PLASTIVISION 2023

We are pleased to inform you that G M Polyplast Ltd. participated in the renowned Plastivision Exhibition 2023, held from December 7th to 11th. Plastivision is recognised as one of the largest and most influential plastic exhibitions in India.

During the exhibition, our company experienced an overwhelming response and constructively engaged with a diverse audience, including both domestic and international customers. This exhibition provided an excellent platform for G M Polyplast Ltd. to establish valuable connections, which led to valuable discussions with potential clients and business partners.

The positive interactions and promising leads obtained during the exhibition have opened up exciting opportunities for our company. We are optimistic about translating these connections into substantial business prospects in the near future. G M Polyplast Ltd. remains committed to exploring and capitalising on avenues that contribute to the growth and success of the company.
