TATA GROUP AIRLINE HAS CUT DAILY FLIGHTS BY 10%

Vistara turbulence: Fares up by 25% on key routes

SUKALP SHARMA
New Delhi, April 8

JUST AHEAD OF the peak summer travel season, with Vistara announcing a scale-down in operations by reducing 25-30 flights a day—or roughly 10% of its operating capacity—the already high fares have started climbing further, with some routes witnessing a steep jump.

According to travel industry insiders, fares have surged by approximately 20-25% across key routes such as Delhi-Goa, Delhi-Kochi, Delhi-Jammu, Delhi-Srinagar.

Vistara faced significant disruptions last week with numerous flight cancellations and delays after a number of its pilots called in sick ostensibly to voice discontent over a new pay structure, concerns about the carrier's imminent merger with Air India, and a rostering system that was allegedly stretching them to the limit.

As part of the mitigation measures, the Tata group airline announced over the weekend that it was reducing around 10% of its operational capacity—mostly in its domestic network—to provide “much-needed resilience and buffer” in its crew rosters. Given that airfares have been on the higher side for a while now due to a demand-supply mismatch, Vistara's move has added additional pressure, particularly on the routes impacted by the cancellations.

According to Bharatt Malik, senior vice president, Air and Hotel Business at Yatra Online, a “significant surge” has been witnessed in airfares on some of the major domestic routes where the airline has a strong presence. “We have observed a significant surge in fares, with prices skyrocketing by approximately 20-25% across key routes such as Delhi-Goa, Delhi-Kochi, Delhi-Jammu, and Delhi-Srinagar,” Malik said.

Last week, at the peak of flight disruptions at Vistara, same-day and day-ahead airfares are understood to have shot up by over 30% on some major routes hit by flight cancellations, as many among the affected passengers started looking for alternative flights.

An executive at another travel agency said that while the Vistara flight cancellations may be a temporary phenomenon that may last a couple of months, even a short-lived disruption adds to the pressure on the capacity-constrained Indian aviation ecosystem that has been struggling to keep up with strong travel demand since the end of the Covid-19 pandemic. In such a scenario, airfares are bound to heat up.

“Over 70 aircraft of IndiGo are grounded due to engine-related issues and supply chain problems and over 50 Go First planes are idling at airports as the airline filed for insolvency in May last year. There are visible capacity constraints and the airlines seem helpless at this stage. On the other hand, demand growth is not letting up, leading to a skewed demand-supply scenario,” said the executive, who did not wish to be identified.

“We are carefully scaling back our operations by around 25-30 flights per day, i.e. roughly 10% of the capacity we were operating. This will take us back to the same level of flight operations as at the end of February 2024, and provide the much-needed resilience and buffer in the rosters... In line with what we had said earlier, with this all the changes for the month of April 2024 have been done and the situation has already gotten better with our on-time performance improving for the last few days. Looking ahead, we are hopeful of stable operations for the rest of the month and beyond,” Vistara said in a statement on Sunday.

LSG's Thakur: From idolising Dhoni to living father's dream

The pacer lost his father on his 25th birthday last year

PRATYUSH RAJ
New Delhi, April 8

ON DECEMBER 28, Yash Thakur spent his 25th birthday performing the last rites of his father, who died after prolonged illness. The youngster missed the first two Ranji Trophy matches due to the rituals but joined the Vidarbha team for the third match, and played a pivotal role in them reaching the final.

“Ek aansu nahi giraye hai is lade me. (He didn't shed a drop of tear),” an emotional Kajal Thakur, his mother, tells The Indian Express.

“He completed the shraadh sanskaar with a smile on his face. He managed everything single-handedly. We were all surprised when he joined Vidarbha's Ranji Trophy team, we were not expecting it, but he motivated himself. God knows how he managed that,” says Yash's mother.

When Yash was packing his kit to join the team, his mother Kajal and elder sister Shweta would suggest skipping one more match if he isn't ready yet but Yash was adamant as he had promised his late father on his deathbed that he would not lose his “focus”.

“Papa ke liye kar raha hun, wo yahi chahte they (I am doing this for father, he wanted me to play),” recalls Kajal.

“Yash was very close to his father and even during his last days, they used to talk a lot about cricket. After every match, he used to have long chats with his father. My husband would keep pointing out the mistakes and he would listen like a good student. I am sure he misses him a lot. He never talks about his father in front of me but after taking five-wickets, he told his sister that he missed his father today,” she says.

Thakur took 5/30 to help Lucknow Super Giants record its first win over Gujarat Titans in the IPL and dedicated his Player of the Match award to his father Ravi Singh Thakur.

“My father is no more. I am dedicating this award to him. He wanted to see me getting a five-wicket haul, so this one is for him,” he said in the post-match presentation.

Failed singer and a 'wannabe' Dhoni

Yash's mother never wanted her son to play cricket but become a singer. She even enrolled him in a singing class.

“After the first day, the teachers said, ‘please don't bring him from tomorrow. He doesn't talk, he is so shy and I don't think he can sing.’ The teacher was very kind, in reality, he was a terrible singer,” she laughs.

The love for cricket was always there for Yash but it took off with MS Dhoni's World Cup-winning six in 2011.

“Praveen Hinganikar's (his first coach) cricket academy lived near our home and from his terrace, he used to watch the kids play cricket,” says Kajal.

Hinganikar, a former Vidarbha captain, recalls the first time he met Yash, who had come to the academy with wicket-keeping gloves and said he wanted to emulate Dhoni.

“He started as a keeper-batter and after a couple of games, one can tell that he was not good at it. I told him why don't you bowl. He threw a bit of a tantrum like any 13-year-old, and said, ‘sir mujhe Dhoni banna hai (I want to become Dhoni),’ but thankfully he started bowling. He looked a natural,” says Hinganikar.

“But the Dhoni craze had swept him over. We had won the World Cup, every kid wanted to become like Dhoni. His father stepped in and told him ‘tu Dhoni ki tarah bowling me finish kar (You finish the match like a bowler)’” he says.

In the video shared by the IPL media team, the youngster, who idolizes MS Dhoni said: “I am a big MS Dhoni fan and I want to win matches for my team in the death overs.”

Yash rose through Vidarbha's age-group cricket and was even picked for India in 2016 for the U-19 Asia Cup. He was a member of Vidarbha's Ranji Trophy-winning team in 2017-18 but missed the 2018 U-19 World Cup due to a back injury.

“He got the support of good people throughout his career. He worked with former India bowlers Subroto Banerjee and Paras Mhambrey at Vidarbha. The impact of Umesh (Yadav) has now been massive on him. Now, he is working with Morne Morkel at LSG. He trains hard, works really hard on his fitness,” says Hinganikar.

“He is a complete team man. He always bowls in the death overs in white-ball for Vidarbha. In the red-ball, he comes as a first change, where he bowls long spells,” he adds.

A thinking bowler

On Sunday, Yash showed he is a very shrewd pacer. He kept just two fielders on the leg side and Shubman Gill slapped him for a boundary. Underdetred, he bowled at the same channel and cleaned up Gill with a full pacy ball that angled in just a bit.

“We had two fielders on the leg side. So, we sort of knew that he (Gill) would try to make room. That was the best among the five,” Thakur said.

The Rashid Khan dismissal too was planned. “Rahul bhैया told me to stick to my plans and that we will get a wicket that way. The mid-on and mid-off were up and I bowled the slower one to Rashid and it ballooned up in the air,” he said.
