AAP's corruption, nepotism will pave way for its ouster from Delhi: BJP

NEW DELHI, AUG 19 (PTI)

The BJP on Friday reacted sharply to Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's scathing attack on Prime Minister Modi over the recently enacted GNCTD Amendment Act, saying "corruption, inaction and nepotism" of his government will pave its exit in 2025.

Kejriwal had earlier in the Delhi Assembly claimed the BJP will lose all seven Lok Sabha seats in the city.

Delhi BJP president

Virendra Sachdeva challenged Kejriwal to call a session of the Assembly for a debate to compare development works done by his government and the Modi government in Delhi.

"Since 2020 elections, people of Delhi have seen the real face of Kejriwal through communalism, inaction, corruption and nepotism and they will shunt him out of power in 2025," Sachdeva said.

He also said the AAP national convener was deft in playing the victim card and diverting issues.

"Kejriwal masters the art of playing the victim card for political benefit. Time and again people of Delhi have seen that whenever the issue of corruption and nepotism in his governance becomes a topic of discussion, he tries to raise the issue of power and rights of his government to divert public attention," Sachdeva charged.

The BJP leader also referred to the CM's reconstructed official residence in Delhi as 'Sheeshmahal' alleging it to have been renovated with public money.

He said the appointment of AAP supporters as fellows and advisors in his government was a proof of Kejriwal's "nepotism."

A total 437 persons engaged as advisors, fellows and specialists by the Kejriwal government were recently discontinued by the Services department on the directions of Delhi LG VK Saxena.

Delhi Assembly polls will be held in 2025.

Ghosi assembly bypoll: Nominations of six candidates rejected during scrutiny

MAU (UP), AUG 19 (PTI)

The nomination papers of six candidates for the by-election in the Ghosi assembly constituency of Mau district of Uttar Pradesh were rejected during a scrutiny on Friday.

A total of 11 nomination papers were found valid during the scrutiny and the last date for withdrawal of nominations is August 21.

Election Officer of the Ghosi assembly constituency Suresh Kumar said a total of 17 nomination papers were scrutinised, of which six were rejected due to various issues.

The election symbol will be allotted to the candidates after the deadline for the withdrawal of nominations expires on August 21, he said.

Polling in Ghosi will be held on September 5 and the counting of votes on September 8.

The by-election is being held due to the resignation of MLA Dara Singh Chauhan.

Last month, Chauhan rejoined the BJP after resigning from the assembly and the Samajwadi Party.

Chauhan joined the Samajwadi Party after resigning as the forest minister in the Yogi Adityanath-led Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) government ahead of the 2022 assembly elections and was elected on the SP symbol from Ghosi.

This time in the by-election, Chauhan is the BJP candidate while the Samajwadi Party has fielded former MLA Sudhakar Singh against him.

The Congress and the Bahujan Samaj Party are staying out of the contest and have not nominated any candidate.

Stray dog found eating newborn girl's body in Haryana's Ambala

AMBALA, AUG 19 (PTI)

The body of a newborn girl was found in a drain here on Friday after people noticed a stray dog eating the mortal remains of the baby, police said.

According to police, the infant's umbilical cord was also attached to it, which indicated that she was thrown into the drain soon after birth.

However, a post-mortem report is awaited to ascertain whether the baby was stillborn or she died after being thrown into the drain, police said.

The matter came to the fore when some shopkeepers near a government college in Ambala Cantt noticed that a stray dog pulled the child's body out of a drain, brought it to the road and started eating it, they said.

They alerted local police and medical authorities. The police soon reached the spot and took the body into its custody and sent it to civil hospital for post-mortem, they said.

CCTV footage of the nearby shops close to the drain was being collected for investigation, police said.

Namakkal collector Uma chaired a meeting with the members of a committee to prevent attacks on animals at her office in the city. Namakkal MLA Ramalingam and others attended the meeting.

Plea to give promotions in Municipal Corporations

ERODE AUGUST 19:

Radhakrishnan, the state president of Tamil Nadu State Federation of All Municipal Corporation Officers' Associations, appealed to the director of the Municipal administration to empower corporation commissioners to fill up the newly created posts in the local bodies by the existing staff by giving promotions.

In a petition to the director, he said the Government Order 152 was issued on 20.10.2022 to create uniform posts and reorganize existing posts in 20 Municipal Corporations in Tamil Nadu based on population.

Accordingly, the Commissioners sent the details of the eligible employees to the Director. But, according to the GO 152, all the Municipal Corporations Commissioners have not been given permission yet to fill up vacancies in the newly created posts. Due to this, employees are forced to retire without being able to enjoy promotion and monetary benefits. Therefore, the Director should issue an order to give permission to all the Corporation Commissioners to fill up the newly created higher posts in the respective Municipal Corporations by using the existing staff, he pleaded.

Thoothukudi collector Senthil Raja chaired a meeting with representatives from fishermen community and general public in the presence of SP Balaji Saravanan at his office in the city.
