India vs West Indies: Rohit Sharma's men look to continue winning run against dangerous West Indies in T20s

New Delhi. The fine-tuning for the T20 World Cup 2022 will begin when India take on West Indies in the first 3-match T20I series against the West Indies at the Eden Gardens in Kolkata on Wednesday. The absence of some of the key members of the side, including Jasprit Bumrah and KL Rahul, gives the hosts an opportunity to find back-ups as they are prepared to test their bench strength. India may have had a horror run at the T20 World Cup but they are on a 6-match winning run in the shortest format of the game. Rohit Sharma is yet to lose a match as full-time T20I captain of India as the hosts had outclassed New Zealand 3-0 in November last year right after their early exit at the T20 World Cup in the UAE.

On the other hand, West Indies were ordinary in their 0-3 defeat in the ODI series but Kieron Pollard's men enjoy the T20 format that gives them the right platform to showcase their power-hitting skills. West Indies put behind the World Cup disappointment to outclass England 3-2 in a home series last month. For India, the focus will be on making use of their bench strength. In KL Rahul's absence, India have two opening options in Ishan Kishan and Rituraj Gaikwad. On the back of a record-smashing payday at the Indian Premier League (IPL) auction, Ishan will be keen on getting an opportunity and making a mark while Rituraj, who was hit by Covid-19 concerns, will also be looking for a chance at the top of the order.

How will Virat Kohli approach T20Is?

All eyes will be on Virat Kohli as the former captain has faced criticism for his conservative approach at No.3 in T20Is. It remains to be seen if Kohli continues the accumulator role or changes his style, considering the burden of responsibility of captaincy is not on his shoulders anymore. India have a solid middle-order with Rishabh Pant, Suryakumar Yadav and Shreyas Iyer vying for spots. However, it remains to be seen if Venkatesh Iyer, who played the ODIs in South Africa, get another go as the finisher in the side even as the likes of Shardul Thakur and Deepak Chahar have showcased their big-hitting prowess in the recent past. After getting picked in the ODI squad, Ravi Bishnoi warmed the benches but the Lucknow Super Giants bowler might get an opportunity in the T20I series. India will back Yuzvendra Chahal to don the role of the lead spinner and the availability of Kuldeep Yadav also gives the team an option in the pace department. India have a problem of plenty. The focus will be on senior pacer Bhuvneshwar Kumar, who is likely to be given another opportunity despite a horror show in the ODIs in South Africa. Mohammed Siraj and Deepak Chahar are likely to get the nod as the lead pacers while India also have the pace of Avesh Khan to go with, along with the craft of Harshal Patel, who can also hit a long ball. On the other hand, Kieron Pollard's return will be a big boost to the West Indies squad who have enough firepower to pose a stiff challenge to India in what promises to be a cracking T20I series.

There will be a bit of nip in the air and the dew will play a huge role in Kolkata, meaning the toss is expected to play a crucial role in the 3-match series. IND vs WI, 1st T20I Predicted Playing XI: West Indies predicted XI: Brandon King, Kyle Mayers, Nicholas Pooran (wk), Romy Powell, Kieron Pollard (c), Jason Holder, Fabian Allen, Romario Shepherd, Odean Smith, Akeal Hosein, Dominic Drakes. India predicted XI: Rohit Sharma (c), Ishan Kishan, Virat Kohli, Rishabh Pant (wk), Suryakumar Yadav, Venkatesh Iyer, Shardul Thakur, Harshal Patel, Deepak Chahar, Yuzvendra Chahal, Mohammed Siraj.
