Putin, Xi gang up

China joins Russia in opposing Nato expansion amid tensions over Ukraine

BEIJING

Russian President Vladimir Putin (L) and Chinese President Xi Jinping pose during their meeting in Beijing, on Friday.

China has joined Russia in opposing further Nato expansion as the two countries move closer together in the face of Western pressure, according to the BBC.

Moscow and Beijing issued a statement showcasing their agreement on a raft of issues during a visit by Russia's Vladimir Putin for the Winter Olympics.

Putin claims Western powers are using the Nato defence alliance to undermine Russia.

It comes amid tensions over Ukraine, which he denies planning to invade.

While the lengthy joint statement did not refer directly to Ukraine, the two countries accused Nato of espousing a Cold War ideology.

The talks, which the Kremlin said were "very warm", were held ahead of the Games opening ceremony. It was the first time the leaders have met face-to-face since the start of the pandemic.

"Friendship between [Russia and China] has no limits, there are no 'forbidden' areas of cooperation," the statement reads.

The two countries said they were "seriously concerned" about the Aukus security pact between the US, UK and Australia.

Announced last year, Aukus will see Australia build nuclear-powered submarines as part of efforts to boost security in the Asia-Pacific region.

French, German leaders to visit Russia, Ukraine

AGENCIES
Paris

The French president and the German chancellor will head to Moscow and Kyiv in the coming weeks, adding to diplomatic efforts to try to deter Russian President Vladimir Putin from launching an invasion of Ukraine and find a way out of the growing tensions.

France's Emmanuel Macron is scheduled to visit Moscow on Monday and Kyiv on the next day, while German Chancellor Olaf Scholz will travel to Kyiv on February 14 and Moscow on February 15.

Ties with India not impacted by tensions with Russia: US

BY LALIT K JHA / Washington

America's relationship with India stands on its own merits and has not been impacted by the ongoing tension with Russia, a top State Department official has said, days after India abstained from a procedural vote in the UN Security Council to discuss situation on Ukraine border.

For the second time this week, State Department spokesperson Ned Price refrained from responding to questions related to India's position on Ukraine in the United Nations Security Council. Asked if US ties with India have been impacted due to the tension with Russia over the Ukraine crisis, Price said: "We have a relationship with India that stands on its own merits".

America backs India against Chinese intimidation

WASHINGTON: The US has asserted that it stands with India against Chinese intimidation after Beijing deputed a PLA officer, who was part of the military command that attacked Indian soldiers in the Galwan Valley in 2020, as a torchbearer for the Beijing Winter Olympics.

China on Wednesday fielded a regiment commander of People's Liberation Army (PLA) involved in the June 2020 clash with the Indian soldiers in Galwan Valley to carry the Winter Olympics torch in Beijing, prompting India to announce a diplomatic boycott of the opening and closing ceremonies of the mega sporting event.

Responding to a question on China's provocative move, State Department spokesperson Ned Price said that the US has previously voiced its concern over Beijing's pattern of ongoing attempts to intimidate its neighbours.
