Commencement of the lottery of 5 thousand 211 houses of Pune MHADA Government is committed to provide affordable housing to common people

- Chief Minister Eknath Shinde

MUMBAI: Chief Minister Eknath Shinde testified that MHADA is providing houses at the cost of construction to fulfill the dream of common people and the government is committed to provide police residences and affordable right houses to common people through MHADA and CIDCO. Chief Minister Eknath Shinde and Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis launched today the lottery of 5 thousand 211 houses to be constructed on behalf of Pune Mandal MHADA through television system. On this occasion, Principal Secretary of Housing Department Milind Mhaiskar, Vice Chairman of MHADA Anil Diggikar, Principal Secretary of Urban Development Department Sonia Sethi along with senior officials were present. Chief Minister Mr. Shinde said on this occasion that more than 90 thousand citizens applied for 5 thousand 211 flats of Pune MHADA Mandal and more than 71 thousand applicants participated by paying deposit amount, this is a good example of increasing credibility of government and MHADA. The Chief Minister also said that out of the flats that were drawn today, three thousand houses are ready and will be distributed in the next one and a half months, while the rest of the flats will be completed and distributed in one and a half years. Own house is the dream of every citizen, to fulfill this dream, Prime Minister Narendra Modi introduced the concept of affordable housing for all and said that right houses are being made available through various schemes like Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana. The Chief Minister also gave instructions to work vigorously on this occasion. MHADA has played a major role in implementing Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 'Housing for All' concept in the state, Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis appreciated the work of MHADA for successfully implementing various housing projects in the state. On this occasion, a booklet giving information about the housing scheme was released by the dignitaries.
