Watch daring act by a railway employee who saves man on the tracks seconds before train passes them by Chandigarh.The Ministry of Railways has put out a tweet praising the bravery of one of its employees who saved the life of a man who was lying on the railway track seconds before a train passed by.

The tweet says, "A precious life was saved by the courageous act of help by on-duty staff, who jumped on tracks himself to save a person from getting gravely injured. Indian Railways is proud to have daring & diligent staff like H. Satish Kumar and commends his bravery."

The incident took place at a railway station in West Bengal where Satish Kumar was showing the green flag to an approaching train when he noticed a man lying on the tracks. He sprinted a fair distance, jumped down the platform, got hold of the man and took him to safety seconds before the train passed them by.

He has received a lot of praise on the Twitter where people have demanded a cash reward for the daring act by the brave man, who went beyond the call of duty to save a life.

47th anniversary of Emergency in India: What exactly happened on June 25, 1975? Why did Indira Gandhi take such a step?

New Delhi. On this day (June 25), 47 years ago, former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi had imposed a nationwide state emergency which went down as one of the most notorious events in Indian history. It curtailed restrictions on civil liberties, press freedom and led to crackdowns against the Congress' political oppositions. The order for imposing the Emergency was issued by President Fakhruddin Ali under Article 352 of the Constitution.

Why did Indira Gandhi impose Emergency in 1975?

He cited 'internal disturbances' as the reason for invoking the order which cancelled elections and gave the Prime Minister unprecedented powers. The Indira Gandhi government also reasoned that there were threats to national security which required such strict measures. At the time, a war with Pakistan had recently ended due to which the economy had suffered leading to protests and strikes. This, the government, said that hurt the country to large extent.

It is believed that the Emergency was imposed after the 1975 verdict of the Allahabad High Court which convicted Gandhi of electoral malpractices and disqualified her from the Parliament and stated that she won't be able to hold any elected post for the next 6 years. Soon after this verdict, she had declared the Emergency.

Dy Speaker serves notice to 16 Shiv Sena MLAs

Nagpur : Sixteen Shiv Sena MLAs have been served notice by the Deputy Speaker of the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly. The MLAs rebelled along with Eknath Shinde. The legislators are required to submit their reply by 5.30 pm on Monday.

Legal experts are of the opinion that the rebel legislators cannot be disqualified by the Deputy Speaker, as the issue is an internal matter of the Shiv Sena party. The party can take action against the rebel members. Meanwhile, Eknath Shinde and his associates are known to have approached the Supreme Court against the notice.

Shinde and others revolted against the party whip in the polling for ten Legislative Council posts. The polling was held on June 20. In the afternoon Shinde left the Vidhan Bhavan and planned the revolt against the party chief and Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray. He along with his supporters left Mumbai and shifted to Surat in Gujarat. The fraction in Shiv Sena left the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) in the minority and the collapse of the government was obvious.

Deputy Speaker Narhari Zirwal was handed over a representation by the Shiv

Sena (Thackeray) group demanding disqualification of the rebel legislators. The notice was served by him accordingly.

2.5 crore villagers to get Gharanvi certificates by Oct 2023: UP CM

Lucknow : Yogi Adityanath, Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, issued online rural residential rights papers to 11 lakh households here on Saturday as part of the Swamitva initiative. Adityanath handed the documents and emphasised the need of making the state self-sufficient during a gathering held in the Lok Bhawan auditorium. "Heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to all villagers who have obtained legal title to their property," the chief minister said on Twitter. He remarked, "Tribal peoples such as Vantangia, Tharu, and Musahar had no voice and no land. The BJP's dual-engine government has conducted a campaign to provide them with land on a big scale."

"We must create not just a self-sufficient India, but also self-sufficient states and districts. The push for self-sufficient villages should also continue," chief minister said. He stated that around 2.5 crore people living in UP villages will receive these certificates by October of next year. While 34 lakh individuals have already benefitted from the plan, the CM stated that a survey of the state's 1,10,300 revenue villages will be finished by August, speeding the issuance of certificates to additional people.
