Delay in recruiting screeners

DIVYA CUTINHO @ Mangaluru

THE delay in recruitment of staff at the screening facility at domestic cargo terminal at Mangalore International Airport has affected dispatching of the same via flights for more than a year. Due to this, the cargo is delayed by a day since it is taken by road to Bengaluru and from there it is dispatched via flights.

The cargo terminal functions under AAI Cargo Logistics and Allied Services Company. Domestic cargo was handled by a Mumbai-based company till 2020 and after it stopped its services, a new facility was set up and operations got final approval only this February from the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS).

But the operations are yet to start as the recruitment of screeners is yet to be completed.

It has affected the delivery of various cargo items. "Since there are no flights available from Mangaluru, we are dispatching the cargo through trains and on road by trucks. We have to dispatch it to Bengaluru overnight using a dedicated vehicle and from there it is sent through flights to other hubs. Ours is a hub-to-hub approach. There are 89 hubs in the country under India Post and Speed post service comes under Railway Mail Services (RMS). We are fo-
