PRESS RELEASE

Business Update on Strategic Partnership for Container Management Solutions

Eiko LifeSciences Limited (ELL) is proud to announce its strategic diversification into comprehensive shipping, logistics, and container management solutions, serving a wide range of industries, including hazardous and non-hazardous chemicals. This move is designed to strengthen backward and forward integration while effectively mitigating inherent business risks, aligning with ELL's commitment to sustainable growth and operational excellence.

Business Update on Strategic Partnership for Container Management Solutions

Eiko LifeSciences Limited (BSE: 540204) is delighted to announce that its subsidiary, EikoVivify Logistics Pvt. Ltd. (EVL), has entered into a long-term service contract with S J Logistics (India) Ltd. (SJL), a premier international logistics service provider. This partnership marks a significant milestone in EVL's expansion into container management solutions, catering to a wide array of industries.

Under this strategic collaboration, EVL has acquired approximately 1,000 containers of various types and sizes, including dry containers, flat rack containers, open-top containers, and refrigerated containers. This agreement aims to foster enhanced backward and forward integration, reduce inherent business risks, and drive sustainable growth for both EVL and SJL.

As part of its growth strategy, EVL is set to diversify its operations by venturing into leasing, renting, and managing shipping containers for logistics, storage, and transportation. The company plans to source containers both domestically and internationally, provide leasing solutions to transport entities, and offer comprehensive maintenance and management services for efficient container operations.

About EikoVivify Logistics Pvt. Ltd.:

EikoVivify Logistics Pvt. Ltd., a subsidiary of Eiko LifeSciences Limited, is a dynamic player in the container management sector. Leveraging ELL's expertise as a leader in specialty chemicals, pharmaceutical intermediates, and APIs, EVL is committed to delivering innovative and efficient solutions tailored to meet the diverse needs of the logistics and supply chain industry.

About S J Logistics (India) Ltd.:

S J Logistics (India) Ltd. is a globally recognized logistics service provider with over two decades of industry experience. Specializing in freight forwarding, transportation, warehousing, Non-Vessel Operating Common Carrier (NVOCC) services, and customs clearance, SJL operates on an asset-light model. This enables the company to collaborate with a vast network of partners, ensuring reliable, efficient, and timely freight solutions across the globe.

This partnership signifies a shared vision to deliver innovative solutions, streamline operations, and create long-term value for customers. Together, EVL and SJL are poised to redefine container management standards in the logistics and supply chain sector.
