Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

Dear Sir/ Ma'am,

Dr. Prannoy Roy and Mrs. Radhika Roy, the Founders and Promoters of NDTV, have informed the Company that on December 22, 2020, they have filed an appeal at the Securities Appellate Tribunal against the SEBI order dated November 27, 2020, which found them in violation of insider trading rules during the period December 2007 to April 2008.

The Promoters of the Company are advised by their lawyers, led by Ms. Fereshte Sethna, Senior Partner at DMD Advocates, that the SEBI order was based on an inaccurate assessment of facts and will not withstand scrutiny in appeal.

The Company was not a party to either the SEBI order or the appeal against it and therefore, there are no financial implications for it in this case.

You are requested to take this information on record in continuation of the disclosure made by NDTV on November 28, 2020.”

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

For New Delhi Television Limited

Company Secretary and Compliance Officer
