US senator visits Taiwan as China ups military threat

TAIPEI, MAY 31/--/ US Senator Tammy Duckworth on Tuesday reiterated America's support for Taiwan on her second visit in a year to the self-governing island claimed by China.

Duckworth, meeting with Taiwan President Tsai Ing-wen, emphasized the close economic, political and security relations between Taipei and Washington.

China sent 30 military aircraft toward the island on Monday in an ongoing campaign of regular flights.

Taiwan's Defence Ministry said it responded by scrambling jets, putting air defence missile systems on alert and issuing radio warnings. Duckworth said she wanted to emphasise our support for Taiwan security. The former Army helicopter pilot and lieutenant colonel in the National Guard cited strong bipartisan backing for a bill she has put forward promoting cooperation between Taiwan's armed forces and the National Guard.

I do want to say that it is more than just about military. It's also about the economy, the Illinois Democrat told Tsai.

Tsai thanked the US government and Congress for the importance they place on peace and stability across the Taiwan Strait, as well as Duckworth herself for keeping a close watch on Taiwan related security issues. China said it strongly deplores Duckworth's visit.

Taiwan is a province of China, and there is no so-called president, Foreign Ministry spokesperson Zhao Lijian said. He urged the US to end all official contacts with Taiwan.

The US government has recently sent a series of erroneous signals on the Taiwan issue, he said. What the US government should do is to put into practice President Biden's remarks that the US does not seek a new Cold War with China, does not aim to change China's system...and does not support Taiwan independence." US President Joe Biden said on a recent trip to Japan and South Korea that the US would intervene militarily if China were to invade Taiwan. Russia's invasion of Ukraine has put China's threats against Taiwan under new focus, prompting increased backing for arms sales and political support from Democrats and Republicans.

China upped the ante further in May, reaching out to the Solomon Islands and nine other island nations with a sweeping security proposal that, even if only partially realised, could give it a presence in the Pacific much nearer Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand and on the doorstep of the strategic American territory of Guam.

That is seen as a potential route to blocking access to Taiwan by the US and its allies in the event China makes good on its threat to invade the island. (AP)

Imran Khan's supporters are carrying automatic weapons at Azadi rally, says Pak defence minister

ISLAMABAD, MAY 31/--/ Pakistan's Defence Minister Khawaja Asif has claimed that protesters in the Azadi March were carrying not only guns but also automatic weapons on the orders of ousted prime minister Imran Khan.

Khan led his thousands of supporters of his Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf party to Islamabad last Wednesday in a protest and had planned to stage a sit-in until new elections were announced but abruptly called off the sit-in at the last minute after making it to the capital.

However, he had threatened to return after six days if the government failed to give a date for snap polls in the country.

In an interview to Geo TV on Monday, Asif said the protesters at the Azadi rally were carrying weapons on Khan's orders.

Imran Khan is right, his party workers were not only carrying guns, but they also had automatic firearms. Imran Khan had asked protesters to bring weapons in the long march, however, the government was aware of that, he said.

Asif was replying to a question on a recent interview of Khan in a private news channel in which he confirmed that his party's workers were carrying firearms during the 'Azadi March'.

Khan was removed from office in April through a no-confidence vote but he refused to accept the outcome and blamed that the US was involved in toppling his government.

The PTI chairman has been protesting ever since and calling fresh elections because, in his words, the incumbent coalition government was imported and not a true representative of the Pakistani people. (PTI)
