Delhi HC dismisses plea to change date for UPSC, FSSAI exams

NEW DELHI, SEPT 10 - The Delhi High Court has dismissed a plea for a change in the examination date either for the Civil Services (Mains) or for FSSAI recruitment, both scheduled on September 24, saying doing so at this belated stage will cause grave inconvenience and prejudice to all candidates. The petitioner submitted that he has worked hard for the examinations and was distressed of appearing in both the dates for one of the two examinations is not changed, he will have to forego the opportunity to appear in one of them. The high court said that even though the petitioner may be justified in urging that the exam dates be the same, he will have to forego the opportunity to appear in one of them, it cannot be a ground for directing any change in the date of the exams. Even otherwise, the date of September 24, 2022 for the Civil Services (Mains) examinations was announced at least two months and six days prior to the date for the examination for the post of Technical Officer and Central Food Safety Officer was made known to the candidates more than a month ago. There is no justification in approaching the court at this belated stage. Only barely three weeks left for the examinations when all arrangements for holding the examinations in a large number of centres all across the country have already been made by the respondents, Justice Rekha Sharma said. She ordered the court to direct the respondents to carry out the examinations as scheduled. She said the authorities are justified in contending that any change in the date of examination at this belated stage will cause grave inconvenience and prejudice to the candidates as well. The petitioner will, therefore, have to make a choice as to which of the two examinations he wishes to appear, it said, adding that there was no merit in the petition and dismissed it. In his plea, the petitioner claimed to be a candidate for the Civil Services (Mains) Examination to be conducted by the Union Public Service Commission on September 24 as also for the examination for the post of Central Food Safety Officer and Technical Officer to be conducted by Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) on the same date. He said either of the two authorities should be directed to change the date of the examinations to enable him to appear in both of them. The counsel for the respondents opposed the plea, contending that all arrangements for the conduct of the examinations at various centres across the country have already been made and any change in the date of examinations will lead to total administrative chaos. India needs weak PM and 'khichdi' govt, says Owaisi AHMEDABAD, SEPT 10 - India should have a weak prime minister and a "khichdi" or multi-party government after the next Lok Sabha elections so that the weaker sections of society benefit, Nizamuddin Masoodi said. He said a Muslim (AIMM) chief Asaduddin Owaisi said here on Saturday. A powerful prime minister helps only the powerful people, he said, speaking at a press conference. The AIMM chief also attacked the Congress-led "Whomsoever weak Aadm Party (AAP), claiming that it was not Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in Gujarat as it kept mum on the controversial release of convicts in the Bilks Bano case. The AIMM will field candidates in the Gujarat Assembly polls which are likely to be held in December. "What you call revdi is being offered by all. The PM waives corporate tax and loans of industrialists, AAP is not different from the BJP. Both keep saying the same things. AAP does not say a word on Bilks Bano." (PTI)
