Dear Sir/Madam,

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), Regulations, 2015, we are pleased to announce that Shalby Academy, the healthcare education division of Shalby Ltd, made its partnership with P P Savani University in Surat. Today on June 10, 2023, both organizations have signed an MOU to jointly offer a diverse range of Para Medical/Healthcare courses in South Gujarat. The MoU was signed by Mr. Babu Thomas, Group Chief Human Resources Officer, Shalby Ltd and Dr. Parag Sanghani, Provost, P P Savani University.

This collaboration further enhances Shalby's commitment to collaborate with various universities across India, with the aim of providing skill-based healthcare courses to strengthen the country's healthcare delivery system.

Through this alliance, we will initially be launching five diploma programs at our Surat and Vapi locations. By bringing together the expertise and resources of both institutions, we aim to provide high-quality education and training to aspiring healthcare professionals in the region. We are excited about the opportunities this partnership brings and look forward to making a significant impact on the healthcare sector.

We request to take the same on your records.

Yours faithfully,
For Shalby Limited
