NCLAT reserves order in RCap bankruptcy case

Gives all parties three days to file submissions

RAJESH KURUP Mumbai, February 21

THE NATIONAL COMPANY Law Appellate Tribunal has reserved its judgment on the appeal filed by a bidder in Reliance Capital's bankruptcy case and gave all parties three days to file submissions.

The plea was filed by Vistra ITCL (India), which challenged an earlier National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) order that termed the second e-auction of the firm a violation of bankruptcy rules.

The hearings at the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal had commenced on February 7.

According to Reliance Capital's (RCap) committee of creditors (CoC), value maximisation was the key objective under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) and it was free to negotiate as many times as needed.

Senior advocates Mukul Rohatgi and Ramji Srinivasan appeared on behalf of Torrent Investments on Tuesday, a group company through which the Gujarat-based Torrent Group had placed its bid for the entire assets of RCap.

Torrent Group had earlier moved the NCLT, terming RCap administrator's decision to hold another round of auction as "illegal".

According to Torrent Group, the IBC permitted only one challenge mechanism and further auctions were illegal.It also stated that its bid of ₹8,640 crore was the highest, when the first challenge mechanism had ended on December 21.

The final decision in the RCap insolvency case will be crucial as a debate rages on the underlying objective of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code whether the completion of the resolution plan in a time-bound manner or maximisation of value for the lenders is of paramount importance.

HOUSING AFFORDABLE FINANCIER Home First Finance is looking to grow its assets under management (AUMs) at 30% year-on-year by increasing penetration and market share, and entering into co-lending partnerships, chief executive officer Manoj Viswanathan has said.

"We have presence in 13 states now. Our stronger presence is in western and southern regions of the country. We want to stay focused on these markets as these are more industrialised, more urbanised markets and have a stronger demand for affordable housing," he said.

"Our growth will primarily come from increasing our penetration, and deeper distribution in these markets. Currently, we are present in 200 cities. The idea is to take that to 400 cities in the next two years. Some part of the growth (AUM) will come from that," he added. "Some part of the growth will also come from increased market share. Currently, our market share in the regions that we are present is less than 2%. Our aim is to take the market share to 4-5% in the next two years. Increased market share will give us growth. We are also looking at co-lending as an avenue to increase our market share as it gives us access to formal customers who borrow at a higher ticket Viswanathan added.

The home financier's assets under management rose 35%
