Application of beneficial Tax Treaty Rate shall depend upon the completeness and satisfactory review by the Company/RTA, of the documents submitted by Non-Resident members and meeting requirement of the IT Act read with applicable Tax Treaty. It must be ensured that self-declaration should be addressed to the company and should be in the same format as attached. In the absence of the same, the company will not be obligated to apply the beneficial Tax Treaty rate at the time of tax deduction on dividends.

Section 206AB of the IT Act applicable to all members (resident and non-resident)

Section 206AB(1) of the IT Act provides that where TDS is required to be deducted under Chapter XVIII, other than sections 192, 192A, 194B, 194BB, 194BC or 194N on any sum or income or amount paid or payable or credited, by a person to a specified person, the tax shall be deducted at the higher of the below rates:-

- at twice the rate specified in the relevant provision of the IT Act; or
- at twice the rate or rates in force; or
- at the rate of 5%.

Further, sub section (2) of section 206AB provides that where sections 206AA and 206AB are applicable, i.e., the specified person has not submitted the PAN as well as not filed the income tax return (and the TDS/TCS for the previous year exceeds INR 50,000); the tax shall be deducted at the higher rate between both the said sections.

The non-resident who does not have a permanent establishment is excluded from the scope of a specified person.

The Income Tax Department has also released a Compliance Check Functionality to determine whether a payee is a specified person under section 206AB of the Act and whether the PAN in case of individual is operative/ inoperative and the Company would be relying on the report generated from the said facility for compliance with section 139AA read with section 206AA and 206AB of the IT Act.

For all members (Resident and Non-Resident)

Members holding shares under multiple accounts under different residential status/ shareholder category and single PAN, may note that, higher of the tax rate as applicable to different residential status/ category, will be considered on their entire shareholding which is held under different accounts.

Kindly note that the documents listed in Tables 1 and 2 above be promptly emailed to us at the designated email address "dividend2024@rpsg.in" on or before Tuesday, 20th February, 2024. This is essential for the Company to accurately determine and deduct the appropriate TDS/withholding tax rate. Please note that any communication or documents pertaining to tax determination or deduction received after Tuesday, 20th February 2024, 11:59 P.M. will not be considered. The Company shall not be liable for any claims arising from taxes deducted after this deadline.

After receipt of any of the declarations, if the Company basis its independent assessment, finds any information that is contrary to the declarations received by it, the Company reserves right to rely on the results of its independent assessment and make a deduction of taxes at a higher rate as per applicable provisions of the IT Act.

It may be further noted that in case the tax on dividend is deducted at a higher rate in absence of receipt of the aforementioned details/documents or for any other reason, there would still be an option available with the member to file the return of income and claim an appropriate refund, if eligible. No claim shall lie against the Company for such tax deduction.

A declaration must be filed with the Company where the whole or any part of the dividend income is assessable, under the provisions of the IT Act, in the hands of a person other than the member in accordance with Rule 37BA(2) of the Income-tax Rules, 1962. The declaration must consist of name, address, PAN, along with other documents mentioned above depending upon the tax residency status of such person to whom credit is to be given and proportion of credit to be given in respect of dividend income.

In the event of any income tax demand (including interest, penalty, etc.) arising from any misrepresentation, inaccuracy or omission of information provided/to be provided by the members (s), such member(s) will be responsible to indemnify the Company and also, provide the Company with all information/documents and co-operation in any appellate proceedings.

This Communication is not exhaustive and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences in the matter of dividend payment. Members should consult their tax advisors for requisite action to be taken by them.

All communications/ queries in this respect should be addressed and sent to our RTA, M/s Link Intime India Private Limited at its email address at rnt.helpdesk@linkintime.co.in.

We request your cooperation in this regard.

Your faithfully,

For Saregama India Limited
