BEIJING China's reusable experimental spacecraft, which was launched into orbit two days ago, successfully returned to its predetermined landing site on Sunday. The spacecraft was launched on board a Long March-2F carrier rocket from the Jiuquan Satellite Launch Center on Friday. The successful return marks an important breakthrough in China's research on reusable spacecraft technology, which will provide a more convenient and economical way for the peaceful use of space, state-run CGTN TV reported. A Chinese official said, "The spacecraft is new, the launch method is also different."

JAPAN BRACES FOR TYPHOON HAISHEN

8L told to evacuate at once; 5 million more could join

AGENCIES / Tokyo

More than 810,000 people living in Japan's southern and southwestern prefectures were ordered to immediately evacuate on Sunday due to approaching Typhoon Haishen, the NHK broadcaster reported.

The evacuation was recommended to another 5.5 million people in 10 prefectures of the country.

Haishen unleashed fierce winds and rain on southern islands, blowing off rooftops and leaving 2,27,000 homes without power as it edged northward into an area vulnerable to flooding and mudslides.

Weather officials warned that the rainfall from what could be a record storm would be fierce. Warnings were issued days in advance for people to be ready to take shelter and stock up on food and water.

Several rivers on the main southwestern island of Kyushu were at risk of overflowing, officials said. Public broadcaster NHK TV said evacuation warnings were issued for more than 50,000 people in Okinawa and Kyushu, including Kagoshima and Nagasaki prefectures.

News footage showed people in Kyushu starting to gather at gymnasiums, before winds gathered momentum in the evening. Social distancing would be in place to guard against the contagious coronavirus pandemic, officials said.

The Japan Meteorological Agency said Typhoon Haishen, which means "sea god" in Chinese, was packing sustained winds of up to 162 kilometres (100 miles) per hour after battering Okinawa and the southern Kyushu island of Amami Oshima early Sunday.

Alerts for strong winds, waves, high tides, rainfall and lightning were issued for Amami Oshima alongside evacuation orders. There were no immediate reports of any injuries in Okinawa, home to more than half of the roughly 50,000 US troops based in Japan under a bilateral treaty.

Haishen was not only powerful - equivalent to a Category 2 hurricane - but also large in its reach, according to the meteorological agency.

Bullet trains were temporarily halting services, and dozens of flights were canceled. All Nippon Airways said such cancellations will continue Monday and possibly on Tuesday for flights in southern Japan, such as Yamaguchi, Kochi and Fukuoka.

Haishen's projected course has it hitting the Korean Peninsula later in the week.

Haishen's course is similar to Typhoon Maysak, which lashed southern Japan last week, injuring dozens of people and cutting power to thousands of homes.

When Trump used 'F' bomb for Mandela, he hired a 'Faux-Bama'

AGENCIES/ New York

When US President Donald J. Trump made headlines back in January 2018 for allegedly making the "s**thole countries" remark, many South Africans would have never thought their home country was on the list. Or, that Nelson Mandela was to blame.

According to an upcoming tell-all book penned by Trump's former fixer and personal lawyer Michael Cohen, the US President thinks South Africa is one of those "s**thole countries" and their iconic leader Nelson Mandela is to blame.

As per a report in Daily Mail, Trump is alleged to have said, during an Oval Office meeting about the visa lottery, "Why do we want all these people from 's**thole countries' coming here?" in reference to Central American and African nations. An allegation that Trump has since denied.

These and other astonishing anecdotes have been laid out in Cohen's book which is titled Disloyal: A Memoir. CNN says Trump's dislike

Tells Fox News to fire scribe

Donald Trump has demanded the Fox News network fire its national security correspondent after she confirmed claims he had disparaged the military. Trump came under fire after The Atlantic magazine reported he had called marines killed in action in the World War I "losers" and "suckers". Fox News correspondent Jennifer Griffin on Saturday said two ex-administration officials had confirmed to her the president "did not want to drive to honour American war dead" at the Aisne-Marne cemetery outside Paris, implying weather was not a factor.

for Obama was so severe that he took his fixation a step further, according to Cohen: Trump hired a "Faux-Bama" to participate in a video in which Trump "belittled the first black president and then fired him."

Hong Kong arrests 290 for protest over poll delay

AGENCIES / Hong Kong

About 290 people were arrested Sunday at protests against the government's decision to postpone elections for Hong Kong's legislature, police said.

The elections were to have taken place Sunday but Chief Executive Carrie Lam on July 31 postponed them for one year. Lam blamed an upsurge in coronavirus cases, but critics said her government worried the opposition would gain seats if voting went ahead on schedule.

Police said that 289 people had been arrested, mostly for unlawful assembly. One woman was arrested in the Kowloon district of Yau Ma Tei on charges of assault and spreading pro-independence slogans, the police department said on its Facebook page. It said such slogans are illegal under a newly enacted law.

Anti-government protests erupted last year over a proposed extradition law and spread to include demands for greater democracy.

1 dead, 7 injured in UK stabbings

AGENCIES / London

The UK police said a murder inquiry has been launched on Sunday after one man was killed and seven people injured in multiple stabbings overnight in the city of Birmingham.

According to reports, West Midlands Police believe the victims were picked at random and do not believe the incident was terror or gang related.

While a man and a woman are battling serious injuries, the injuries of five others are not thought to be life-threatening, the force said.

A hunt has been initiated for a male suspect, who is believed to have gone on a stabbing spree, starting at Constitution Hill in Birmingham City.

"The events during the early hours of this morning are tragic, shocking and understandably frightening," said Chief Superintendent Steve Graham, responsible for policing in Birmingham.

The force is also calling for anyone with CCTV or mobile footage to contact the police. The police believe the incidents, which took place between 12:30 am and 2:20 am local time.

NAVALNY PROBE

Germany ups pressure on Russia

AGENCIES/ Berlin

Germany on Sunday increased pressure on Russia over the poisoning of Russian opposition politician Alexei Navalny, warning that a lack of support by Moscow in the investigation could "force" Germany to rethink the fate of a German-Russian gas pipeline project.

"I hope the Russians won't force us to change our position regarding the Nord Stream 2" pipeline being built under the Baltic Sea, German Foreign Minister Heiko Maas told weekly Bild am Sonntag.

Maas also said that "if there won't be any contributions from the Russian side regarding the investigation in the coming days, we will have to consult with our partners."

He did not exclude possible punishments against Russia, telling the newspaper that "if we think about sanctions, they should be pinpointed effectively." However, Maas also admitted that halting the building of the nearly completed pipeline would harm German and European companies.

Jacob Blake has spoken publicly for the first time since a Kenosha, Wisconsin, police officer shot him seven times in the back, saying he's in constant pain from the shooting, which doctors fear will leave him paralysed from the waist down.

In a video posted Saturday evening on Twitter by his family's lawyer, Ben Crump, Blake said from his hospital bed that, "Twenty-four hours, every 24 hours it's pain, nothing

Second leg of Nirav trial starts today

AGENCIES/ London

Fugitive diamond merchant Nirav Modi, who has been lodged at a prison in London since his arrest in March last year, is set to appear via video link for the second leg of his extradition trial at a UK court on Monday.

The 49-year-old jeweller is fighting extradition charges related to the estimated $2-billion Punjab National Bank fraud case brought by the Indian government, being represented at Westminster Magistrates' Court in London. Modi has made repeated attempts at bail over the past year, each of which were turned down.

Assange to fight US extradition bid

AGENCIES / London

WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange is set to fight for his freedom in a British court after a decade of legal drama, as he challenges American authorities' attempt to extradite him on spying charges over the site's publication of secret US Military documents.

Lawyers for Assange and the US Government are scheduled to face off in London Monday at an extradition hearing that was delayed by the coronavirus pandemic.

American prosecutors have indicted the 49-year-old Australian on 18 espionage and computer misuse charges adding up to a maximum sentence of 175 years. His lawyers say the prosecution is a politically motivated abuse of power that will stifle press freedom and put journalists at risk.

Assange attorney Jennifer Robinson said the case "is fundamentally about basic human rights and freedom of speech." "Journalists and whistle-blowers who reveal illegal activity by companies or governments and war crimes - such as the publications Julian has been charged for - should be protected from prosecution," she said.

American prosecutors say Assange conspired with US Army intelligence analyst Chelsea Manning to hack into a Pentagon computer and release hundreds of thousands of secret diplomatic cables and military files on the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.
