Financial support options for life-threatening diseases from 4 national schemes

In medical emergencies, the government can help you out. There are various government schemes and funding options available so you can access the help you need when facing medical crises.

Prime Minister's National Relief Fund (PM-NRF): This scheme provides financial aid to underprivileged patients suffering from major life-threatening diseases, to cover part of their treatment costs and enable them to receive treatment at any government/PM-NRF enlisted hospitals. Funds are allocated on the approval of the Prime Minister. To apply, the applicant will be required to produce a duly completed and signed application form addressed to the Prime Minister, copy of income certificate, copy of ration card, two passport-size photographs of the patient, original medical certificate clearly stating the type of disease, and cost estimate of treatment.

Rashtriya Arogya Nidhi (RAN): Under this scheme, patients living below poverty line and suffering from major life-threatening diseases can avail financial aid and receive medical treatment at any of the 13 enlisted super specialty government hospitals or institutes. Patients receive a one-time grant of INR 2 lakh (up to INR 5 lakh depending on urgency). To apply, the applicant will be required to produce a duly completed and signed application form, copy of income certificate and copy of ration card. A patient is not eligible for financial assistance under RAN, if their family is covered under Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (PMJAY). They or their family member is a government servant. They are receiving treatment in a private hospital.

Health Minister's Cancer Patients Fund (HMCPF): The Health Minister's Cancer Patients Fund, a component of the umbrella scheme of RAN, provides financial assistance to patients below poverty line suffering from cancer and undergoing treatment in any of the 27 enlisted regional cancer centers. Each cancer patient can receive a one-time grant of INR 2 lakh, up to INR 5 lakh depending on urgency. To apply, the applicant will be required to produce a duly completed and signed application form, copy of income certificate and copy of ration card. A patient is not eligible for financial assistance under HMCPF, if their family is covered under Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (PMJAY). They or their family member is a government servant. They are receiving treatment in a private hospital.

Health Minister's Discretionary Grant (HMDG): This scheme is another component of the umbrella scheme of RAN, providing up to INR 1.25 lakhs to poor and underprivileged patients suffering from rare illnesses, whose annual income is INR 1.25 lakhs or less, to settle a part of the medical expenditure incurred in government hospitals or institutes. Reimbursement of expenditure already incurred is not authorized. Prolonged treatment involving recurring expenditure is not permissible. To apply, the applicant will be required to produce a duly completed and signed application form, copy of income certificate and copy of ration card. A patient is not eligible for financial assistance under HMDG, if: The disease is of common nature with inexpensive treatments. They or their family member is a government servant. They are receiving treatment in a private hospital.

Smile Train highlights impact of timely cleft treatment

Chennai, Feb 12: Smile Train, the world's largest cleft focussed NGO that supports 100%-free cleft surgery and comprehensive cleft care launched the "Cleft Se Confidence Tak" campaign. The campaign lays emphasis on multiple possibilities for a child with a cleft, following timely, safe and accessible cleft treatment. Smile Train will be sharing messages from beneficiaries and partner doctors leveraging its social media platforms to amplify the success stories of cleft-affected people for awareness generation and confidence building.

Smile Train's Senior Vice President & Regional Director Asia, Mamta Carroll said, "On National Cleft Day, I am proud to announce that Smile Train has supported 37,000 cleft surgeries in Tamil Nadu in partnership with our 7 treatment partner hospitals. Cleft treatment not only brings a transformational change in a child's ability to eat, speak and breathe but also generates confidence to face the world with positivity and new zeal. Over the last 23 years, we have witnessed, firsthand, how timely care empowers cleft affected children. Today, many of them, today, are working in the IT industry, media & advertising, medicine, and some of them have even established themselves as social media influencers and mental health counsellors. Such is the impact of cleft treatment."

Lakmé Academy, Aptech present runway competition for students

Chennai, Feb 12: Lakmé Academy Powered by Aptech concluded its very first edition of a fashion runway titled "The Showcase". The show event took place amidst a lot of glam, glitz and glitterati at Alila Diwa, Goa. With curated professional hair & make-up looks by the students, the models sashaying down in the label by designer Samant Chauhan, choreographed beautifully by the fashion choreographer, Nisha Harale was nothing less than a spectacular extravaganza.

Over 2000+ talented students from Lakmé Academy powered by Aptech centres, pan India participated in different categories of hair, skin, makeup & nails and over 500 of them were shortlisted to participate in the grand finale of 'The Showcase' at Goa. The significantly large student runway in India saw students (as budding hair & make-up artists (HMUAs)) working in teams under gripping deadlines to compete and win the titles as Gold, Silver or Bronze for they will get an exciting opportunity to work with the ace choreographer & director, Farah Khan on her next project.

Pravir Arora, Chief Marketing Officer, Aptech Ltd Said, "With this mission of creating skilled employable professionals (SEPs), we would continue to try and surpass our expectations to give the best we can to enable careers in this industry. I congratulate all the winners, finalists, and participants for making this show a huge success."
