Appoint high-level committee to investigate Jalna lathi-charge incident: LoP, Danve

Mumbai, Sept 6 (UNI) : Leader of Opposition in Maharashtra Legislative Council and Shiv Sena (UBT) leader, Ambadas Danve, on Wednesday demanded that a high-level committee be appointed to investigate the case of inhuman lathi-charge on peaceful Maratha protesters in Jalna district.

He also demanded that Chief Minister Eknath

Shinde as well as Deputy Chief Minister and Home Minister Devendra Fadnavis should resign from the post on moral grounds. Shiv Sena (UBT) delegation, led by Danve, today met state Governor Ramesh Bais and handed over a memorandum of their demands to him.

In the memorandum, he asked the state government to disclose whether instructions for the lathi-charge were given by the government or the police did it on their own.

Strict action must be taken against those who ordered the lathi attack, the Opposition leader demanded.

Though Home Minister Fadnavis has tendered an unconditional apology on behalf of the government in the case of lathi-charge of protesters, it would not suffice, and the government should take moral responsibility for gruesome act, he said. Owning the moral responsibility, both the Chief Minister and the Home Minister resign from their respective posts, demanded Danve.

Furthermore, the District Superintendent of Police should be held responsible and dismissed from the service.

Also, the state government should withdraw the cases registered against all protesters in this incident unconditionally, he demanded. Moreover, a high-level inquiry into the lathi charge incident be conducted by a retired judge and its report be submitted within a month, he demanded.

Family system is on decline in the world but 'Bharat' survived this crisis, claims RSS chief Bhagwat

Nagpur, Sept 6 (PTI) : Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) chief Mohan Bhagwat has said family system is on the decline across the world, but Bharat has survived this crisis because "truth" is its foundation. Addressing a gathering of senior citizens in Maharashtra's Nagpur city on Tuesday, Bhagwat said the roots of our culture are based on "satya" (truth) though efforts were being made to uproot this culture. He described the growing tendency towards fulfilling worldly pleasures and efforts by some people justifying it through their selfish philosophies as "cultural Marxism."

"This leaning towards worldly pleasures has crossed the limit. Some people try to justify as right this tendency to fulfil worldly pleasures due to their selfish motives. This is called cultural Marxism today," the RSS chief said. "These people support such immorality by giving it a good name. They do this because such chaos in society helps them, and they can establish their supremacy," he said.

HC restrains police from arresting former Mayor

Mumbai Sept 6 (UNI) : Bombay High Court on Wednesday restrained Mumbai police for four weeks from arresting former Shiv Sena (UBT) leader and ex-Mumbai Mayor Kishori Pednekar, in connection with an alleged scam in the purchase of body bags for COVID-19 victims.

Justice NJ Jamadar while granting interim relief observed that investigation is underway and at present, her custodial interrogation wasn't warranted. The court also said the issue can be considered during the final hearing of the plea.

"I am inclined to protect the liberty of the applicant. In the event of arrest, the applicant shall be released on a personal bond of Rs. 30,000," said Justice Jamadar.

Pednekar approached the high court after the sessions court rejected her pre-arrest bail plea on August 29.

The sessions court observed that the allegations prima facie showed a conspiracy involving misuse of power and public money.

The court had also directed the former Mayor to appear before the Economic Offences Wing (EOW) of the Mumbai police on September 11, 13, and 16 from 10 A.M to 1 P.M.
