BRANCH BANKING AND DIGITAL CHANNELS DEPARTMENTPRESS RELEASE*October 30, 2021*Karnataka Bank donates Electrocardiography Machines to Udupi Grama Panchayath Centres and Sub Centres

Karnataka Bank as part of its CSR initiative has sponsored 50 units of Electrocardiography Machines (ECG) at a total cost of Rs 11,50,000/- to needy Udupi Grama Panchayath Centres and Sub Centres. The initiative implemented in association with Cardiology at Door Steps Foundation Trust based out of Mangaluru will help in providing better diagnostic services related to early detection of heart diseases. The first lot of 10 units of ECG machines were handed over today by Shri Mahabaleshwara M.S., MD & CEO at the Bank's Head Office, Mangaluru.

Speaking at the occasion, Shri Mahabaleshwara M.S, MD & CEO, said "A vast majority of our population below the poverty line are dependent on PHCs for receiving medical treatment, rehabilitation and palliative care as close to their everyday environment. It is important that Corporate Institutions support the initiatives of Government of India in ramping up the medical infrastructure in the public sector. With this support of Karnataka Bank, Udupi District will be the first district to have ECG facility in all its Gram Panchayath Centres and Sub centres. Karnataka Bank through this initiative has re-affirmed its commitment towards achieving the goal of universal health coverage”

Expressing his happiness, Dr. Padmanabh Kamath, leading cardiologist and Managing Trustee of Cardiology at Door Steps Foundation Trust, Mangaluru said “it is a huge gesture from Karnataka Bank to support the Udupi Grama Panchayath Centres and Sub Centres covering the entire Udupi District. With improved diagnostic facilities, I am sure that the rural PHCs will now be able to provide better preventive healthcare services to under-served and less privileged sections of the society.”

Shri Balachandra Y V, Chief Operating Officer, Shri Gokuldas Pai, Chief Business Officer, Shri Raja B.S, General Manager and Shri Srinivas Deshpande, Assistant General Manager and representatives of Panchayath were also present on the occasion.
