700 mn vax doses so far, 100 mn in just 13 days

RUCHIKA CHITRAVANSHI
New Delhi 7 September

India on Tuesday crossed the 700-million mark for total doses administered in the country. More than 76 per cent of the doses given so far were first shots, while the remaining 24 per cent were second doses.

The last 100 million of these were given in just 13 days, the fastest so far, said the Union health ministry on Tuesday.

While almost 7 million doses were administered on Tuesday, according to provisional data on the CoWIN dashboard, India had given 11.3 million doses on Monday, crossing the 10-million mark for the third time in the last eleven days.

Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya said in a tweet, "Soaring higher on #COVID19 vaccination under PM @NarendraModi ji's leadership...Congratulations to all the health workers and people for this momentous achievement."

India has so far fully vaccinated 17 per cent of its adult population, while 56 per cent have got their first dose.

States that gave the maximum number of doses on Tuesday include Uttar Pradesh, Kerala, Bihar, Maharashtra and Gujarat. In terms of total doses given so far, the leading states include Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan.

Night curfew, Sunday curbs to be withdrawn: Kerala CM

Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan on Tuesday said that it has been decided to forgo the night curfew and the "stringent intensified" restrictions on Sundays. The move comes as the state on Tuesday reported 25,772 fresh Covid-19 cases.

The CM said the decision to do away with restrictions was taken in the Covid review meeting as the TPR in the state, which was around 18.49 per cent in the last week of August, fell to 17.91 in the first week of September.

On Tuesday, the TPR was 15.87 per cent.

Chhattisgarh CM's father arrested

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Raipur, 7 September

The Raipur Police have arrested Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel's father Nand Kumar Baghel from Delhi in a case registered against him for allegedly making derogatory remarks against a community, an official said here on Tuesday.

After being brought from the national capital, Nand Kumar Baghel was produced in a local court which sent him to jail under judicial remand for 15 days, he said.

The CM had strongly disapproved of the objectionable remarks allegedly made by his 86-year-old father and asserted nobody is above law.

"Nand Kumar Baghel was arrested and brought from Delhi to Raipur on Tuesday," Raipur Additional Superintendent of Police Tarkeshwar

Nand Kumar Baghel was also accused of asking people to "evict" Brahmins from the country

Patel said. He was produced in the court of Judicial Magistrate First Class (JMFC) Janak Kumar Hidko who sent him to 15-day judicial custody, he added.

According to police, the octogenarian did not apply for bail. The case against Nand Kumar Baghel was lodged on Saturday night at the DD Nagar police station in Raipur on a complaint filed by the 'Sarv Brahmin Samaj' against him.

He was charged under Indian Penal Code Sections 153-A (promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language) and 505(1)(b) (with intent to cause, or likely to cause, fear or alarm to public, or to any section of public whereby any person may be induced to commit offence against the state or against public tranquility), police had said.

The outfit, in its complaint, alleged that the CM's father recently made a controversial appeal to people to boycott Brahmins by terming them as "foreigners", and asked people to not let them enter in their villages.

The organisation also accused Nand Kumar Baghel of asking people to "evict" Brahmins from the country.

Tax portal...

Since the portal will have access to all kinds of data on market entities, taxmen will verify if gains were understated. The I-T department had earlier this year notified market intermediaries, including exchanges, to submit information on capital gains made on listed securities and mutual funds.

It requires companies to provide details of dividends paid, while banks, post offices, and non-banking financial companies must submit information on interest earned.

This was following an announcement in the February 1 Union Budget which had said that to further ease the filing of returns, details of capital gains from listed securities, dividend income, and interest from banks, post office, etc would also be pre-filled in tax forms for taxpayers.

Post-WFH...

Five measures being considered as part of their preparation for the third Covid wave include focusing on aggressive vaccination drives, re-evaluating plans around return to premises, relooking at talent management policies to facilitate prolonged working in a virtual environment, assessing the likely business scenarios and potential impact on rewards budgets, and investing in collaboration and productivity tools.

The survey also found a high double-digit attrition rate of overall 20 per cent, along with voluntary attrition at 15.4 per cent.

Commenting on the trends, Chaudhary said, "The pandemic has accelerated the digital journey for organisations. This led to an unprecedented war for digital talent in the short term and is driving up salary increase budgets and attrition numbers across sectors. Businesses will have to redefine their talent strategies to keep pace with the war for talent."

Sebi allows...

Currently, trades on the Indian stock exchanges are settled within two days, just like most major markets such as Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia, Japan, and South Korea. Taiwan, which had switched to T+1 settlement, has moved back to the T+2 cycle. "Domestic investors will be in favour of moving to the T+1 system. The offshore investors, however, will face an issue," said a person familiar with the matter.

According to him, the exchanges may initially try to move 5, 10 or 15 scrips that are outside of the key benchmark indices such as the Nifty 50 and the Sensex to the T+1 cycle.

After opting for the T+1 settlement cycle for a scrip, the stock exchange will have to mandatorily continue with the same for a minimum period of six months. After that, in case the exchange intends to switch back to the T+2 settlement cycle, it will do so by giving one-month advance notice to the market. Any subsequent switch (from T+1 to T+2 or vice versa) will be subject to the minimum notice period.

There will be no netting between T+1 and T+2 settlements.

Cairn to...

The company had registered the arbitration award in many jurisdictions, including the US, the UK, Canada, Singapore, Mauritius, France, and the Netherlands.

It had even sought mortgaging government properties in Paris and sought claim on Air India as "the alter ego of the Indian state".

According to draft rules of the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2021, released by the Central Board of Direct Taxes last week, companies have to file a declaration to "irrevocably withdraw, discontinue and not pursue" any legal proceedings.

These include proceedings before the appellate forum, proceedings for arbitration, conciliation or mediation, and enforcing or pursuing attachments in respect of any award, order, or judgment. The draft rules require a similar undertaking from "interested parties" and shareholders in support of withdrawing cases.

The legislation offers settling the retrospective cases pertaining to the 2012 legislation on the offshore indirect transfer of Indian assets.

London-based Vedanta Resources had served a notice of claim against the government of India under the India-United Kingdom bilateral investment treaty, challenging the tax demand on March 27, 2015.

Telecom...

The move, if approved, would apply to all telecom firms but would benefit Vodafone Idea immediately.

Following the buzz around a telecom relief package, shares of Vodafone Idea rose 14.48 per cent to ₹8.30 on the BSE on Tuesday.

The practice of issuing letters of comfort was started mainly for Bharat Sanchar Nigam and Mahanagar Telephone Nigam to help them secure funding from banks.

Explaining the other measures that could be considered, an official said the licence fee is paid in four quarterly installments, which the department may allow companies to pay annually.

This may give a breather to some telecom firms in reducing their debt burden through the coming quarters.

But the government also wants the UK-based parent company to infuse capital into Vodafone Idea to keep the company afloat. The group has resisted investing in the company, while maintaining it wouldn't throw good money after bad.

The government's effort in preparing a telecom package is to ensure that the telecom sector does not become a duopoly.
