Dear Sir/Madam,

I own 500 shares of Chambal fertilizer under ID E0407015 in name of Mitali Sakaria.

Few years back shares were sent for demat in name of Asit Shankar (my brother). However, they are not showing in his account.

I am regularly getting the annual dividend in my account every year.

Can you please help me in identifying if the stocks are in demat form and the account number for the same.

If case they are still not in demat then what's the process of retrieving missing shares.

Best regards
