OTD: Virat Kohli's 50th ODI hundred helps India reach 2023 World Cup final

New Delhi. Star Indian batter Virat Kohli scripted history in the World Cup semi-final victory over New Zealand, becoming the first-ever cricketer to score 50 One Day International (ODI) centuries. Kohli's record-breaking performance helped India set a daunting total of 397/4, securing a 70-run win and propelling the team to their first ODI World Cup final since 2011.

VIRAT Kohli went past Sachin Tendulkar with a record-breaking 50th One-Day International (ODI) century during India's World Cup semi-final at Wankhede Stadium in Mumbal. Kohli became the first male cricketer to achieve this milestone, helping India to a commanding first-innings score of 39774. His innings played a pivotal role in India's journey to the World Cup final, marking their first appearance at the tournament's climax since 2014.Kohli's historic knock followed a memorable innings earlier in the tournament, where he equalled Sachin Tendulkar's 49 ODI centuries during a 243-run win over South Africa on his birthday in Kolkata, His latest century reached in his 279th ODI match from just 106 balls, featured eight fours and a six, culminating with a flick for two in the 42nd over. Celebrating his achievement, Kohli turned to the stands, acknowledging the presence of Tendulkar and the throngs of fans cheering him on at Wankhede Stadium.Reflecting on his achievement, Kohli described the moment as a "dream" come true, expressing gratitude for reaching this milestone in front of his family and childhood hero, Tendulkar. "It's too good to be true, it's surreal," Kohli said after hematch. "If'I could paint the perfect picture. The would want this to be the picture: my partner, the person I love the most, is sitting there, my hero is sitting there: "For fans across India, Kohli's feat and emotional celebration were unforgetable, cementing his legacy as one of cricket's greatest iconindia's batting display was buoyed by Shreyas Iyer, who accelerated the innings with a powerful 105 off 70 balls, including eight sixes. Contributions from Shubman Gill (80° off 66), Robit Sharma (47 off 29), and KL Rabul (39° off 20) added momentum to India's innings. Robit's brisk start put New Zealand under pressure from the outset, while Gill's calm partnership with Kohli set the foundation for the imposing total.

OTD 1989: 15-year-old Sachin Tendulkar makes his international debut vs Pakistan

International debut vs Pakistan New Delhi. On 15th November 1989, the sport of cricket got gifted with one of his briggest disciples as a 16-year-old prodigy named Sachin Tendufkar made his international debut against Pakistan in Karachi. The child prodigy had diready made a name for hinsself by plundering runs in all forms of cricket right from school level to senior level leaving everyone in awe of his talent. Hence, a young Tendulkar who once dreamt of playing cricket for his country at the highest level while practicing in the local maidans (grounds) of Mumbai under the tutelage of Ramakart Achrekar, finally realized his dream. However, the youngster faced a herculean task in his very first game as he was up against a fery pace attack of Wasim Akram, Imran Khan and debutant Waqar Younis.On Day 2 of the Test,

Tendulkar finally lived his dream as he walked out for the first time to bat for India in front of a packed crowd at the National Stadium in Karachi. The right-handed batter was immediately introduced to the rigours of international cricket as Pakistan bowlers were all over him right from the word go. Tendulkar hit a couple of boundaries to ease himself at the crease but was clearly seen finding it tough at the crease. His stay at the crease was ended on 15 (24) as he was cleamed up by a vicious yorker from Waqar Younis who picked 4/80 on his debut. Tendulkar braves deadly bouncer in his 2nd imnings After a poor outing on his debut, Tendulkar immediately showed signs of greatness in his very next game as he registered his minden test half century after being hit on his nose by a deadly bouncer and bleeding profusely at the pitch. Following his injury, no one in the entire ground expected Tendulkar to continue his innings as he was asked to go back to the dressing room. However, the youngster, determined to leave his mark at the international level, replied with 'Mai Khelega' (1 will play) and scored a graceful 59 laced with four boundaries. From there on, there was no turning back for the child prodigy.

World Cup qualifiers: Argentina suffer shock defeat vs Paraguay, Brazil draw Argentina and Brazil faced tough nights in World Cup qualifiers, with Argentina losing 2-1 to Paraguay and Brazil drawing 1-1 with Venezuela. Messi and Vinicius Júnior had challenging performances, affecting their teams' standings.

New Delhi. Argentina's Lionel Messi and Brazil's Vinicius Pnior endured frustrating nights in South American World Cup qualifying on Thursday, as both teams faced setbacks in crucial matches. Argentina fell 2-1 to Paraguay in Asunci'n, with Messi unable to prevent his team from suffering their first defeat of the campaign. Despite Lautaro Mart-nez's early goal in the 11th minute, awarded after a video review, Paraguay quickly leveled through a spectacular hieyele kick from Antonio Sanabria in the 19th minute. The hosts maintained their pressure, and just after halftime, Omar Alderete's header in the 47th minute scaled the win for Paraguay. Messi, who had limited involvement throughout the match, voiced his frustration with Brazilian referee Anderson Daronco's decision not to send off Alderete for several aggressive tackles. We came to a hard place where the national team always struggled," Mart-nez said. "We have to correct a lot of things we did wrong, but generally speaking, we are playing well. We are still in the lead, and we have to look forward."Despite the loss, Argentina remains atop the South American qualifying table with 22 points from 11 matches, Paraguay's victory boosted their World Cup bopes, moving them closer to the too five, Brazil's Vinicius. Pairor also endured a night of frustration as his team was held to a 1-1 draw in Venezuela. Vinicius, who is yet to score in World Cup qualifying, had the chance to give Brazil the lead in the 67th minute after being awarded a penalty, but his low shot was saved by Venezuela's goalkeeper Rafael Ronto. Moments fater, Vinicius missed a second chance after the rebound fell to him, firing wide Brazil controlled much of the first half, with Raphinha's stunning free-kick in the 43rd minute giving the visitors the lead. However, Venezuela responded in the second half, with Telasco Segovia equalizing just minutes after the restart in the 46th minute with a powerful shot from outside the box.

outside the box. Venezuela's hopes of a comeback were slightly dampened in the 89th minute when Alexander Gonzalez was sent off for striking both Gabriel Martinelli and Vinicius in the face. Despite the red card, Brazil couldn't find a winner, and Raphinha expressed his disappointment post-match. When we don't win I leave the night a bit.

expressed his disappointment post-match. When we don't win, I leave the pitch a bit disappointed," said Raphinha. "We deserved to win this one. But it is an important point playing away. We are working hard to win the next one at home, "Brazil sits in third place in the standings with 17 points, trailing Argentina by five points.

BGT: Virat Kohli passed fit after injury scare ahead of Perth practice match New Delhi. Star India batter Virat Kohli

New Delhi. Star India batter Virat Kohli underwent seams for an injury ahead of team India's match-simulation practice on Friday, November 15. Notably, team India is preparing at the WACA Ground in Perth for the upcoming five-match Test series against Australia set to begin from November 22.Ahead of their match simulation practice in Perth, star batter Virat Kohli underwent scans for an injury. However, a source confirmed to India Today, that the star batter was declared fit and took part in the team's practice session. The source further revealed that he looked alright while batting. Despite his recent slump on form, Kohli is going to be extremely crucial for india in the upcoming Test series given lindia in the upcoming Test series given lindia in the upcoming Test series given batter averages a staggering 54.08 in Australia having secred 1352 runs from 13 matches. The right-handed batter has scored six centuries and four half centuries in the country and was India's highest run scorers on the 2011-12 and 2014-15 tours. KL.Rahul also suffers injury scare Kohli's best ever performance in a single series came against Australia during the 2014-15 tour where he plundered 692 runs from four matches at an average of 86,50 with four and registered four hundreds and one fifty. Hence, his form is going to be extremely crucial for the team in the upcoming series as India aim to seal the rubber in a dominating fashion to keep their chances of reaching World Test Championship (WTC) alive. Meanwhile, apaft from Kohli, KL Rahul also suffered an injury scare during the practice session. The 32-year-old, set to open alongside Yashasvi Jaiswal in the Perth Test, was hit on his right elbow during an intra-squad match simulation. When asked about KL Rahul's injury, sources mentioned that he was hit by a ball recently. However, they reassured that he was doing well and they revere no concerns regarding injuries within the Indian camp. With doubts on captain Rohit Shaema's participation in the first Test, Rahul is likely to open the immings alongside Yashasvi Jaiswal in the first Test.

fellow passenger seated behind him. Reports from eyewitnesses suggest that the man, who appeared intoxicated, had been persistently bothering the boxing legend with taunts, pushing Tyson's patience to the limit. The situation escalated when the passenger allegedly threw water at Tyson, prompting the former heavyweight champion to respond physically. Tyson's reaction, while intense, seemed to be the breaking point after enduring prolonged harassment.

Getting revenge for idol Muhammad Ali

One of the most remarkable fight stories from Mike Tyson's life goes back to when he was just 14 years old. Meeting his hero Muhammad Ali, Tyson promised that one day he would avenge Ali's loss to Larry Holmes. Amazingly, Tyson made good on that promise eight years later. In 1988, Tyson faced Holmes in a headline bout in Atlantic City. Before the fight, Ali approached Tyson, reminding him of his vow with a simple message: "Remember what you said-get him for me...
