covid cases in the country is likely to double that which is being reported daily. Mark Butler on Tuesday warned the third wave of Omicron variant infections Australia is currently experiencing is very significant, with hospitalisations soaring.

"There were 300,000 cases or thereabouts reported over last seven days, and I think the real number is likely to be more than double that," he told reporters.

BoJo chairs last meet as UK PM

AGENCIES / London

Outgoing British Prime Minister Boris Johnson chaired his final Cabinet meeting on Tuesday, ahead of Conservative Party parliamentarians casting their votes for the fourth round in the secret ballot to elect a new leader.

Johnson, 58, defended his government's record and commitment to tackling climate change as he adressed the ongoing heat wave.

"Who can doubt that we were right to be the first major economy to go for net zero," he told his ministers at Downing Street.

"It may be sometimes unfashionable to say this but it is the right thing to do," he said. It came after Labour Party accused him of clocking off his job as prime minister ahead of time by missing three emergency Cabinet Office Briefing Room A (COBRA) meetings on the measures to tackle the heat wave national emergency.

Government wins confidence vote

AGENCIES / London

British Prime Minister Boris Johnson's government on Monday (local time) won a confidence vote as members of the UK Parliament did not support the vote of no-confidence in the government of the outgoing Prime Minister. With this development, Britain has avoided a general election in the country.

Putin in Iran to forge 'fearsome' anti-West alliance

AGENCIES London

Vladimir Putin has arrived in Iran to forge a fearsome new alliance, with both sanction-hit countries united by their hatred for the West, media reports said.

The Russian leader will meet President Ebrahim Raisi and Ayatollah Khamenei, the Islamic Republic's supreme leader, during the talks aimed at boosting ties between the regimes, Daily Mail reported.

been abroad since launching his invasion of Ukraine five months ago.

The meeting comes amid warnings from the US last week that Iran is preparing to sell drones to Russia for use in Ukraine, Daily Mail reported.

US National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan had said Tehran is planning to provide "hundreds" of combat drones to Moscow, and Iranian soldiers will train their Russian counterparts in how to use the drones - with lessons beginning in just a few

At least 22 killed in Egypt car crash

AGENCIES / Cairo

At least 22 people were killed and 83 injured in a car crash on Tuesday near Egypt's southern province of Minya, authorities said.

The crash took place in the early morning when a passenger bus hit a stopped trailer truck on a highway linking the capital of Cairo to the country's south, local authorities in Minya said in a statement.

The bus was heading toward Cairo.

Russians killed in 'mysterious way' at N-plant

AGENCIES / Kyiv

Russian soldiers have been killed and injured in a mysterious "unexplained incident" at the occupied Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant in Ukraine, it has been claimed.

Dmytro Orlov, mayor of Enerhodar where the station is based, said the troops were "so scared they ran around in panic", with some now in intensive care in hospital, Daily Mail reported.

The cause of the sudden hysteria is not known, although the men had been using the power plant to store many of their weapons.
