Withdrawal of proposal of One-time Restructuring (OTR)

Dear Sir/Madam,

We refer to our letter dated January 01, 2021 wherein the Company has informed that it has applied for restructuring of its term loans availed from KKR India Financial Services Limited (KKR) under Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines issued on August 06, 2020 'Resolution Framework for Covid -19 – related Stress' (OTR), on September 01, 2020. Majority of lenders at their meeting held on 31st December, 2020 have agreed to invoke the restructuring plan (OTR).

Simultaneously, the Company had also applied for additional loan facility under Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS 2.0) announced by Government of India under Atamnirbhar 3.0 package. Under the scheme, the Company is eligible for additional finance from the existing lenders equivalent to 20% of the outstanding existing facilities as on February 29, 2020. Company's request has been considered favourably by the lenders.

As per Company's assessment, in light of the aforesaid sanctioned facilities as well as improved business scenario, restructuring of debt is no longer required. Hence, in the recent joint meeting of the Company's Lenders on January 28, 2021, it was agreed that One-Time restructuring need not to be pursued and the option has been dropped.

You are requested to take the same on your records.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

For Bharat Gears Limited
