Chairman's Message

Growing responsibly

Dear shareholders,

As we step into another fiscal year, it gives me immense pleasure to present our first Integrated Annual Report for FY 2023-2024. Despite challenges in the macroeconomic environment, we have resiliently charted our path as a growth-focused organisation. With a greater emphasis on portfolio diversification, innovation, sustainability and customerfocused value creation, we remain committed to scaling new heights.

Despite geopolitical volatility, the global economy demonstrated remarkable resilience. With core inflation projected to moderate over the course of the next year, monetary policy is expected to ease off. It may also trigger structural reforms and bolster productivity. Despite headwinds globally, the Indian economy continued to map a steady growth trajectory. The G-20 presidency has further strengthened the country's position in the global arena. Besides, the China+1 strategy and Make in India initiatives have further bolstered India's position as a manufacturing hub. It has created confidence in the Indian economy, increased investments across sectors and significantly improved investor sentiment. Moreover, the continuous push for infrastructure development has led to the rise of both public and private spending.

Industry Overview

The global pharmaceutical market size is growing significantly from USD 1199.86 billion in CY 2023 to USD 2,092.95 billion in CY 2028, at a CAGR of 13.4%. Backed by considerable improvements to increase healthcare accessibility, government spending on healthcare infrastructure and heightened awareness about better healthcare facilities have led to the rapid growth of the industry. India's pharmaceutical industry ranks third globally in volume and thirteenth in value. Owing to the growing emphasis on research and development has resulted in the formulation of a wide array of drugs for various therapeutic areas. Pharmaceutical exports have also reached USD 27.85 billion in FY 2024, reflecting the growing preference for Indian pharma products in international markets of the US, UK, South Africa, Brazil and many more countries around the world. This growth is further fuelled by the Indian government's efforts to relax FDI regulations and an emphasis on improving healthcare infrastructure.

Encompassing 35% of India's pharmaceutical market, the API industry is experiencing steady growth, at a projected CAGR of 6.49%. This segment is transitioning beyond generics to include high-value API production to further solidify India's position in the global market.

In CY 2023 the Indian chemical industry was valued at USD 220 billion and is projected to grow to USD 383 billion by CY 2030. It continues to attract foreign direct investment (FDI) and is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 12%, from 2020 to 2025, on the back of favourable government policies, growing domestic demand and low cost of production.

Financial performance

During the year under review, we reported a total income of Rs. 2,163 crores, marginally lower than the previous year's Rs. 2,243 crores. EBITDA reached Rs. 262 crores in FY24, compared to Rs. 252 crores in FY23. The EBITDA margin also rose by 90 basis points to 12.1% in FY24. Additionally, our net profit margin improved by 10 basis points. Our exports also grew by 7%, reaching Rs 679 crores as against Rs 634 crores in the previous year.

Diversifying Our Product Portfolio and Market Reach

Our growth strategy revolves around the expansion of our non-ibuprofen API product portfolio. We are targeting high-demand and synergistic segments, that offer better patient outcomes. This approach not only reduces our reliance on the ibuprofen market but also positions us for significant growth within specific therapeutic areas.

We are also committed to strengthening our foundation through backward integration for APIs. It not only offers us better control over the supply side but also reduces cost, ensures quality and improves production. Consequently, we are expanding our geographic presence for non-ibuprofen products. We recently received approval from the Centre for Drug Evaluation (CDE) of China's National Medical Products

Our R&D facility is DSIRapproved, employing over 50 scientists and researchers who remain focused on delivering solutions that address the most pressing needs of our target customers.

Administration (NMPA) to export Metformin Hydrochloride to China's market. This is a significant development that opens doors to a vast market. By establishing a wider global footprint, we aim to significantly increase sales within our non-ibuprofen portfolio.

At IOL, we completed a comprehensive audit by the Brazilian Health Regulatory Agency (ANVISA) for all ten of our API manufacturing units located in Barnala, Punjab. ANVISA approval positions us to effectively serve the Brazilian market, a key market that remains central to our growth objectives.

Research and Innovation

With 20 commercialised products and 8 products in the pipeline, our focus on Research and Development (R&D) continues to colour our growth ambitions. Our R&D facility is DSIR-approved, employing over 50 scientists and researchers who remain focused on delivering solutions that address the most pressing needs of our target customers.

Our R&D efforts are strategically divided into three key areas. First, we seek to explore and develop new products to expand our portfolio and attune ourselves with evolving market demands. Second, we strive to deliver cost-effective solutions to drive market growth. Finally, we actively explore opportunities for backward integration of existing products. This not only strengthens our supply chain by reducing dependence on external suppliers but also allows us to innovate and develop more efficient processes. We are also prioritising sustainable manufacturing through green chemistry, which is helping us meet our sustainability targets.

Sustainability

At IOL, we are committed to design a sustainable future through meaningful action. From innovating effective solutions for minimising our environmental footprint to exploring the use of green chemistry across our processes, we intend to make environmental sustainability a core concern. We are also driving digitalisation across our manufacturing and R&D functions to improve efficiency and promote cost saving initiatives.

We believe, environmental stewardship and economic success go hand-in-hand. We have a well-defined roadmap for achieving water and carbon neutrality and we are proud to be a signatory of the Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi), demonstrating our commitment to ambitious emission reduction goals. It has helped us to reduce Scope-1 emissions by 3.91% this year, from FY 2022-23 baseline, and committed to achieve Scope-2 emissions Neutrality by 2026.

We are pursuing a multi-pronged approach to achieve these goals. This includes initiatives to reduce raw material consumption, conserve energy and water and efficiently manage waste. We are also increasing our reliance on renewable energy to power our operations and minimise our ecological impact.

Acknowledgement

FY 2024 has been a year of significant progress for IOL. We have navigated market challenges, diversified our revenue streams, positioned ourselves for future growth and made substantial strides towards achieving our sustainability goals. We are confident that the dedication of our team and the continued support of our stakeholders will steer IOL towards new directions of success in the years to come.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to our employees for their commitment, innovation and hard work. Their dedication is the driving force behind IOL's continued progress. I am thankful to our shareholders, partners and customers for their trust in our ability. We look forward to a brighter future together.

Sincerely,

Rajender Mohan Malla

Chairman

Managing Director's Message

Driving progress through innovation

Dear Shareholders.

It is a pleasure to write to you at the end of another eventful year for IOL.

Progress of API business

The API business catalysed our growth prospects during the year gone by. While we focused on diversifying our portfolio away from Ibuprofen, we also enhanced the scale of our operations. We are pleased to report volume growth of 10% to 15% for key non-ibuprofen products such as Paracetamol, Metformin and Clopidogrel. Our Metformin and Paracetamol exports have increased by 60% and 10% respectively. This growth reflects the growing demand for highquality pharmaceutical ingredients. We have also successfully increased capacity for the production of our core offerings like Paracetamol and Metformin to fulfil growing market demand.

Our Ibuprofen business continues to be stable, with healthy demand growth. We have increased its capacity from 75% in FY23 to 85% in FY24. The global market for Ibuprofen is expected to witness continued growth of 3% to 4% p.a., thereby solidifying its position as a core product in our portfolio.

Specialty Chemicals

The Specialty Chemicals segment faced headwinds this year due to a temporary mismatch between input and output prices, particularly impacting Ethyl Acetate. This resulted in a decline in the segment's EBIT margin. However, raw material prices have stabilised, rekindling hopes of an optimistic recovery in the coming quarters. We remain committed to curate a product portfolio that directly addresses the critical raw material needs of our API production line. This initiative involves the in-house production of essential chemicals such as Iso Butyl Benzene (IBB), Ethyl Acetate, Acetic Anhydride, Mono Chloro Acetic Acid (MCA) and Acetyl Chloride. By adopting backward integration strategy, we are actively reducing our reliance on external vendors, thereby mitigating supply chain disruptions and potentially lowering procurement costs. This approach is eventually expected to improve our profitability in the days ahead

Strategic Expansion

Despite short-term challenges, we are actively pursuing strategic initiatives to diversify our product portfolio and expand our geographical reach. Recently, we have received approvals for non-ibuprofen products in key regulated markets. This provides us with the opportunity to significantly expand our export footprint on the strength of our diversified portfolio. We anticipate this development to substantially contribute to our revenue and profitability in the coming years.

To accelerate the development of continuous processes and the integration of enzyme reactions, we have partnered with renowned institutes. It has resulted in collaborations with experts and bolstered our R&D efforts.

Rooted in Innovation

We rely on innovation to support our growth strategy. Our dedicated R&D team continues to offer innovative solutions, attuned to evolving market needs. We are actively exploring opportunities for backward integration to strengthen our supply chain and reduce dependence on external suppliers. Sitagliptin was developed as a result of our robust R&D efforts and we continue to rely on advanced research to address the unmet needs of the pharmaceutical industry and ensure uninterrupted supply of superior-quality products.

We are deeply committed to giving back to the communities in which we operate. Our primary focus lies in offering equitable access to basic necessities like education, healthcare and vocational training to underprivileged communities.

Investing in the Future

We are committed to driving sustainable growth through strategic capital expenditure (CAPEX) plans. This year, we allocated around Rs. 250 crores for CAPEX initiatives, higher than the previous year. These investments will be directed towards the adoption of technology and automation, infrastructure development, environmental system uWrades and land purchases for future expansion of our facilities. Our relentless focus on modernisation and capacity expansion is expected to translate into a significant increase in our top line as well as bottom line. Some of these funds will also be utilised for R&D initiatives to drive innovation and facilitate the development of a robust product pipeline.

Building a Sustainable Organisation

We understand that financial performance alone does not define our achievements and we have integrated Sustainability as a core business value. We strive to create a supportive environment for our employees and uplift communities through our CSR initiatives.

Our employees are the heart and soul of the company, and we are dedicated to fostering a positive and engaging work environment. This commitment is reflected in our ongoing training and development programmes as well as initiatives that promote employee well-being and safety. We believe that a motivated and skilled workforce is not only essential for driving innovation and achieving strategic objectives but also contributes to a more positive and sustainable work culture. We place a high priority on employee safety and have created a robust and comprehensive Occupational Health and Safety Management System.

This dedication to creating a positive impact extends beyond the walls of the organisation. We are deeply committed to giving back to the communities in which we operate. Our primary focus lies in offering equitable access to basic necessities like education, healthcare and vocational training to underprivileged communities. As a responsible corporate, we actively engage in initiatives and programmes that address these critical areas and meet the diverse needs of communities. By contributing towards a more inclusive and sustainable future, we are empowering people and initiating lasting change within society.

A Bright Future Awaits

Our credibility in the API segment, focus on portfolio diversification and expansion of export footprint continues to generate value for all our stakeholders. Over the years, we have pursued an aspiration to build a customer-focused organisation that fulfils the unmet needs of people. It is this thrust that colours our growth ambitions, fuels our R&D innovations and secures our position in a competitive sector.

Moving ahead, we are diversifying and innovating to secure the foundation of a sustainable organisation. We remain extremely grateful to our stakeholders for their support and encouragement.

Materiality Assessment

Our ability to achieve longterm goals relies on our comprehension of the business landscape and the potential risks and opportunities that may influence our operations. We employ a robust mechanism to assess and mitigate risks, ensuring we consistently deliver value to our stakeholders and fulfil their expectations.

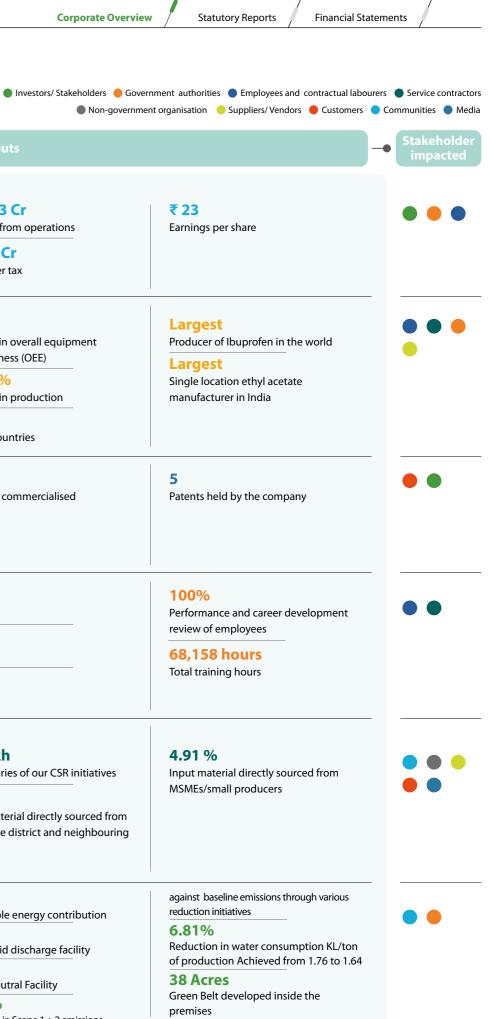

We have implemented a structured process for materiality evaluation to identify, assess and report on key aspects of our business, encompassing economic, environmental, social and governance factors. This evaluation allows us to understand topics that are important to our organisation and stakeholders. In the fiscal year 2022-23, we refreshed our material assessment process, aligning it with GRI Standards.

Managing Risks with Prudence

Risk management is a fundamental aspect of our business operations that help us protect our business from risks, maintain our competitive edge, ensure operational efficiency and safeguard the interests of our stakeholders. Through our comprehensive risk management framework, we proactively navigate uncertainties and seize opportunities in the dynamic business environment.

Risk Management Framework

Our Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) framework was developed through a structured process beginning with CEO discussions to align risk strategies with business objectives, followed by the creation of a comprehensive ERM policy. Individual meetings with functional heads across various departments, such as Finance, Sales, Marketing, Procurement, IT, and SCM, were conducted to identify and understand department-specific risks. This led to the updating and finalisation of the risk register, a central document capturing all identified risks and mitigation strategies. Detailed mitigation plans, including measurable action steps and reporting mechanisms, were then finalised. This proactive approach, overseen by the Risk Management Committee, ensures effective risk management, supports sustainable growth, and enhances stakeholder confidence.

Risk Management Committee

Our Risk Management Committee oversees comprehensive risk assessment and mitigation across business, finance, operations and compliance. The Committee analyses various risks to pre-empt potential threats and enhance our risk management strategies, aligning them with our risk appetite and overall objectives.

Regular reporting to the Board ensures effective communication and informed decision-making. This proactive approach safeguards our business, supports sustainable growth and enhances the confidence of the growing stakeholder fraternity.

Financial performance across verticals

Revenue from the chemical segment declined due to lower selling prices and a reduction in traded goods. However, the introduction of Acetic Anhydride helped balance this decline to a certain extent. While the volume of Ibuprofen and other APIs increased during the year, the sales revenue for other APIs declined primarily on account of lower selling prices. The corresponding decrease in raw material prices enabled us to maintain our margins.

Strategic focus areas and expansion efforts

During the fiscal year 2023-24, we maintained a persistent emphasis on expanding our geographical reach, especially in regulatory markets for APIs. This expansion resulted in a surge in overall volumes, enabling us to sustain profitability in line with the previous financial year, despite a considerable decline in selling prices.

Our strategic initiatives are closely aligned with our long-term goals and objectives. We aimed to increase the volume of our non-API segments by adding new products and improving capacity utilisation. Additionally, we diversified our business by expanding to other locations.

Financial strategy refresh

We undertook a strategy refresh exercise to maintain our financial performance amid challenging market conditions. By continually refreshing our strategies, we managed to maintain our EBITDA levels even with a substantial decline in finished goods prices. Additionally, we explored business growth opportunities by expanding to new locations, purchasing new land and planning to install new manufacturing facilities for both chemical and pharmaceutical products.

Efforts to improve our market capitalisation included conducting quarterly investor meetings, continually paying dividends, attending conferences, arranging roadshows and facilitating analyst visits to our plant. Further, we invested in fixed assets for future and existing projects to increase revenue and reduce production costs. Notably, all CAPEX was funded from internal accruals, increasing our book value per share as well as our net worth.

Cost optimisation measures

Throughout the course of the past year, we implemented numerous cost optimisation measures. We successfully executed a project for Acetic Acid recovery from byproducts in Paracetamol production, which not only reduced costs but also controlled waste. Moreover, we installed additional boilers and automated production activities to ensure uninterrupted operations. Our R&D team focused on improving production efficiencies while maintaining the quality of finished products in both the chemical and pharmaceutical segments.

Effective Management of Financial Risks

Several internal and external factors impacted our financial position during the year under review. The decline in selling prices affected our turnover, but we mitigated this by increasing volumes and purchasing raw materials at lower prices. Notably, our raw material to selling price ratio improved from 69.8% in FY23 to 65.5% in FY24. We also commenced the production of Acetic Anhydride in the chemical segment, primarily for captive consumption in the production of Acetyl Chloride, Mono Chloro Acetic Acid and Paracetamol.

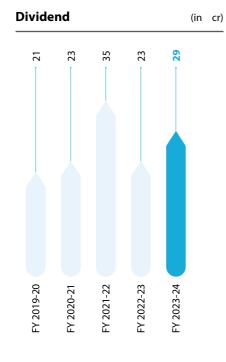

This backward integration improved our bottom line and ensured the continuity of production activities for other products in both the chemical and pharmaceutical segments. However, external factors such as geopolitical disturbances and the Red Sea crisis led to higher freight costs and extended voyage spans for raw material and finished goods deliveries. We passed the increased freight costs on to customers in new sales contracts.

Maintaining financial health

Stakeholder engagement is crucial for maintaining financial health and securing capital. Recognising this, we build strong relationships with lenders, investors and rating agencies through regular meetings and business reviews, discussing ongoing and prospective engagements, market trends and emerging structures. We periodically meet with stakeholders to update them on our financial performance and projections. This approach ensures both robust financial stability and sustained investor confidence.

Maximising value creation

We aim to balance short-term financial gains with long-term value creation. Committed to delivering value to our shareholders, we integrate dividend distribution into our Capital Allocation Policy. As part of this commitment, we have paid a interim dividend of 5 per fully paidup equity share with a face value of 10 each during the FY24.

Case study

Edoxaban acquisition

We focused on advancing our intellectual capital by developing new Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (APIs) with non-infringing routes and acquiring patents for these molecules. We acquired patent for Edoxaban, which addresses critical needs in the field of anticoagulation therapy.

Understanding the need for Edoxaban

Atrial fibrillation (AF) affects more than 33 million people globally<sup>1</sup>, making it the most common sustained arrhythmia with serious health impacts such as stroke, heart failure, and increased mortality. The prevalence of AF has increased by 33% over the last 20 years and is projected to rise by more than 60% by 2050, highlighting the growing need for effective treatments.

Challenges with Existing Anticoagulants:

- Traditional blood thinners are tricky to manage and require frequent adjustments.
- 50% patients need frequent check-ups for these medications, which can be inconvenient and expensive.
- Up to 30% of patients find it difficult to manage these medications properly.<sup>2</sup>

Role of Edoxaban

- Edoxaban is taken once daily, significantly improving patient compliance.
- It has shown a 20% reduction in major bleeding events compared to some traditional anticoagulants, making it safer.
- By reducing the need for frequent monitoring, ٠ Edoxaban alleviates the burden on patients and healthcare providers, promoting better adherence and outcomes.

Making education accessible

As part of the 'To Become Studier' project, the IOL Foundation is dedicated to providing education to children in need, recognising this as a key responsibility. We have initiated a program to offer free education to children who, due to financial difficulties, are unable to attend school. This year, we have identified approximately 100 students in Ludhiana, including orphans and those from impoverished backgrounds, for scholarships. These students will be admitted to selected schools, chosen by our team, to ensure they receive quality education. We also distributed school uniforms to the students in the selected schools.

Reducing fire hazards through smart earthing system

Flammable chemicals and solvents are routinely handled (loading/unloading), posing a risk of static charge generation, which can lead to serious fire incidents and disrupt business operations. Previously, a simple earthing rod system was used to dissipate static charge during chemical handling. However, the risk increased when personnel occasionally missed connecting the earthing rod, raising the fire hazard.

Solution

A Smart Earthing System was implemented for horizontal chemical handling. This system is interlocked with the pumps, ensuring that if there is any disconnection, the pump will not start, thereby preventing any material transfer. Only when connectivity is confirmed will the pump start, and loading/unloading can proceed safely.

Work site safety

As members of the Site Safety Committee as well as through various feedback mechanisms, our team members participate in our health and safety initiatives. We encourage our people to share their safety concerns through the near-miss reporting system, either online or on site.

Department safety coordinators convene regularly, while our leadership team conducts Loss Control Tours and shop floor interactions. These measures ensure that our workplace remains safe and that our personnel feel empowered to contribute to a secure working environment.

A proactive approach to safety

We employ the Hazard Identification and Risk Assessment (HIRA) process to identify potential hazards and assess associated risks in our chemical manufacturing operations. Through HIRA, we maintain a proactive approach to safety, effectively addressing risks before they escalate. This robust system forms an integral part of our EHS management framework, supporting our goal of zero accidents. By leveraging thorough root cause analysis and implementing corrective and preventive actions for any near-miss, first-aid or spill incidents, we continuously strengthen our safety practices. In addition, we have implemented JSA, HAZOP, What if analysis and PSSR to further review and ensure Safety in all processes. Powder Safety studies are carried out for all products.

Safety audits

We conduct an annual external safety audit and monthly internal audits in accordance with our Internal Audit Plan. Additionally, various customer audits are conducted throughout the year to verify the effectiveness of our EHS Management System. ISO certification and surveillance audits are also undertaken every year. This rigorous schedule ensures our adherence to the highest safety standards and our dedication to continuous improvement. Our Risk Management Committee ensures employee health and safety, with quarterly compliance reports submitted to the Board of Directors.

Safety awareness campaigns

We share essential safety information through one-on-one meetings, notice boards, meeting minutes, emails and safety booklets. Our aim is to ensure that all employees are wellinformed and involved in maintaining a safe and healthy work environment. We conduct safety awareness campaigns throughout the year, with themed and seasonal campaigns tailored to specific audiences to enhance the effectiveness of our EHS Management System.

At IOL, we strive to go beyond business profitability to create a harmonious co-existence with our natural environment. Our deep commitment towards environmental stewardship encourages us to embrace sustainable practices, focusing on the responsible management of natural resources. We firmly believe that small changes can go a long way in minimising our ecological footprint, promoting biodiversity and ensuring sustainable progress.

Integration of Environmental Considerations into Business Strategy

In line with our Environmental Health, Safety and Sustainability (EHS&S) Policy, we integrate sustainable environmental practices into our overall business strategy and decision-making processes. We understand the need for a comprehensive plan to achieve our environmental objectives and therefore, have developed a strategy for implementing quantifiable, measurable and science-based targets.

We are committed to follow the guidelines of Science Based Target Initiative (SBTi) and continuously assess it in accordance with the standards set for Climate Change and Water Security. Our comprehensive strategy encompasses resource allocation and the dissemination of information through dedicated efforts for promoting sustainable practices across the organisation.

Energy Management

We place significant emphasis on energy management to ensure efficient and sustainable operations. We minimise our carbon footprint and efficiently manage energy consumption through energy-efficient technologies and implementing renewable energy sources. Our ISO 50001:2018 Energy Management System is strictly enforced across all sites, showcasing our dedication to energy management.

Key Results: The new heat exchanger reduced methanol loss from 635 kg to 445 kg per batch, improving methanol recovery to 86%. This enhancement also resulted in a 21 MTCO2e emission offset.

Air Emission Management

To uphold stringent environmental standards, we have implemented air pollution control equipment like bag filters and Electrostatic Precipitators (ESP). Our closed-loop system prevents solvent release, and we use a continuous air quality monitoring system (CAAQMS) for real-time pollutant data. An inhouse team verifies third-party results to meet State Pollution Control Board requirements. We are also transitioning to greener fuels for our thermic fluid heaters and furnaces to further our environmental efforts.

Emission Reduction Projects and Initiatives

To reduce our environmental impact, we have implemented several emission reduction projects. These initiatives focus on enhancing operational efficiency, adopting renewable energy sources and optimising resource use.

Emission reduction through solvent recovery at Unit -05 Plant

Objective: To decrease volatile organic content (VOC) in the atmosphere.

Timeframe: 6 months

Process Followed: To address VOC emissions due to hexane, solvent recovery was scrutinized during the distillation stage of a batch process. Initial data indicated a 65% recovery rate for MDC and 88% for hexane. A thorough process analysis revealed that the heat exchanger used for condensation was undersized. It was proposed to install new, appropriately sized heat exchangers to mitigate solvent losses.

Key Results: Post-implementation, the recovery of MDC is anticipated to rise to 70-75%, and hexane recovery to 93-95%.

Dust reduction by automated packaging at Unit -07 Plant

Objective: To reduce dust in the powder processing area of Unit-07.

Timeframe: 6 months

Process Followed: To address dust effluent at the Unit-07 plant, an upgrade from a manual bag filling system to an automated packing machine was proposed and is currently being implemented.

Key Results: The introduction of the automated packing machine will significantly reduce workers' exposure to dust in the powder processing area, enhancing workplace safety and improving overall operational efficiency.

Waste Management

We implement robust waste management practices to minimise waste and promote recycling. Hazardous and non-hazardous waste is segregated at the source, ensuring proper disposal and adherence to legal requirements. Non-hazardous waste is sold to authorised recyclers, while hazardous waste is handled through methods such as treatment, storage, co-processing, and pre-processing. We continuously seek ways to reduce waste, enhance recycling efforts, and collaborate with certified recyclers to improve our environmental performance and operational efficiency.

Waste Reduction Initiatives

Our initiatives aimed at reducing waste generation or promoting waste recycling and reuse include:

Hazardous waste reduction, recycling and reuse processes

Implementation of sludge dryers to reduce moisture content

Water Conservation

Water plays a crucial role in our daily operations. Therefore, we consistently invest in advanced water treatment technologies and have implemented several conservation measures. To ensure environmental compliance and conserve precious water resources, we have embraced the latest wastewater treatment technologies. Our commitment to sustainable practices is further demonstrated through the establishment of a state-of-the-art Zero Liquid Discharge (ZLD) facility. This advanced facility allows us to treat and recycle water, significantly reducing our dependence on freshwater sources and contributing to our mission of environmental preservation.

Effluent reduction at Unit-06 Plant

Objective: To reduce solid and liquid effluent by converting waste stream into wealth.

Timeframe: 6 months

Process: At the Unit-06 plant, material balance calculations revealed that a significant amount of dissolved trisodium phosphate (TSP) (15% w/w concentration) was discarded to the Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP) during a specific manufacturing stage. The quantity of this waste stream was up to 4000 kg per batch. A proposal for the separation of TSP from water was submitted and is currently being implemented.

Key Results: The implementation of this proposal is projected to reduce solid effluent by up to 15 MTPM and liquid effluent by up to 50 MTPM.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Economic overview

Global economy

The global economy demonstrated remarkable resilience in the face of macroeconomic challenges. The reported year recorded persistent geopolitical disequilibrium and volatile commodity markets leading to significant inflationary pressures worldwide. Central banks resorting to calibrated interest rate hikes further exacerbated the situation. Nevertheless, the global economy achieved a growth rate of 3.2%. The measures implemented by the central banks enabled to rein in the inflation in most regions. Furthermore, these measures fostered steady economic growth and improved employment opportunities across the US, Europe and various emerging markets.

However, ongoing geopolitical conflicts continued to disrupt international supply chains and trade flows. China plays a pivotal role in global manufacturing and possesses an extensive supply network; with China's economy facing ongoing pressures, it is expected that it will weigh on worldwide economic stability as well. On the other hand, several emerging economies, including India, Vietnam and Mexico, saw robust growth buoyed by significant investments from foreign institutional investors. These regions demonstrated strong economic performance, fortifying their position in the global market.

Global headline inflation

Outlook

Despite the ongoing geopolitical turmoil in Europe and West Asia, a balanced outlook on global economic growth is anticipated. The GDP growth rate is projected to sustain at 3.2% in CY 2024 and continue through CY 2025 as well. The expected alleviation of inflationary pressures and adoption of more supportive monetary policies by central banks are expected to contribute to the outlook.

Trade volumes globally are projected to maintain modest growth, maintaining itself at 3% in CY 2024 and 3.3% in CY 2025. The collective policy efforts of governments and inherent resilience of global economies will play crucial roles in driving sustainable and inclusive growth in the forthcoming years.

Indian economy<sup>2</sup>

Despite navigating global adversities, India maintained its position as the world's fastest-expanding major economy. The National Statistical Office (NSO) reported a significant real GDP growth of 8.2% for the reported year, fuelled by robust macroeconomic stability, escalating domestic demand and prudent monetary strategies implemented by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

The manufacturing sector, registering a growth of 11.6% in the reported year, contributed extensively to industrial advancement. A decline in inflation coupled with an uptick in credit demand have propelled the growth of the Indian economy. The all-India consumer price index (CPI) indicated that headline inflation remained steady at 5.1% in February 2024.

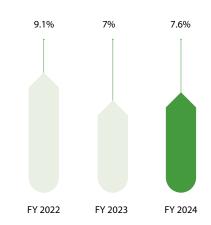

Debottlenecking of supply chains and consistent government emphasis on spending and domestic demand protected India from major economic shocks. India is steadily building its position as an alternative to China. Merchandise exports witnessed a seasonal peak in March 2024, coinciding with the peak in industrial production. Furthermore, greater capacity utilisation across the manufacturing sector has bolstered the economic growth.

Outlook

India is expected to become the world's third-largest economy by 2027<sup>3</sup>, supported by political stability and an increased governmental emphasis on public capital expenditure. Additionally, a noticeable rise in private capital expenditure and a growing demand for credit are expected to fuel economic expansion. Furthermore, India's robust banking and financial services sector is further accelerating the growth trajectory. India is also gaining recognition as a leading manufacturing hub, meeting international demands for manufactured products. With its vast domestic market and expanding export opportunities, India is poised to surpass other major economies in terms of growth in the coming years.

Pharmaceuticals industry

The Indian pharmaceutical industry, catering to a wide spectrum of healthcare needs, continues to be a significant global player commanding a significant share of more than 20% in the global medical supply chain. The industry is characterised by its extensive diversity as it includes generic drugs, vaccines as well as biosimilars.<sup>19</sup> Currently, India's pharmaceutical sector ranks as the third largest in the world by volume, exporting to over 200 countries.<sup>20</sup> India's ability to produce high volumes of generic drugs and vaccines at competitive prices makes the country a crucial player in global healthcare. Rising healthcare awareness coupled with a burgeoning middleeconomic class and improving accessibility are driving the growth of the Indian pharmaceutical sector. The industry's competitive advantages include cost-effective manufacturing, a large pool of skilled professionals and a strong focus on quality and compliance. The industry's broad spectrum encompassing advanced biologics and complex therapeutic products reflects its comprehensive expertise and innovative prowess. India continues to strengthen its position as the pharmacy of the world, providing essential medications and vaccines to a global audience.

API (Active Pharmaceuticals Ingredients)

The Indian API market stands as a critical component of the global pharmaceutical supply chain, recording significant growth and development in the reported year. APIs are the essential raw materials used in the production of pharmaceutical drugs. It has seen a surge in demand both domestically and internationally. The sector has recorded advancements in green chemistry, process optimisation and the adoption of digital technologies to enhance production efficiency and environmental sustainability.

The Indian API market size is estimated at USD 13.64 billion in 2024 and is expected to reach USD 20.32 billion by 2029, reflecting a CAGR of 8.31% between 2024 and 2029.<sup>21</sup> The need to develop a resilient and self-reliant pharmaceutical supply chain post-pandemic has resulted in increased investments in API production. Additionally, the paradigm shift towards reducing dependency on single-source markets, particularly China, for API procurement has benefited India. It has positioned the country as an alternative hub for API manufacturing.

Furthermore, government initiatives supported and accelerated the growth of domestic API production. The Indian government has launched the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme to promote domestic manufacturing of critical KSMs (Key Starting Materials), drug intermediates and APIs. Additionally, with the increase in capital expenditure (capex), pharmaceutical companies are expanding their production capacities steadily. These efforts are strengthening India's position in the global API market, ensuring a stable and secure supply of essential pharmaceutical ingredients while fostering innovation and sustainability in the sector.

A. CONSERVATION OF ENERGY

- 1. Step taken or impact on conservation of energy:
  - A) At multiple cooling water operation areas, the running head of the pumps has been compared with the design head of the pumps. Accordingly, new low head pumps of exact duty points have been installed, which has resulted in power savings of around 1300 kWh/Day.
  - B) Recovered hot water from Ethyl Acetate Plant is transferred to cooling tower for recycling of the wastewater. In cooling tower, the heat of this water is rejected to the atmosphere. This waste heat is utilized in generating the hot water for HVAC Applications in Pharma Plants. As a result, the waste heat is recovered and the steam consumption by HVAC system has been reduced by around 150 MT/month.
  - C) In Compressed air systems, the exhaust of the compressors was earlier trapped within the compressor room. This system resulted in heat accumulation in the area. Due to this heat accumulation, the running efficiency of the compressor gets reduced. Hence, new exhaust ducts have been installed at the exhaust of the compressor to divert the hot outlet outside the machine room. This has resulted in reduction of the inlet air temperature by 10 Deg C and hence increase in air compressor efficiency by nearly 2%, which has resulted in power savings.
  - D) High efficiency HEPA filters have been installed in all Fluidized bed dryers (17 Nos.) having low initial pressure drop of 10 mmwc as compared to earlier installed filters with 25 mmwc as initial pressure drop, which has resulted in power savings by reducing the system head by 15 mmwc, which is directly proportional to power drawn by the blower of the system.
  - E) Refurbishment of 80TPH High Pressure boiler with latest design of bed coils & modifications in air feeding system has been done which helps in maintaining the air velocities and flow of air in the furnace so that optimized quantity of oxygen will be maintained. Earlier, excessive air was resulting to erosion of all related parts of the boiler which has caused leakages and multiple breakdowns, but now, by maintaining proper air quantity in the boiler, the life of the equipment is increased, as well as, power norms of the boiler has been reduced from 22.8 kw/MT to 20.95 KW/MT, resulting in approx. 90000 KWH to 100000 KWH energy being saved every month. Refurbishment work has also reduced losses due to unburnt fuel in ash from 12 % to 6%, which has helped in saving of approx. 5 to 6 MT of fuel daily. Maintaining proper air velocities additionally helps boiler ESP to work efficiently and effectively by maintain the proper SPM levels.

Annexure – 5

- F) We have started heating boiler direct DM water through waste heat recovery from Ethyl plant. We have increased temperature of approx. 350 KI DM water per day from 35 Deg C to 58 Deg C. we have saved 12-14 MT steam per day in Deaerator of Boiler. So, total 360 – 380 MT steam saved per month.
- G) We have installed Degasser Tower in existing DM plant system to reduce anionic load to increase OBR value. Previously we were regenerating Strong Base Anion vessel after every 20 Hours, but after installation of Degasser tower, the OBR time increased from 20 Hours to 23 hours. So, total 5 Regenerations were reduced per month and total 125 KL water was saved per month.
- H) We have started reusing the final Regeneration water & online Conductivity meter water as a RO water, this will save approx. 12 KL of Ro water daily which leads to saving of approx. 480 KL of Raw water per month.
- I) We have replaced our old in-efficient DG Set with a new DG Set of 625KVA having higher efficiency and better cooling. It can take up more loading without increasing its temperatures and thereby generating more units per liter of fuel (Currently approx. 3.7-3.8 Units/liter as compared to earlier 3.5 Units/Liter).
- J) We have installed Heat rejection ducts in different VFD rooms such as 55T control room, 291/344TR machine VFD rooms etc. Excess heat is directly vented out thereby decreasing the heat load on Air Conditioner and improving its efficiency. (Approx 15000 to 16000 KWH units will be saved yearly.)
- K) 291TR Brine Machine conventional Soft Starter has been replaced by VFD. Earlier there were frequent tripping's of main VCB due to high jerks while starting machine on soft starter leading to complete utility breakdown. This has now been eliminated by soft starting method of VFD. Hence, by shifting to VFD, breakdowns have been reduced.
- L) Installation of VFD's on ETP AHR blowers which are continuously running. Hence, power savings are generated by reducing their rpms and loading.

2. Step taken by Company for utilizing alternate sources of energy

 We have installed Solar of 62KW capacity at our Old Canal Water reservoir and are getting savings of approx. 20-

50% on our power bills. Further, we have also planned for one solar captive plant of 500 KW at our new Reservoir.

B) After installation and commissioning of special overbed feeding system on our boilers we have started consuming the alternative biofuels such as Wood Chips, Sun mica Dust, Sawdust Briquette Paddy Husk Pellets, Paddy Husk Briquette, Cotton Seeds Pellets, and forest crushing (combination of wooden chips, leaves, and tree branches) in our boiler. These alternative fuels consumption helps us reducing our dependency on conventional fuels.

3. Capital investment on energy conservation equipments:

- A) New 280 TR Screw based chiller has been ordered. This new chiller operates on green refrigerant R-134a. As a result, it would reduce the design power requirement of chiller and also would be a further step in sustainability.
- B) PNG gas connection has been installed for one Thermopack where earlier HHC or spent gas was only fuel source, but with the installation of PNG line a green fuel option has been created which will result in less CO2 emissions and lead towards sustainability.

B. TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION

1. Efforts made towards technology absorption

The Company has taken various steps in its Research and Development centre, the mains are as follows:

- This year team has developed 5 API's and two advanced intermediates at R&D & successfully commercialized at different level.
- b. Company has added three molecules to antidiabetic category i.e Sitagliptin, Vildagliptin & Imeglimin, all three molecules commercialized. Minoxidil & Clopidogrel besylate are other two moved to commercial validation phases.
- In addition to the above commercial validations, another five products built-in by completing the laboratory work like Sacubitril Valsartan, Edoxaban, caffeine, choline fenofibrate etc.

- d. Apart from API, IOL team has developed & commercialized three intermediates TFMT (Sitagliptin), Azacyclonol (Fexofenadine) & S-POX (Ezetimibe).
- 2. Benefits derived like product improvement, cost reduction, product development or import substitution
  - a. Process improvement is a continuous activity at IOL. The aim of this is to bring the high quality, safe, robust, and affordable products to market.
  - b. Efforts done for continuous improvement resulted in quality improvement of PAN-08 intermediate which resulted in yield improvement of Pantoprazole by 5%, 5-DFMB key intermediate of pantoprazole is also developed by R&D is under commercialization, which will enable IOL to have better control on SCM.
  - c. R&D developed a robust process for SABA, which is a key starting material for Levetiracetam, in Clopidogrel we have developed alternative process to achieve customer specific requirement of Low Chiral impurity.

8. Does the entity have any project related to reducing Green House Gas emission? If Yes, then provide details.

Various Initiatives were taken in FY 23-24 :

- Refurbishment of 80TPH High Pressure boiler with latest design of bed coils & modifications in air feeding system.
- Heating boiler direct DM water through waste heat recovery from Ethyl plant
- Installed Degasser Tower in existing DM plant system to reduces anionic load to increase OBR value
- Reusing the final Regeneration water & online Conductivity meter water as a RO water, this will save approx. 12 KL of Ro water daily which leads to saving of approx. 480 KL of Raw water per month
- Replaced our old in-efficient DG Set with a new DG Set of 625KVA having higher efficiency and better cooling.
- Installed Heat reject ducts VFD in different rooms such as 55T control room, 291/344TR machine VFD rooms. Excess heat is directly vented out thereby decreasing the heat load on Air Conditioner and improving its efficiency.

- Installation of VFD's on ETP AHR blowers which are continuously running. Hence, power savings are generated by reducing their rpms and loading.
- Hazardous waste reduction, recycling, and reuse work processes.
- Replacement of Forklifts (Diesel Operated to Electrical)
- EV Golf Car Procurement for Emission Reduction
- Solar Panel Installation
- Sludge Dryer installation to Reduce Moisture Content
- Steps to reuse byproducts of the process.
- Improving the system for recovering waste heat.
- Energy consumption reduction via equipment modernization
- Lowering greenhouse gas emissions by optimizing processes
- Steps to guarantee that equipment is airtight and that emission sources are enclosed.
- 62.4 KW Solar panel installed at reservoir
- Talent Capability Building 15 member CII certified Professional on Resource efficiency and Environmental Sustainability

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Standalone Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2024 and its profit, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA"s) specified under section 143(10) of the Act (SAs). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

The Company recognizes sales revenue based on the terms and conditions of transactions, which vary with different customers. For sales transactions in a certain period around balance sheet date, it is essential to ensure whether the transfer of control of the goods by the Company to the customer occurs before the balance sheet date or otherwise. Considering that there is significant volume of sales transactions close to the year end, involving material amounts and such revenue recognition is subject to whether transfer of control to the customers has occurred before the balance sheet date or otherwise, we consider the risk of revenue from sale of goods being recognised in the incorrect period, a key audit matter. | <ul> <li>We evaluated the design of internal controls over recognition of revenue in the appropriate period in accordance with the Company's accounting policy. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the Consolidated Financial Statements, Standalone Financial Statements and our Auditor's Report thereon.

Our opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Standalone Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Financial Statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

not in accordance with the recognition criteria provided in Ind AS 16.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Financial Statements.

As part of our audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our Auditor's Report to the related disclosures in the Standalone Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our Auditor's Report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Standalone Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our Auditor's Report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements of IOL Chemicals and Pharmaceuticals Limited ("the Company") as of March 31, 2024 in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk.

The procedures selected depend on the Auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system with reference to Standalone Financial Statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to Standalone Financial Statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether: (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of 12 months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short term and low-value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised. The ROU assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

ROU assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. ROU assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease.

Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related ROU asset if the Company changes its assessment of whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

Lease liability and ROU assets have been separately presented in the standalone Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The company as a lessor

XVI. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded, on initial recognition in the functional currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the functional currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currency are restated using the prevailing exchange rate as on balance sheet date.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reinstatement of monetary items at rates different from rates at which these were translated on initial recognition during the period or reported in previous standalone financial statements as recognised in the standalone statement of profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the standalone statements of profit and loss, within finance cost. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the standalone statement of profit and loss on net basis.

Non-monetary items are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency is translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

In case of an asset, expenses or income where a non-monetary advance is paid/ received, the date of transaction is the date on which the advance was initially recognized. If there were multiple payments or receipts in advance, multiple dates of transactions are determined for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

XVII. Accounting for taxes on income

Income tax expense comprises current income tax and deferred tax.

Current tax expense for the period is ascertained on the basis of assessable profits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Deferred tax is recognised using the balance sheet approach on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the standalone financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are off-set if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relates to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

XVIII. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the net profit or loss after tax for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholder and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares, if any. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

XIX. Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

i. Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition.

Transaction cost in relation to financial assets and financial liabilities other than those carried at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) are added to the fair value on initial recognition. However, the trade receivables that doesn't contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities that are carried at fair value through profit or loss are immediately recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

ii. Subsequent measurement

Non-derivative financial instruments

1. Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

The company has made an irrevocable election for its investment which are classified as equity instruments to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income based on its business model. Further, in cases where the company has made an irrevocable election based on its business model, for its investment which are classified as equity instruments, the subsequent changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income.

3. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss.

4. Financial liabilities

The financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Financial assets or financial liability at fair value through profit or loss

This category has financial assets or liabilities which are not designated as hedges.

Although the Company believes that these derivatives constitute hedges from an economic perspective, they may not qualify for hedge accounting under Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. Any derivative that is either not designated a hedge or is so designated but is ineffective as per Ind AS 109, is categorized as a financial asset or financial liability, at fair value through profit or loss.

Derivatives not designated as hedges are recognized initially at fair value and attributable transaction costs are recognized in net profit in the statement of profit and loss when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit or loss and the resulting exchange gains or losses are included in other income. Assets/ liabilities in this category are presented as current assets/current liabilities if they are either held for trading or are expected to be realized within 12 months after the balance sheet date.

Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

In the ordinary course of business, the Company uses certain derivative financial instruments to reduce business risks which arise from its exposure to foreign. The instruments are confined principally to forward foreign exchange contracts. The instruments are employed as hedges of transactions included in the standalone financial statements or for highly probable forecast transactions/firm contractual commitments. These derivatives contracts do not generally extend beyond six months.

Derivatives are initially accounted for and measured at fair value on the date the derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period.

The Company adopts hedge accounting for forward foreign exchange contracts wherever possible. At inception of each hedge, there is a formal, documented designation of the hedging relationship. This documentation includes, inter alia, items such as identification of the hedged item and transaction and nature of the risk being hedged. At inception, each hedge is expected to be highly effective in achieving an offset of changes in fair value or cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. The effectiveness of hedge instruments to reduce the risk associated with the exposure being hedged is assessed and measured at the inception and on an ongoing basis. The ineffective portion of designated hedges is recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

When hedge accounting is applied:

- for fair value hedges of recognised assets and liabilities, changes in fair value of the hedged assets and liabilities attributable to the risk being hedged, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss and compensate for the effective portion of symmetrical changes in the fair value of the derivatives.
- For cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the derivative is recognised directly in other comprehensive income and the ineffective portion is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. If the cash flow hedge of a firm commitment or forecasted transaction results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or liability, then, at the time the asset or liability is recognised, the associated gains or losses on the derivative that had previously been recognised in equity are included in the initial measurement of the asset or liability. For hedges that do not result in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a liability, amounts deferred in equity are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the same period in which the hedged item affects the statement of profit and loss.

In cases where hedge accounting is not applied, changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognised in the statement of profit and loss as and when they arise.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. At that time, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognised in equity is retained in equity until the forecasted transaction occurs. If a hedged transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the statement of profit and loss for the period.

Equity share capital

Equity shares

Equity shares issued by the company are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new ordinary shares and share options are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

De-recognition of financial instruments

A financial asset is derecognized when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for De-recognition under Ind AS 109.

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is determined using the valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the three-level fair value hierarchy, the methods used to determine the fair value of financial assets and liabilities include quoted market price, discounted cash flow analysis and valuation certified by the external valuer.

In case of financial instruments where the carrying amount approximates fair value due to the short maturity of those instruments, carrying amount is considered as fair value.

XX. Impairment of assets

i) Financial assets

The company recognizes loss allowances using the expected credit loss (ECL) model for the financial assets which are not fair valued through profit or loss.

Loss allowance for trade receivables with no significant financing component is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month ECL, unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk from initial recognition in which case those are measured at lifetime ECL. The amount of expected credit losses (or reversal) that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognised is recognized as an impairment gain or loss in statement of profit or loss.

ii) Impairment of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU (Cash Generating unit) to which the asset belongs.

If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the statement of profit and loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. An impairment loss is reversed in the statement of profit and loss if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. The carrying amount of the asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

XXI. Cash flow statement

The cash flow statement is prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) – 7 "Statement of Cash flows" using the indirect method for operating activities.

XXII. Cash and cash equivalent

Cash and cash equivalent for the purpose of statement of cash flows include bank balances, where the original maturity is three months or less. Other short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank overdrafts are included as a component of cash and cash equivalent for the purpose of statement of cash flow.

XXIII. Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized if, as a result of past event, the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) and on management judgement that is reasonably estimable and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as finance cost.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of:

- A present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.
- A present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible.
- A possible obligation arising from past events unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

Commitments include the amount of purchase order (net of advances) issued to parties for completion of assets.

Provisions, contingent liabilities, contingent assets and commitments are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

XXIV. Current and non-current classification

The company has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current / non-current classification of assets and liabilities. This is based on the nature of products and the time between acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. Current Assets and current liabilities include current portion of non-current financial assets and non-current financial liabilities respectively.

Note 2 (ii): Critical accounting estimates

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are based on a number of factors including the effects of obsolescence, internal assessment of user experience and other economic factors (such as the stability of the industry and known technological advances) and the level of maintenance expenditure required to obtain the expected future cash flows from the asset.

The Company reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment at the end of each reporting date.

Recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment

The recoverable amount of property plant and equipment is based on estimates and assumptions regarding the expected market outlook and expected future cash flows. Any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the measurement of the recoverable amount and could result in impairment.

Post-retirement benefit plans

Employee benefit obligations are measured on the basis of actuarial assumptions including any changes in these assumptions that may have a material impact on the resulting calculations.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

Recognition of deferred tax assets depends upon the availability of future profits against which tax losses carried forward can be used.

(a) Foreign currency risk

The company imports certain Property, Plant and Equipment and material from outside India and export finished goods. The exchange rate between the Indian rupee and foreign currencies has fluctuated in recent years and may fluctuate substantially in the future. Consequently the company is exposed to foreign currency risk and the results of the company may be affected as the rupee appreciates/ depreciates against foreign currencies. Foreign exchange risk arises from the future probable transactions and recognized assets and liabilities denominated in a currency other than company's functional currency.

The company measures the risk through a forecast of highly probable foreign currency cash flows and manages its foreign currency risk by hedging appropriately. The company manages its foreign currency risk through the process of adjusting inward remittances in foreign currency for its payment of outward remittances (i.e. considering it as natural hedge). The Company also holds derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures.

The Company's exposure to foreign currency risk was based on the following amounts as at the reporting dates:

Foreign currency sensitivity analysis

Any changes in the exchange rate of USD and EURO against INR is not expected to have significant impact on the Company's profit due to the less exposure of these currencies. Accordingly, a 2% appreciation/depreciation of the INR as indicated below, against the USD and EURO would have reduced/increased profit by the amounts shown below. This analysis is based on the foreign currency exchange rate variances that the Company considered to be reasonably possible at the end of the reporting period. The analysis assumes that all other variable remains constant:

(b) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's debt obligations with floating interest rates.

As the Company has no significant interest-bearing assets, the income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's debt obligations with floating interest rates, which are included in interest bearing loans and borrowings in these financial statements if any. All the company's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flows will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

At the reporting date the interest rate profile of the Company's interest bearing financial instrument is at its fair value:

|                                      |                                   | III \ CIUIE |  |  |  |  |

| Long term borrowings                 | -                                 | -           |  |  |  |  |
| Current maturities of long term debt | -                                 | -           |  |  |  |  |
| Short term borrowings                | 32.76                             | 79.63       |  |  |  |  |

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. A change of 100 basis points in interest rates for variable rate instruments at the reporting date would have increased/(decreased) profit or loss for the below years by the amounts shown below. With all other variables held constant, the Company's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

|   |                | in ₹ Crore |
|---|----------------|------------|
| Particulars                             | Financial Year |            |

(ii) Liquidity Risk

The financial liabilities of the company include loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The company's principal sources of liquidity are cash and cash equivalents and the cash flow that is generated from operations.

(iii) Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of default on its contractual terms or obligations by the counterparty resulting in a financial loss. The maximum exposure to the credit risk at the reporting date is primarily from trade receivables which are typically unsecured. Credit risk on cash and bank balances is limited as the company generally invests in deposits with banks and financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by credit rating agencies.

The company assesses the creditworthiness of the customers internally to whom goods are sold on credit terms in the normal course of business. The credit limit of each customer is defined in accordance with this assessment

The impairment analysis is performed on client to client basis for the debtors that are past due at the end of each reporting date. The company has not considered an allowance for doubtful debts in case of Trade receivables that are past due but there has not been a significant change in the credit quality and the amounts are still considered recoverable. The following is the detail of revenues generated from top five customers of the company:

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements of IOL Chemicals and Pharmaceuticals Limited ("the Company"), and its subsidiaries (the Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as the "Group") which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2024, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the Consolidated Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Consolidated Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2024 and their consolidated profit , their consolidated total comprehensive income, their consolidated changes in equity and their consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA"s) specified under section 143(10) of the Act . Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

| .110. | Key Audit Matter  | Auditors' Response  |
|-------|---|---|
|       | Revenue recognition:  | Principal Audit Procedures:   |
|       | Refer note 2(ii)(v) and note 25 of the Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company's sales revenue mainly arose from sale of Bulk Drugs and Chemical products. The Company recognizes sales revenue based on the terms and conditions of transactions, which vary with different customers. For sales transactions in a certain period around balance sheet date, it is essential to ensure whether the transfer of control of the goods by the Company to the customer occurs before the balance sheet date or otherwise. Considering that there are significant volume of sales transactions close to the year end, involving material amounts and such revenue recognition is subject to whether transfer of control to the customers has occurred before the balance sheet date or otherwise, we consider the risk of revenue from sale of goods being recognised in the incorrect period, a key audit matter. | <ul> <li>We evaluated the design of internal controls over recognition of revenue in the appropriate period in accordance with the Company? accounting policy. On a sample basis, we tested the operating effectiveness of the internal control relating to determination of point in time at which the transfer of control of the goods occurs.</li> <li>We tested the relevant information technology systems used in recording revenue including company's system generated reports based on which selection of samples was undertaken.</li> <li>On sample basis, we performed test of details of sales recorded close to the year-end through following procedures:</li> <li>i) Analysed the terms and conditions of the underlying contract with the customer, and</li> <li>ii) Verified evidence for transfer of control of the goods prior to the balance sheet date or otherwise from relevant supporting documents.</li> </ul> |

2. Property, Plant and Equipment:

Refer note 3 of the Consolidated Financial Statements.

During the year, the company has incurred substantial capital expenditure on Property, Plant and Equipment and Capital work in progress towards assets under construction/ erection and expansion.

With regard to capitalisation of Plant and Machinery, Buildings and Capital work in progress, Management has identified specific expenditure including employee costs and other specific overheads relating to each of the assets and has applied judgement to assess if the costs incurred in relation to these assets meet the recognition criteria on Property, Plant and Equipment in accordance with Ind AS 16.

This has been determined as a key audit matter due to the significance of the capital expenditure during the year and the risk that the elements of costs that are eligible for capitalisation are not appropriately capitalised or costs capitalised are not in accordance with the recognition criteria provided in Ind AS 16.

Principal Audit Procedures:

- Understood, evaluated and tested the design and operating effectiveness of key controls relating to capitalisation of various costs incurred, in relation to Buildings, Plant and Machinery and Capital work-in-progress.
- Tested the direct and indirect costs capitalised, on a sample basis, with the underlying supporting documents to ascertain the nature of costs and the basis for allocation, where applicable, and evaluated whether they meet the recognition criteria provided in the Ind AS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment.
- Tested, on a sample basis, the appropriateness of employee costs capitalised in relation to Plant and Machinery and Buildings based on verification of their payroll data etc.
- Tested other costs debited to Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, on a sample basis, to ascertain whether these meet the criteria of capitalisation
- Assessed the adequacy of disclosures in the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Our procedures did not identify, any costs that are eligible for capitalisation are not appropriately capitalised or costs capitalised are not in accordance with the recognition criteria provided in Ind AS 16.

The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the Consolidated Financial Statements, Standalone Financial Statements and our Auditor's Report thereon.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Consolidated Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance, including other comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. The respective Boards of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Consolidated Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Consolidated Financial Statements, the respective board of directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Financial Statements.

As part of our audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company and its subsidiary companies which are companies incorporated in India, has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities within the Group to express an opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Consolidated Financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the Consolidated Financial Statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Consolidated Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the company and the subsidiaries regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguard.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

IOL Chemicals and Pharmaceuticals Limited ("the Company") (CIN: L24116PB1986PLC007030) is a public company domiciled in India and incorporated on 29th September, 1986 under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The shares of the company are listed on two stock exchanges in India i.e. at National Stock Exchange of India Limited (NSE) and at BSE Limited (BSE). The company is engaged in the manufacturing and selling of Pharmaceutical and Chemical products. The company caters to both domestic and international market.

The registered office of the company is situated at Village & Post Office Handiaya, Fatehgarh Chhanna Road, Barnala-148107, Punjab.

The consolidated financial statements are approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 14th May, 2024.

Note 2 (i): Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Company reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

When the Company has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Company considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Company's voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Company's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- Potential voting rights held by the Company, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Company has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Company obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Company loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit and loss from the date the Company gains control until the date when the Company ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the noncontrolling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses, and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The difference between the proceeds from disposal of investment in subsidiaries and the carrying amount of its assets less liabilities as on the date of disposal is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss being the profit or loss on disposal of investment in subsidiary.

Non-Controlling Interest's share of profit/loss of consolidated subsidiaries for the year is identified and adjusted against the income of the group in order to arrive at the net income attributable to shareholders of the Company.

Non-Controlling Interest's share of net assets of consolidated subsidiaries is identified and presented in the Consolidated Balance Sheet separate from liabilities and the equity of the Company's shareholders.

In accordance with Para 25 of IND AS 110, retained investments in former subsidiaries where control is lost during the year; provided the investee entity remains an associate of the company; are valued at fair value on the date of loss of control and such fair value is recognised through the consolidated profit and loss statement. Such fair value is regarded as the cost on initial recognition of an investment in the associate in the consolidated balance sheet of the company.

Following subsidiary companies have been considered in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

The estimated useful life of an identifiable intangible asset is based on a number of factors including the effects of obsolescence etc. The amortization method, estimated useful lives are reviewed periodically and at end of each reporting period.

The estimated useful life of intangible assets is as follows:

| Intangible assets | Estimated useful life |

Government grants related to revenue are recognised on a systematic basis in the statement of profit and loss over the periods necessary to match them with the related costs which they are intended to compensate. Government grant in relation to fixed asset is treated as deferred income and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss on a systematic basis over the useful life of the asset.

XIII. Segment information

Segment information is prepared in conformity with Ind AS 108 "Operating Segments" and the accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the consolidated financial statements of the enterprise as a whole.

XIV. Leases

The Group as a lessee

The Group's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the group assesses whether: (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the group has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the group has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the group recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of 12 months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short term and low-value leases, the group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised. The ROU assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

ROU assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. ROU assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease.

Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related ROU asset if the group changes its assessment of whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

Lease liability and ROU assets have been separately presented in the consolidated Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

• The group as a lessor

Leases for which the group is a lessor is classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

For operating leases, rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

XV. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currency are recorded, on initial recognition in the functional currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the functional currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currency are restated using the prevailing exchange rate as on consolidated balance sheet date.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reinstatement of monetary items at rates different from rates at which these were translated on initial recognition during the period or reported in previous consolidated financial statements as recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statements of profit and loss, within finance cost. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of profit and loss on net basis.

Non-monetary items are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency is translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. In case of an asset, expenses or income where a non-monetary advance is paid/ received, the date of transaction is the date on which the advance was initially recognized. If there were multiple payments or receipts in advance, multiple dates of transactions are determined for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

XVI. Accounting for taxes on income

Income tax expense comprises current income tax and deferred tax.

Income tax expense is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss except when they relate to items that are recognised outside of profit or loss (whether in other comprehensive income or directly in equity), in which case tax is also recognised outside profit or loss, or where they arise from the initial accounting for a business combination. In the case of a business combination the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination. Current income taxes are determined based on respective taxable income of each taxable entity and tax rules applicable for respective tax jurisdictions.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for the future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, and unutilised business loss and depreciation carryforwards and tax credits. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed separately for each taxable entity and for each taxable jurisdiction. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, depreciation carry forwards and unused tax credits could be utilised. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured based on the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. Current and deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

Deferred tax liabilities on taxable temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, branches and associated companies and interests in joint arrangements are not recognised if the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

XVII. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the consolidated net profit or loss after tax for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholder and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares, if any.

Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Group by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

XVIII. Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

i. Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition.

Transaction cost in relation to financial assets and financial liabilities other than those carried at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) are added to the fair value on initial recognition.

Transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities that are carried at fair value through profit or loss are immediately recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

ii. Subsequent measurement

Non-derivative financial instruments

1. Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2. Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

The group has made an irrevocable election for its investment which are classified as equity instruments to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income based on its business model. Further, in cases where the group has made an irrevocable election based on its business model, for its investment which are classified as equity instruments, the subsequent changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss.

4. Financial liabilities

The financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the consolidated balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Financial assets or financial liability at fair value through profit or loss

This category has financial assets or liabilities which are not designated as hedges.

Although the group believes that these derivatives constitute hedges from an economic perspective, they may not qualify for hedge accounting under Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. Any derivative that is either not designated a hedge, or is so designated but is ineffective as per Ind AS 109, is categorized as a financial asset or financial liability, at fair value through profit or loss.

Derivatives not designated as hedges are recognized initially at fair value and attributable transaction costs are recognized in net profit in the consolidated statement of profit and loss when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit or loss and the resulting exchange gains or losses are included in other income. Assets/

liabilities in this category are presented as current assets/ current liabilities if they are either held for trading or are expected to be realized within 12 months after the balance sheet date.

• Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

In the ordinary course of business, the group uses certain derivative financial instruments to reduce business risks which arise from its exposure to foreign. The instruments are confined principally to forward foreign exchange contracts. The instruments are employed as hedges of transactions included in the consolidated financial statements or for highly probable forecast transactions/ firm contractual commitments. These derivatives contracts do not generally extend beyond six months.

Derivatives are initially accounted for and measured at fair value on the date the derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period.

The group adopts hedge accounting for forward foreign exchange contracts wherever possible. At inception of each hedge, there is a formal, documented designation of the hedging relationship. This documentation includes, inter alia, items such as identification of the hedged item and transaction and nature of the risk being hedged. At inception, each hedge is expected to be highly effective in achieving an offset of changes in fair value or cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. The effectiveness of hedge instruments to reduce the risk associated with the exposure being hedged is assessed and measured at the inception and on an ongoing basis. The ineffective portion of designated hedges is recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

When hedge accounting is applied:

- for fair value hedges of recognised assets and liabilities, changes in fair value of the hedged assets and liabilities attributable to the risk being hedged, are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss and compensate for the effective portion of symmetrical changes in the fair value of the derivatives.
- For cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the change in the fair value of the derivative is recognised directly in other comprehensive income and the ineffective portion is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss. If the cash flow hedge of a firm commitment or forecasted transaction results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or liability, then, at the time the asset or liability is recognised, the associated gains or losses on the derivative that had previously been recognised in equity are included in the initial measurement of the asset or liability. For hedges that do not result in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a liability, amounts deferred in equity are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss in the same period in which the hedged item affects the consolidated statement of profit and loss.

In cases where hedge accounting is not applied, changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss as and when they arise.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated, or exercised, or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. At that time, any cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognised in equity is retained in equity until the forecasted transaction occurs. If a hedged transaction is no longer expected to occur, the net cumulative gain or loss recognised in equity is transferred to the consolidated statement of profit and loss for the period.

De-recognition of financial instruments

A financial asset is derecognized when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for De recognition under Ind AS 109.

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is determined using the valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

Based on the three level fair value hierarchy, the methods used to determine the fair value of financial assets and liabilities include quoted market price, discounted cash flow analysis and valuation certified by the external valuer.

In case of financial instruments where the carrying amount approximates fair value due to the short maturity of those instruments, carrying amount is considered as fair value.

XIX. Impairment of assets

i) Financial assets

The group recognizes loss allowances using the expected credit loss (ECL) model for the financial assets which are not fair valued through profit or loss.

Loss allowance for trade receivables with no significant financing component is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. For all other financial assets, expected credit

Notes

Annexed to and forming part of Consolidated Financial Statements as at and for the year ended 31-March-2024

losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month ECL, unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk from initial recognition in which case those are measured at lifetime ECL. The amount of expected credit losses (or reversal) that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognised is recognized as an impairment gain or loss in statement of profit or loss.

ii) Impairment of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU (Cash Generating unit) to which the asset belongs.

If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the consolidated statement of profit and loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. An impairment loss is reversed in the statement of profit and loss if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. The carrying amount of the asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

XX. Cash flow statement

The consolidated cash flow statement is prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) – 7 "Statement of Cash flows" using the indirect method for operating activities.

XXI. Cash and cash equivalent

Cash and cash equivalent for the purpose of consolidated statement of cash flows include bank balances, where the original maturity is three months or less. Other short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank overdrafts are included as a component of cash and cash equivalent for the purpose of statement of cash flow.

XXII. Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized if, as a result of past event, the group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) and on management judgement that is reasonably estimable and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as finance cost.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of:

- A present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation;
- A present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible;
- A possible obligation arising from past events, unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

Commitments include the amount of purchase order (net of advances) issued to parties for completion of assets.

Provisions, contingent liabilities, contingent assets and commitments are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

XXIII. Current and non-current classification

The group has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current / non-current classification of assets and liabilities. This is based on the nature of products and the time between acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. Current Assets and current liabilities includes current portion of non-current financial assets and non-current financial liabilities respectively.

Note 2 (iii): Critical accounting estimates

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment are based on a number of factors including the effects of obsolescence, internal assessment of user experience and other economic factors (such as the stability of the industry, and known technological advances) and the level of maintenance expenditure required to obtain the expected future cash flows from the asset.

The group reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment at the end of each reporting date.

Recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment

The recoverable amount of property plant and equipment is based on estimates and assumptions regarding the expected market outlook and expected future cash flows. Any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the measurement of the recoverable amount and could result in impairment.

Post-retirement benefit plans

Employee benefit obligations are measured on the basis of actuarial assumptions including any changes in these assumptions that may have a material impact on the resulting calculations.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

Recognition of deferred tax assets depends upon the availability of future profits against which tax losses carried forward can be used.

41 Financial Risk Management

The financial assets of the Group include investments, loans, trade and other receivables, and cash and bank balances that derive directly from its operations. The financial liabilities of the Group, other than derivatives, include loans and borrowings, trade payables, lease liabilities and other payables, and the main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the day to day operations of the Group.

The Group is mainly exposed to the following risks that arise from financial instruments:

- (i) Market risk
- (ii) Liquidity risk
- (iii) Credit risk

The Group's senior management oversees the management of these risks and that advises on financial risks and the appropriate financial risk governance framework for the Group.

This note explains the risks which the Group is exposed to and policies and framework adopted by the Group to manage these risks:

(i) Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise two types of risk: foreign currency risk and interest rate risk.

(a) Foreign currency risk

The Group imports certain Property, Plant and Equipment and material from outside India and export finished goods. The exchange rate between the Indian rupee and foreign currencies has fluctuated in recent years and may fluctuate substantially in the future.

Annexed to and forming part of Consolidated Financial Statements as at and for the year ended 31-March-2024

Consequently the Group is exposed to foreign currency risk and the results of the Group may be affected as the rupee appreciates/ depreciates against foreign currencies. Foreign exchange risk arises from the future probable transactions and recognized assets and liabilities denominated in a currency other than Group's functional currency.

The Group measures the risk through a forecast of highly probable foreign currency cash flows and manages its foreign currency risk by hedging appropriately. The Group manages its foreign currency risk through the process of adjusting inward remittances in foreign currency for its payment of outward remittances (i.e. considering it as natural hedge). The Group also holds derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures.

The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk was based on the following amounts as at the reporting dates:

Foreign currency sensitivity analysis

Any changes in the exchange rate of USD and EURO against INR is not expected to have significant impact on the Group's profit due to the less exposure of these currencies. Accordingly, a 2% appreciation/depreciation of the INR as indicated below, against the USD and EURO would have reduced/increased profit by the amounts shown below. This analysis is based on the foreign currency exchange rate variances that the Group considered to be reasonably possible at the end of the reporting period. The analysis assumes that all other variable remains constant:

Derivatives designated as hedging instruments

The Group enters into hedging instruments in accordance with policies as approved by the Board of Directors with written principles which is consistent with the risk management strategy of the Group. The Group has decided to apply hedge accounting for derivative contracts that meets the qualifying criteria of hedging relationship entered.

During the current year ended 31-Mar-2023 and previous year ended 31-Mar-2022, the Group has designated certain foreign exchange forward contracts as cash flow hedges to mitigate the risk of foreign exchange exposure.

(b) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's debt obligations with floating interest rates.

As the Group has no significant interest-bearing assets, the income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's debt obligations with floating interest rates, which are included in interest bearing loans and borrowings in these financial statements if any. All the Group's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flows will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

At the reporting date the interest rate profile of the Group's interest bearing financial instrument is at its fair value:

|                                      | 111            |                 |  |  |
|--------------------------------------|----------------|-----------------|--|--|

| Current maturities of long term debt | -              | -               |  |  |
| Short term borrowings                | 32.76          | 79.63           |  |  |

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. A change of 100 basis points in interest rates for variable rate instruments at the reporting date would have increased/(decreased) profit or loss for the below years by the amounts shown below. With all other variables held constant, the Group's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

| Particulars                             | Finar   | Financial Year |  |  |

(ii) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty to meet its financial obligations. The objective of liquidity risk management is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements.

The financial liabilities of the Group include loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The Group's principal sources of liquidity are cash and cash equivalents and the cash flow that is generated from operations.

The Group monitors its risk of shortage of funds to meet the financial liabilities using a liquidity planning tool. The Group plans to maintain sufficient cash to meet the obligations as and when falls due.

The below is the detail of contractual maturities of the financial liabilities of the Group at the end of each reporting period:

(iii) Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of default on its contractual terms or obligations by the counterparty resulting in a financial loss. The maximum exposure to the credit risk at the reporting date is primarily from trade receivables which are typically unsecured. Credit risk on cash and bank balances is limited as the Group generally invests in deposits with banks and financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by credit rating agencies. The Group assesses the creditworthiness of the customers internally to whom goods are sold on credit terms in the normal course of business. The credit limit of each customer is defined in accordance with this assessment.

The impairment analysis is performed on client to client basis for the debtors that are past due at the end of each reporting date. The Group has not considered an allowance for doubtful debts in case of Trade receivables that are past due but there has not been a significant change in the credit quality and the amounts are still considered recoverable.

The following is the detail of revenues generated from top five customers of the Group:

|   | Financial | Financial Year |  |  |  |

The financials assets are written off in case there is no reasonable expectation of recovering from the financial asset.

42 Capital Management

The capital includes issued equity capital, share premium and all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the Group. The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to maintain optimum capital structure to reduce cost of capital and to maximize the shareholder value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions and the requirements of the financial covenants which otherwise would permit the banks to immediately call loans and borrowings. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The Group's gearing ratio was as follows:
