Business Outlook: Commenting on the performance during the quarter, Mr. Arun K Chittilappilly, Managing Director said

“We have delivered a strong and resilient performance during the quarter. The quarter was marked with strong performances from the festive season: Dussehra, Christmas, and New Year. Our performance is reflective of strategic focus on footfall from various segments, experimenting with new areas (park plus activities and F&B offerings), concentrated digital marketing activities (groups, walk-ins & events), and operational excellence of our business.

We are happy with the overall business performance during the quarter and are confident that the footfall will show an uptrend across all the locations in the ensuing quarters.”
