PRESS NOTE

This is in response to today's news flash on a leading news channel regarding potential changes to bancassurance regulations by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India. The news flash is based on rumours and speculation, and we would like to categorically state that the information mentioned is inaccurate.

As an organisation, we believe that regulatory changes of such significance are typically preceded by detailed industry consultations.

HDFC Life has a well-diversified distribution network which enables us to increase insurance penetration in our country and adapt to the evolving business environment.

We remain focused on serving our customers and partners with commitment and excellence.
