Report on Audit of Standalone Financial Results

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying statement of quarterly and year to date Standalone financial results of Modern Threads (India) Limited (the "company") for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 and for the year ended March 31, 2020 (the "statement") attached herewith, being submitted by the company pursuant to the requirement of Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (the "Listing Regulations")

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, except for the effect of the matters described in the basis for qualified opinion section of our report, these standalone Ind As Financial Results:

- is presented in accordance with the requirements of Listing Regulations in this regard; and
- give a true and fair view in conformity with the applicable accounting standards and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the net Profit and other comprehensive income and other financial information of the company for the quarter and the year ended 31st March, 2020.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

- i. The company has not provided for Interest (Dividend) on cumulative redeemable preference shares for the quarter ended 31.03.2020 Rs. 16.92 Lakhs and for the year ended 31.03.2020 Rs. 68.25 Lakhs (cumulative Rs. 1638.18 Lakhs up to 31.03.2020).
- ii. Balances of trade payables and trade receivables are subject to confirmation and consequential adjustments, if any.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Material Uncertainty related to going Concern

We draw attention to Note 3 in the financial statements, where the company had made a reference to The Board of Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) based on audited accounts for the financial ended 31st March, 2004 and BIFR in the hearing held on 12th December, 2005 had declared the company as sick industrial company u/s 3(1)(o) of the SICA Act. Consequent to abatement of Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provision) Act, 1985, the company has not filed rehabilitation/ revival scheme to NCLT under Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. The company has accumulated losses with its net worth continuing to stand fully eroded and the financial statements of the company have been prepared on going concern as the Debentures, term loan and accrued interest has been settled and only balance Rs. 75 Lakhs is payable till 31st March 2021. The company is expecting compliance of term of settlement and liability will be written back on discharge of full payment.

Our opinion is not modified in this matter.

Emphasis of Matters

We draw attention to: Note 10 to the accompanying Statement, which describes the effects of uncertainties relating to COVID-19 pandemic outbreak on the Company's operations and management's evaluation of its impact on the accompanying Statement as at the balance sheet date, the extent of which is significantly dependent on future developments.

Our opinion is not modified in this matter.

Management's Responsibilities for the Financial Results

The statement has been prepared on the basis of annual financial statements. The Board of Directors of the company are responsible for preparation and presentation of the statement that gives a true and fair view of the net profit and other comprehensive income of the company, and financial information in accordance with the applicable Indian accounting standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued there under and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the statement, the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the board of directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Results

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the statement.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the statement, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate Internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial results or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the statement, including the disclosures, and whether the statement represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with "relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Other Matter

The statement includes the result for the quarter ended 31st March, 2020 being the balancing figure between the audited figures in respect of the full financial year ended March 31, 2020 and the published unaudited year to date figures up to the third quarter of the current financial year, which were subjected to a limited review by us, as required under the Listing Regulations.
