KANPUR DEMOLITION: OFFICIALS SET FIRE, SAYS FAMILY; OFFICIALS DENY IT

Day after woman & daughter die, two held; SDM, cops booked for murder

The remains of the hut at Madauli village of Kanpur Dehat. Vishal Srivastava

MANISH SAHU
KANPUR DEHAT, FEBRUARY 14

A DAY after a 46-year-old woman and her 22-year-old daughter were killed during an anti-encroachment drive at Madauli village in Kanpur Dehat district of Uttar Pradesh, police on Tuesday registered a murder FIR against 39 people, including sub-divisional magistrate (SDM), lekhpal (revenue officer) and the station house officer of the local police station. Police have also arrested two persons — lekhpal Ashok Singh and the driver of the bulldozer Deepak.

While the family of the women claimed that officials set fire to their thatched house on Monday causing the death of Pramila Dixit and her daughter Neha, the district administration denied the charge and claimed the two women set fire to their hut after locking it from inside.

On a complaint lodged by Pramila's son, Shivam, police registered the FIR under IPC sections

LAST YEAR, CM SAID THIS ON DEMOLITION

"If a poor person builds a house on government land by encroachment, then the administration will not remove it till a safe house is provided to them. There are arrangements for this... And if it is not in a reserved category, then it will not be demolished, but will be given on a lease at the same place."

YOGI ADITYANATH,
CM, UTTAR PRADESH,
APRIL 2022

302 (murder), 307 (attempt to murder), 436 (mischief by fire with intent to destroy house, etc), 429 (mischief by killing or maiming cattle), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt), and 34 (act done by common persons).

In his complaint, Shivam claimed that 22 goats owned by the family were killed in the fire.

Among the eight named in the FIR are local SHO Dinesh Kumar Gautam and four residents of the village — Ashok Dixit, Anil Dixit, Nirmal Dixit, Vishal. The FIR has also been lodged against three unidentified lekhpal, revenue officers and policemen.

"Two persons, including the lekhpal and the JCB driver have been arrested. The role of other accused is being probed," said Superintendent of Police (Kanpur Dehat) B B G T S Murti. Meanwhile, the district administration has placed SDM (Maitha) Gyaneshwar Prasad and lekhpal Singh under suspension.

Earlier in the day, the Dixit family and the residents of the village refused to allow post-mortem of the bodies, demanding action against officials. They also demanded Rs 1 crore compensation, land, and a government job for a family member. As the protests continued, Deputy Chief Minister Brajesh Pathak intervened and spoke with the family through video call.

"The deputy CM listened patiently to our grievances and demands. He assured to look into them and provide all possible help. I am satisfied with the government's assurance and therefore ending our protest," said 29-year-old Shivam Dixit, who works as a farmer.

Kanpur Divisional Commissioner Raj Shekhar said the administration was providing all possible help to the family of the deceased, including a police gunner for protection.

Shivam alleged that on Monday, a team of district administration led by the SDM arrived with a bulldozer in tow. "My parents were sleeping inside the house. They demolished the house without informing us and set it on fire. I somehow managed to come out of the house. The policemen caught me and beat me up. They were trying to push me inside the burning house. My father was severely burnt, while my mother and sister died in the fire," he alleged. District Magistrate (Kanpur Dehat) Neha Jain denied the charges.

Arrogance of power: Akhilesh, Rahul slam BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
LUCKNOW, NEW DELHI, FEB 14

CONGRESS LEADER Rahul Gandhi and Samajwadi Party president on Tuesday slammed the BJP over an incident in which a 46-year-old woman and her daughter allegedly immolated themselves during an anti-encroachment drive in Kanpur district.

In a Twitter post on Tuesday, Rahul Gandhi said, "When the arrogance of power takes away the people's right to live, it is called dictatorship. My mind is disturbed by the incident in Kanpur." "This 'bulldozer policy' has become the face of cruelty of this government. India does not accept this," the former Congress president said.

In a tweet, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav said the whole of Uttar Pradesh is facing injustices at the hands of the BJP government. "The arrogance of power has burnt alive a family. Not just Kanpur Dehat, or Kanpur Nagar, the whole of UP is facing injustices of the BJP government," he said.

The Samajwadi Party wrote on its official Twitter handle, "The deceased person's is naming officials and saying that they are responsible. When will you send these officials to jail after booking them under sections for murder, conspiracy to murder, intimidation?"

The SP also claimed that a delegation sent by the party to meet the victims was not allowed to reach the village and was detained.

Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra also attacked the BJP government, saying its bulldozer blinded by inhumanity has become a threat to sensitivity.

Student's suicide: IIT-Bombay denies 'caste discrimination'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 14

A DAY after allegations of caste-based discrimination against Darshan Solanki, a first-year IIT Bombay student who died by suicide on Sunday; the institute has denied all such accusations. Calling it an unfounded allegation, the institute has stated that an internal investigation by IIT will be conducted in Solanki's death, apart from the ongoing police investigation.

"IIT Bombay strongly refutes claims in some news articles about the tragic death of a 1st year B.Tech student, that imply that the cause was discrimination, and say it amounted to 'institutional murder'. It is wrong to make such accusations when the police are still investigating the case. Based on initial inputs from friends, there is no indication that the student faced any such discrimination," reads the statement issued by the institute on Tuesday as it underlined the ongoing investigation by police as well as the institute's internal committee.

Emphasising utmost precautions taken by the institute to make the campus as inclusive as possible, it said it had zero tolerance for any discrimination by faculty. It listed various measures taken by the institute such as no disclosure of caste identity or JEE rank, along with strict warnings against discrimination, and the existence of SC/ST Cell which the students can reach out to in case of any issues including discrimination. It stated, "There are very few complaints to the SC/ST Cell, whether against faculty or other students. Only one case was found to have substance and strict action has been taken."

Meanwhile, the Ambedkar Phule Periyar Study Circle, an informal students' collective at the IIT Bombay which had raised allegations of discrimination, has written a letter to the institute administration on Tuesday demanding that the SC/ST community should represent 50 per cent of the institute's internal committee to ensure fair investigation in case of Darshan's death. The student collective has claimed that Darshan had confided about facing caste discrimination to his senior Uday Singh Meena, who has already graduated from the institute.

IIT-M cancels classes for a day after protest over student's suicide

ARUN JANARDHANAN
CHENNAI, FEBRUARY 14

FOLLOWING A night-long student protest against the callous handling of a student's suicide and an attempted suicide by another student on the campus Sunday, IIT-Madras decided to cancel classes and academic work on Monday. The unusual decision to declare Monday a "non-instructional day" was made after the institute's director Kamakoti Veezhinathan addressed the student gathering and promised to take action.

A second-year research student in the electrical engineering department allegedly died by suicide on Sunday afternoon in a hostel room on the campus. According to reliable sources, a second, unconnected suicide attempt was also reported on the campus Sunday. The student was rescued and is currently under treatment at a hospital in Chennai. It was the administration's callous handling of the first student's death that sparked the protest.

A student representative who did not wish to be identified told The Indian Express that the administration did not inform the elected student representatives about the death, and that they learnt of it through unofficial channels by late evening. "Suicides may have many reasons, but why would they deal with it in secrecy? We demanded the administration to not let a small group of people at the top management handle things secretly. Student representatives or professors should be informed," the student said.

After learning of the news around evening, students began marching from their hostels to Gajendra Circle at the centre of the campus where the administration building is located. Around 11.15 pm, as the crowd swelled, Nilesh J Vasa, the dean of students, informed everyone via email about the student's death.

The students, however, chose to sit in protest in a bid to catch the attention of the dean and the director Veezhinathan and get an explanation for how they handled a student's death. The protest started before midnight.

The students refused to follow dean Vasa's instructions when he arrived after midnight. They demanded a response directly from the director.

IAF sports complex removes board stating no pets, wheelchair

VIDHEESHA KUNTAMALLA
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 13

FOLLOWING OUTRAGE among disability rights activists over a signboard at the sports complex at the Air Force Station in Delhi's Palam, IAF authorities have removed it and said they will put up a new board.

On February 7, The Indian Express first reported about the hoarding, which visitors said had been there since last year, which stated: "Following not allowed in cricket ground: Pets, prams/strollers, wheelchair. Do not climb on videography towers in cricket ground." The Indian Express visited the stadium on Friday and found that the old signboard had been removed.

Officials said the language of the new signboard will be changed to better communicate their intention. Sources said, "On the cricket field, wheelchairs, pets and prams, etc are not allowed basically to ensure that the surface is not spoiled. Nobody is allowed on the playing area due to personal safety concerns and to avoid damage to the playing surface."
