term growth potential as is evident from the increased investment flows in the last few years." "In the wake of positive policy reforms and emergence of a strong workforce, the momentum of India's economic growth is steady and it will only grow stronger in the next 10 years," said Anshuman Magazine, Chairman and CEO, India, South East Asia, Middle East and Africa, CBRE.

Our economy is going through choppy waters as witnessed in auto sales, I-T collections, small cap carnage and management guidance post quarterly results. Our economy went through a Samudra Manthan in the last few years. Poison in form of subdued growth has come out before the intended Amrit. In absence of Mahadev all of us have to bear a part of it.

Future NPAs are likely to be lower as bank lending is without external the effort of the chef in preparing food. Investor and entrepreneur sentiment has been similarly impacted by a few things.

The Indian entrepreneur is Kaliyug's Abhimanyu. He is born in the Chakravyuha to not only fight the Kauravas (the market and competition) but also Pandavas (a lack of credit, high real interest rates, a high tax burden, complex regulations, infrastructure bottlenecks etc.). We must encourage entrepreneurship by means are exhaustive – are needed in totality and in rapid succession for a turnaround.

■ We need to prioritise growth over fiscal prudence and inflation. Higher growth will tackle inflation with additional supply and fiscal concern with higher tax revenues. It is better to increase the size of the pie and take a piece than take a bigger piece from the existing pie.

■ Growth can't happen without money. Our domestic savings are decade of policy holiday will game changer. Essentially "suswagatam" treatment with Motors got at Sanand while ignoring their Nano plant. While FPI flows, care should be taken to attract long term flows. Bec part of the Global Bond Index a good way to attract long-term flows. Invest foreign debt into capital assets to tackle valid raised by wise people. ■ Tight liquidity prevailing
