ED seeks to declare Talwar's son fugitive offender

PRESS TROOP OF INDIA New Delhi, May 15 THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE has filed an application in court on Wednesday seeking to declare Aditya Talwar, son of corporate lobbyist Deepak Talwar, a fugitive offender in a case related to negotiations favouring foreign airlines to be national carrier Air India. Special judge Anuradha Shukla Bhargava said the application, in its application, ED's special prosecutor Nitesh...

Talwar was deported from the UAE last week in connection with a money laundering case and is currently in judicial custody in India. ED had earlier filed the court through advocate Ar Aditya that it needed to interrogate Talwar to get the names of officials of the ministry of Commerce, National Aviation Company of India and Air India, who favoured foreign airlines, including Qatar Airway, Emirates and Air Arabia. The agency had claimed entities directly or indirectly controlled by the accused received exemption amounts from Qatar Airways, Subitair and Air Arabia, submitted a chart totalling $66.54 million received by firms directly or indirectly controlled by Talwar between April 23, 2008, to February 6, 2009. His alleged role in previous aviation deals during the same Congress-led UPA regime at the Centre is under the scanner as well. Talwar was booked by the investigation (CB) Bureau of ED and Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) in criminal cases of corruption, while the income tax department charged him with tax evasion.
