Two populist Budgets, five years apart: The likeness of Gehlot & Raje's announcements

Raje played the populist card five years ago in an attempt to hang on to power. Now, Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot has followed in her footsteps. It remains to be seen if he will succeed where she failed

DEEP MUKHERJEE
JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

WHEN RAJASTHAN Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot walked into the state Assembly on Friday to present the fifth and last Budget of his current tenure, he had several populist announcements in his briefcase, all aimed at convincing the electorate to give him another term.

The announcements he made — an increase in the insurance amount of the government's Chiranjeevi Health Insurance Scheme from Rs 10 lakh to Rs 25 lakh, the decision to provide LPG cylinders at a rate of Rs 500 to 76 lakh families and 100 units of free electricity to families — were all meant to bolster Gehlot's tagline of "good governance".

In the last several months, Gehlot has been consistently expressing confidence about the Congress getting re-elected — a herculean task given the fact that in the past 25 years every incumbent government has been voted out.

Gehlot's populist announcements echo the measures his predecessor, Vasundhara Raje of the BJP had announced in her government's last Budget in February 2018. Raje had banked on the use of populist announcements, with the most potent weapon in her arsenal — the announcement of a one-time farm-lean waiver for small and marginal farmers to the tune of Rs 50,000. The measure was expected to cost the state exchequer Rs 8,000 crore.

On Friday, Raje, who at present is facing a challenge from multiple state BJP leaders with chief ministerial ambitions, not only sat through the entire duration of Gehlot's three-hour-plus speech but also attacked the CM when he erroneously read out portions from his previous year's Budget speech. "This is sheer carelessness," Raje said.

Fighting anti-incumbency and embattled by a string of by-poll defeats, Raje had announced subsidies worth Rs 50 lakh for Nandi Gauslhala (cow shelters) in each district and increased fodder subsidy from 90 days to 180 days. Five years later, Gehlot has announced Rs 40,000 compensation for cattle rearers who lose milk cows.

Among the other major announcements was the decision to provide government jobs to Covid-19 orphans, along with the decision to send Annamda food packets to the families covered under the National Food Security Act (NFSA) in the state.

In his recent speeches and interactions with the media, Gehlot appealed to the electorate to give him another chance to serve them, adding that there is no anti-incumbency against his administration.

Catering to the public sentiment against repeated question paper leaks during his government's tenure, Gehlot also announced a special task force to prevent question paper leaks.

It was expected that the Budget would have a large array of populist announcements. Last year, Gehlot surprised everyone by moving back to the Old Pension Scheme (OPS), which has since then triggered a nationwide debate over the issue, with other Congress-ruled states also following his footsteps. In the recent elections in Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh, the Congress used OPS as one of its main planks.

On Friday, Gehlot extended the ambit of OPS to all employees of various commissions, electricity commission employees — they had recently protested demand to be included under OPS — along with other institutions such as institutions and academies.

HAMZA KHAN & DEEPIKA JEE
JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

IN A major embarrassment to Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot, his budget address was disrupted for 15 hours on Friday after he erroneously read from last year's budget for the first few minutes, leading to protests by the Opposition BJP.

A few minutes into his speech, Gehlot announced the Urban Employment Scheme along the lines of MGNREGA, while increasing the annual person days under MGNREGA from 100 days per year to 225 days as well as bridge construction. He also announced Covid — all announcements that were made last year when Gehlot presented the 2022-23 Budget. However, this was noticed by bureaucrats who were sitting in the Officers' Gallery.

Soon, CM's OSD Shashi Kant Sharma ran to inform Chief Whip Mahesh Joshi, who whispered to Gehlot to stop his address. As CM asked why Joshi pointed out that it was the wrong year, the Chief Secretary Kuldeep Ranka and Additional Chief Secretary (Finance) Akhil Arora came next to Joshi who also spoke to Gehlot. The CM stopped his speech and the Opposition BJP quickly realised the error, they stormed the well in protest. Leading the protest, Leader of Opposition Gulab Chand Kataria engaged in a verbal duel with Speaker C P Joshi, while state president Satish Poonia and others stormed the well, with BJP MLAs calling it an insult to democracy. Amidst the ruckus, Joshi adjourned the House for half an hour for 11:42 am.

When the House reconvened, with BJP MLAs still in the well, Joshi said that the proceedings will now be expunged. Kataria said that such a development has happened for the first time; Joshi responded that what has happened is unfortunate, with Kataria shouting back that the budget has sanctity.

Kataria raised an issue on two points: first, that how can an "outsider" read the budget and know that it's wrong, hence it must have been leaked; second, that the Government has set the date and time for tabling of the budget, hence the House should be suspended.

Deputy Leader of Opposition Rajendra Rathore said that as per Article 202 of the Constitution and Rule 138 of Rajasthan Assembly Rules of Procedure, the day and time are set by the Governor, hence House should be postponed.

Business Advisory Meeting (BAC) be called, and another date be set for tabling of the budget. However, Cabinet Minister B D Kalla pointed out neither of the two specific time. He said that the Rule 138 states that, "The Annual Financial Statement ... shall be presented to the House on such day as the Governor may direct." Joshi said that it was a historic moment and that it had not happened for the first time.

Gehlot then said he was reading "one page mistakenly" and that there is no question of leak. As BJP continued to protest, Joshi, an hour into the day's proceedings, asked Gehlot to start his budget speech.

However, before beginning his speech, Gehlot requested the opposition to go back to their chairs. Amidst this, Kataria insisted that the CM should apologise, as the BJP MLAs returned to the chairs.

Joshi then asked Gehlot to stop and engaged with the Opposition MLAs. As Parliamentary Affairs Minister Shanti Dharwadgi stood up to respond, BJP MLAs again got agitated and stormed the well once again. Amidst the ruckus, Gehlot requested the opposition to go back to their protest. However, as they persisted, Gehlot walked out of the House at 12:11 pm, leading Joshi to adjourn the House again for 15 minutes.

When the House reconvened at 12:26 pm, Gehlot said that, "I was myself confused... I felt sorry that at that time, maybe you didn't hear it. Now I feel sorry again that a mistake was made."

He said that a correction was made by former CM Vasundhara Raje too, prompting Raje to stand up and react sharply at Gehlot: "What you have done, that is sheer carelessness. No CM comes with his papers in this manner without reading the budget. If it happens like this, then I feel sorry for what will happen to Rajasthan. Hence, don't raise this here."

Post that, Gehlot finally restarted his budget address.

PM flags off Vande Bharat, says 'Sextortion calls' to Maharashtra MLA: Police arrest man from Bharatpur

SHUBHANGI KHAPRE & PALLAVI SARTY
MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 10

PRIME MINISTER Narendra Modi on Friday said his year's Union Budget has strengthened the middle class. "Be it the salaried class or the middle class earning from trade and commerce, this Budget has made them happy," the PM said after flagging off two Vande Bharat trains from the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus in south Mumbai.

"The middle class has been strengthened in this Budget," he added.

In his second visit to Mumbai in less than a month, the PM flagged off Mumbai-Solapur Vande Bharat and Mumbai-Sainagar Shirdi Vande Bharat trains. He also launched two road projects, the Sanjay Gandhi Link Road and Kurar underpass project, aimed at easing road traffic congestion and streamlining the movement of vehicles in Mumbai. Further, he inaugurated the new campus of Al-Jamia Saifiyah Arabic Academy, an institute exclusively catering to the Dawoodi Bohra community.

The PM said people with an income of over Rs 10 lakh are taxed below 10%, but his government initially increased the limit to Rs 5 lakh and now to Rs 7 lakh in this year's Budget. "Those who paid 20 per cent tax during the last government pay zero tax today," he added.

Addressing a gathering at CSMT, the PM stressed on the need for modern infrastructure in the 21st century India. "When you start an infrastructure project, it boosts cement, sand and iron sectors. When the project is complete, it improves connectivity and generates new avenues of employment." After reaching Platform 18 of CSMT, the PM inspected the Mumbai-Sainagar Shirdi Vande Bharat train and crewed with the train and interacted with the children inside the coach.

"Vande Bharat trains are a reflection of India's speed and scale," he added.

The PM noted that the budgetary allocation for railway projects was higher for Mumbai and Maharashtra this year and this has been appreciated by both Chief Minister Kanaij Shinde and Deputy CM Devendra Fadnis.

The PM, who inaugurated multiple projects, said, "The improved connectivity between eastern and western suburbs will help in ease of travel and save time." The purpose of these infrastructure projects is to provide better living conditions and quality to Mumbaiers, he added.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PUNE, FEBRUARY 10

PUNE CITY police have arrested a youth from a Rajasthan village for allegedly trying to extort money from MLA Yashwant Mane by making obscene video calls to him on WhatsApp and threatening to circulate it online, police said.

Police have identified the accused as Sihanav Aslam Khan (24), of Sihavali village in Rajasthan's Bharatpur district. Mane, is a Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) MLA from Mohol in Maharashtra's Solapur district, and also has a house in Pune.

At a press conference held by Pune's cyber police station, Mane said that since January 23, 2023, he had been receiving obscene video calls, but the video calls continued. He ignored the messages for a few days. Then around 9.15 pm on January 31, got a video call. I did not respond to the call, but the video calls continued. The same day when I decided to take the call, I saw an obscene video of a woman. I cut the call within seconds, but the accused made a screen recording of this short call and threatened to circulate it to my contacts if I did not give him Rs 1 lakh," said Mane. "I asked the caller whether he knew me, and as to how he got my number. He said he got my number from a local person who kept demanding money saying, 'Aap bade ijatdar ho, paisa se jada apko ijat pyari hai. I suspected this to be a major racket," he said.

Mane then contacted additional commissioner of police (crime) Ramnath Pokle of Pune City Police after the call, and an FIR was lodged under Section 384, 505 of IPC on February 2. A police team headed by DCP Shrinivas Chaudhary, ACP Vijaykumar Palsule, senior inspector Meenal Supe Patil, assistant inspector Balhim Nanaware and SI Sachin Jadhav were sent to Bharatpur, where after a rigorous search operation for a week, with the help of Rajasthan police, Rizwan Khan was arrested from Sihavali village on Thursday. Police found that several persons from the village were involved in committing similar online crimes. Police seized four cell phones and four sim cards from the accused Khan. Police suspect he spoke to the complainant NCP in a female voice.

"We found 90 obscene videos in his phone. A court in Pune has remanded him to police custody for 14 days. We suspect he got the MLA's number randomly. We are investigating his possible involvement in more sextortion cases, and to find his accomplices," said Pokle.

No pay for 6 months, literacy worker dies by suicide in Kerala

SHAJU PHILIP
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM,
FEBRUARY 10

A RECIPIENT of the President's award for the best literacy worker allegedly ended life in Kerala on Thursday over "non-payment of monthly honorarium for the past six months".

Literacy prerkat E S Bijumon, 49, a block-level office worker of the state literacy mission, was among the 174 literacy prerkats in Kerala who have been denied the honorarium for the last six months due to the state government's financial crisis.

A native of Kollam district, Bijumon's death comes at a time when the prerkats have been on an indefinite sit-in in front of the state secretary for the last 82 days, demanding payment of their dues. Apart from the government's financial crisis, salary payment to literacy prerkats has been in arrears due to the delay in implementing the prerkats with the local self-government department, sources in the state literacy mission said.

Earlier, the prerkats were under the literacy department but last year, the government decided to bring the foot soldiers of the literacy mission under civic bodies. However, this process has not been completed as yet. The prerkats in the hilly areas added, "Vijayamma, mother of the deceased, told media: "After the death of his father, he was looking after me and my daughter. We were surviving on his meagre income. On many days in the last six months, I did not have money to even buy provisions."

Kerala State Literacy Prerkat Association spokesperson C Shieja said Bijumon had been with the state literacy mission for last 25 years. "Bijumon is a martyr of the government's apathy towards the literacy workers. In the state budget, we expected allotment for prerkats. Bijumon was disappointed after realising that nothing has been allotted for paying the prerkats," she said.

M B Rajesh, minister for local self-government department, said a decision on the prerkats would be taken after discussions with the finance and education ministers. BJP Kollam district president B Gopalakumar said: "These prerkats had expected the government would set aside money for their salary in the budget. But the government's inhumane approach has disappointed them."

Can't seek Collegium rethink through judicial review: SC

New Delhi: A judge is "judged" everyday by lawyers, litigants and the public as courts are open on the Supreme Court said on Friday while holding that it cannot quash the recommendation or call upon its Collegium to reconsider its decision on appointment of judges while exercising power of judicial review.

The apex court, which had on February 7 refused to entertain two petitions seeking to restrain Laxkshmana Chandra Victoria Gowri from taking oath as an additional judge of the Madras High Court, on Friday gave the reasons for dismissing the pleas. A Bench consisting of Justices Sanjay Kumar and B R Gavai noted that during the hearing, it was accepted that a number of persons who had had political backgrounds have been elevated as judges of HC's and the SC, and "by itself, though a relevant consideration, has not been an absolute bar to appointment of a suitable person". PTI

BENGAL SCHOOL JOBS SCAM

Cancel jobs of 1,911 illegally appointed Group D staff: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
KOLKATA, FEBRUARY 10

THE CALCUTTA High Court on Friday directed the West Bengal Board of Secondary Education (WBSE) to cancel the jobs of 1,911 Group D employees, who were given appointments in state-run schools illegally after manipulation in recruitment examination results. The court directed the School Service Commission (SSC) to immediately initiate steps to fill up the posts.

The single bench of Justice Abhinav Gangopadhyay gave the order after it found that the 1,911 candidates had got the recommendation owing to manipulation of their OMR sheets for the recruitment examination in 2016 for Group D employees. Names of such candidates were recommended to the WBSE by the West Bengal School Service Commission.

The court also directed Subish Bahattacharya, who was the chairman of the WBSE at the time of the manipulation of the OMR for the 2016 examinations, to disclose the names of persons who asked to manipulate the results.
