DIED DUE TO COVID

Rupani said, "There was a time when 4,000 to 5,000 (tests) were being conducted every day. Yesterday, we conducted 26,000 tests. Of course, we have been increasing this progressively for the past many days. But I have instructed that from tomorrow onwards, 30,000 tests should be conducted every day. The World Health Organisation guidelines for the entire world is 140 tests per million per day. Today, we have reached more than 500 tests per million. So, we are testing sufficiently... The increasing number of cases is not a matter of very high concern. But we want to increase testing so that those who have contracted the virus can be identified and thereby further spread of the virus can be prevented," Rupani said.

The CM said that during the review meeting in Jamnagar, he instructed local officers to increase the number of tests to 1,000 samples per day in Jamnagar city and Jamnagar rural from tomorrow onward. Jamnagar has been testing between 200 and 500 samples each day in August, except on Friday when it tested 700 samples. The district has added 330 cases in a week.

Medical Research has continuously emphasised on RT-PCR being the gold-standard for testing, it also noted that states have been using private laboratories sub-optimally, including Gujarat. Gujarat has primarily focused on increasing antigen tests. The ICMR guidelines stipulate that where available, it is advised to use RT-PCR as the front-line diagnosis of SARS-CoV-2. The antigen tests are not as accurate as RT-PCR, but they are useful for quick diagnosis. ## VADODARA

2 held for running sex racket, 2 women rescued, say police

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, AUGUST 8

VADODARA POLICE on Friday booked two women and a man and rescued two other women in an alleged case of human trafficking from a residential complex in Danteshwar area of the city.

The Prevention of Crime (PCB) branch of the Vadodara city police had raided a bungalow in the Darshanam Antica society after receiving a tip-off that two women were running a brothel from the property.

A police release said that two women, who had rented the premises from the owner of the property, had been running a sex racket.

"They would charge Rs 300 rent and set up customers for women forced into flesh trade from other states. On Friday, the PCB team arrested two women for running the racket and a man, who was allegedly the customer. Two women, natives of West Bengal, who were allegedly forced into prostitution were rescued," the release said.

Vadodara Police has initiated a probe to ascertain the role of the property owner in the crime. The accused have been booked under various sections of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956.
