CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING FOR EMPLOYEES OF NUCLEUS SOFTWARE EXPORTS LIMITED

Nucleus Software Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading

A. Introduction

Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) vide its Notification dated January 15, 2015, had issued the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and further amended the same vide notification specifying the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018, to put in place a framework for prohibition of insider trading in securities and to strengthen the legal framework thereof.

These Regulations require that every listed company to formulate a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated person and immediate relatives of designated person towards achieving compliance with the Regulations, adopting minimum standards as set out in Schedule B of the Regulations, without diluting the provisions of the Regulations in any manner.

In the above context, Nucleus Software Exports Limited (the “Company”) has formulated this Code as a part of Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting by insider of the Company. This Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of Trading by Insiders will be known as “Nucleus Software Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading”,

C. APPLICABILITY

The following persons shall be covered under this code of conduct for prevention of insider trading (“Code of Conduct/Code”):

- a) Designated Persons.
- b) Connected Persons.

D. Role of Compliance Officer

The Company Secretary is the designated Compliance Officer of the Company. The Compliance officer role shall include:

- i. Setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of ‘Unpublished Price-Sensitive Information’, ‘Pre-Clearing of trade of ‘Designated Persons’ and their immediate relative in consultation /approval of the CFO/Managing Director/Executive Director/ Board of Directors, and monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairman of the Board at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board.
- iii. The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any issues regarding the Regulations and the Code.
- iv. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of restriction of entering into contra-trade by Designated Persons within the next six months of a trading; for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these Regulations. If a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

- v. The Compliance Officer shall do all such things as provided in the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time.

In the absence of the Compliance Officer for any reason, any senior officer, reporting to the Board or the CMD, who is financially literate and is capable of appreciating requirements for legal and regulatory compliance under the Regulations, shall carry out the responsibilities of the Compliance Officer as required under this Code, and the Regulations.

E. Restrictions on Communication and Trading by Insiders

- i. No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or its securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Explanation – For the purpose of illustration, the term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

- ii. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or its securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

F. Digital Database

1. The Board of Director shall insure and shall authorize Compliance officer to maintain digital database with time stamping and audit trails to ensure non tampering of the data base containing following information:
 - a. Name and PAN of the person/entity (ies) with whom information is shared pursuant to Legitimate purposes.
2. Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number, or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Compliance officer, on an annual basis and as and when the information changes
 - a. Designated person
 - b. Immediate relatives
 - c. Persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship*

Designated persons also need to disclose the Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by above mentioned persons.

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which Designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one-time basis.

 Explanation: The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

G. Trading when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- i. No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:

- (i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between [insiders] who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- (ii) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

All files and documents containing any UPSI shall be kept secure by the concerned employees. All computer files shall have adequate security of login and password etc.

UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or be procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

Open Offer Obligation under Takeover Code	Where the Board is of the informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interest of the Company.
No Open Offer Obligation under Takeover Code	Where the Board is of the informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interest of the Company and Information that constitutes UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least 2 trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

- ii. However, the Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and nondisclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

H. Trading Restrictions

All Designated persons shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below:

i. Trading Window

1. The period prior to declaration of UPSI is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Person will, during that period, often possess UPSI.
2. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities of the Company during closure of the 'Trading Window', i.e. the period during which trading in the securities of the Company is prohibited.
3. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called "trading window", is available for trading in the Company's securities.
4. The Company shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for trading in the Company's Securities. Dealing in the securities of the Company shall be in the valid trading period only. No dealing shall be done when the trading window is closed, a notice of which shall be issued from time to time by the Management.

In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading is closed.

- a. The trading window shall be closed for such other period of time as may be decided by the Management from time to time and intimated by the Compliance Officer.
- b. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Company when he determines that a Designated Person or a class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- c. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

d. The trading window shall be closed from the date the notice is sent to stock exchanges by the Company, for any of the following:

- I. Declaration of dividends (interim and final)
- II. Issue of shares by way of public/rights/bonus etc.
- III. Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects.
- IV. Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back.
- V. Disposal of whole or substantially whole of undertaking

- VI. Any other event which can impact the price of securities of the Company as may be decided by the Management from time to time and intimated by the Compliance Officer.

The trading window shall always be closed for Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual) from three weeks prior to the date of any Board meeting. Also, no Designated Person shall trade in Company securities for more than 10% of his/her holding (cumulative trade) or for a transaction value of Rs. 100,000, whichever is higher during a period of two weeks prior to the date of the window closure for declaration of financial results.

For instances where the Company has made a disclosure of dates for trading window closure periods in advance (e.g., Board meeting dates for declaration of financial results for a year); no Designated Person shall trade in Company securities for more than 10% of his/her holding (cumulative trade) or for a transaction value of Rs. 100,000, whichever is higher during a period of two weeks prior to the date of the window closure.

The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window. However, in any event, it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available/conclusion of Board meeting.

I. INSTITUTIONAL MECHANISM FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

The Managing Director or CEO or the authorized official shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in SEBI's Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations to prevent insider trading.

The internal controls shall include the following: -

- i. All the unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified, and its confidentiality shall be maintained as per the requirements of SEBI's Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations.
- ii. Adequate restrictions shall be placed on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information as required by these regulations.
- iii. All employees and other persons with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared with, shall be required to ensure the compliance of SEBI's Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations.

- iv. All employees who have access to unpublished price sensitive information are identified as designated employee.
- v. Maintaining lists of all employees and other persons with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared and confidentiality agreements shall be signed, or notice shall be served to all such employees and persons.
- vi. Periodic process review to evaluate effectiveness of such internal controls.

The Audit Committee shall review compliance with the provisions of SEBI's Prohibition of Insider Trading Regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

J. Trading and Pre-clearance of trade

i. Trading Plan

1. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
2. Such Trading Plan shall:
 - a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan.
 - b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results.
 - c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months.
 - d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.
 - e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - f. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
3. The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.
4. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of SEBI regulations and the Codes and shall seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
5. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. However, implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

6. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.
7. Further pre - clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.
8. Trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan
9. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

ii. Procedure for Pre- Clearance

The procedure shall be hereunder:

- (a) An application shall be made in the prescribed Form D and submitted to the Compliance officer by the Designated Person with a declaration that the Designated Person is not in possession of any UPSI and the Compliance officer shall consider whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- (b) An undertaking shall also be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person.

All Designated Persons shall execute their trades, which have been pre-cleared, within seven trading days from the date of approval of pre-clearance
- (c) If the trade is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the Designated Person will have to pre-clear the transaction again.
- (d) The Designated Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed.
- (e) A Designated Person, who is permitted to trade, shall not execute a contra Trade i.e. sell or buy securities, during the next six months following the prior transaction.
- (f) All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.

- (g) All Designated Persons shall get the pre-clearance of the intended trading (Buying/ Selling) above a threshold limit of 2,500 shares or Rs. 500,000 whichever is lower (whether traded in one or more tranches within Thirty consecutive days or less) and the approval shall be given by the Compliance Officer and others as per limits specified below. The CEO and Managing Director shall get pre-clearance of his/her intended trading above the threshold limit stated above.

No. of Shares	Value of Shares (In Rs.)	Approval by
2,500 to 5,000 shares	5 Lacs to 20 Lacs	Chief Financial Officer and Compliance Officer
5,001 to 50,000 shares	More than 20 Lacs till 1.5 Crore	CEO and Managing Director
Above 50,000 shares	More than Rs. 1.5 Crore	Board of Directors

- (h) In case of subscription in the primary market (Further public offers), the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted. All Designated Persons shall hold the securities of the Company for a minimum period of 30 days from the date of purchase ('Minimum Holding Period').
- (i) In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer or President & Managing Director, as the case may be after recording the reasons in writing. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.
- (j) The Compliance Officer shall advice regarding Pre-Clearance In case of doubt, Insiders shall be responsible to check with the Compliance Officer or one of the contact persons designated by the Compliance Officer, if any, from time to time, whether this clause of pre clearance is applicable to any particular proposed transaction in the Securities.

K. DEALING IN CASE OF SUSPECTED LEAK OR LEAK OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (UPSI)

1. Inquiry for Leakage of UPSI

All UPSI shall be handled on a need-to-know basis only. In case of any UPSI is proposed to be provided, the person proposing to provide the information shall consult Chief Financial Officer/Company Secretary /Managing Director in advance.

In case any UPSI is leaked or is suspected to be leaked by any insider, Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary along with CEO will investigate the matter and collect / gather the evidence and will discuss the findings and report, with the Managing Director. The Managing Director on review of the report, will submit the same to the Audit Committee Chairman.

2.Process for inquiry

All the matters concerning leak of UPSI or suspected leak of UPSI, will be thoroughly investigated by Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary along with CEO. Such Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary may at their discretion, consider involving external investigators for the purpose of the investigation.

The Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary along with CEO, may ask the concerned insider to remain present for investigation, discussion etc. and for such investigation task, the team may ask for personal bank account statement or such other details or documents as it may be required for the purpose. Adequate opportunity will also be given to the insider for placing the facts.

3.Report to Audit Committee for appropriate action

The Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary along with CEO will investigate the matter and collect / gather the evidence and will discuss the findings and report, with the Managing Director. The Managing Director on review of the report, will submit the same to the Audit Committee Chairman.

The Audit Committee Chairman shall place the Report at the Audit Committee meeting for discussion. Based on such report, the Audit Committee shall decide the suitable action including but not limited to withholding of salary / termination of employment / monetary penalty.

L. CHINESE WALLS

1. The Compliance Officer shall monitor and regulate the Company's Chinese walls and Cross the wall procedures. Chinese Walls shall be used to separate areas that have access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information ("Insider Areas") from those who do not have such access ("Public Areas") within the Company
2. Where Chinese Walls arrangements are in place Designated Persons working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any Confidential or Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to Designated Persons or any other person in Public Areas without the prior approval of the Compliance Officer. The establishment of Chinese Walls does not suggest or imply that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information can circulate freely within Insider Areas.
3. Designated Persons within a Chinese Wall have a responsibility to ensure that Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the Compliance Officer immediately.
4. A Designated Person may cross the Chinese Wall to enter the Insider Areas only with the prior approval of the Compliance Officer and would be subject to all restrictions that apply to such areas. While 'crossing the wall' or 'bringing inside the wall' the Designated Persons should make the person aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.
