SANDIP DAS New Delhi, April 19

INDIA'S COTTON CROP is likely decline to the lowest levels in the last 14 years to 30.3 million bales (of 170/kg each) in 2022-23 crop year (July-June), because of a decline in output in key producing states of Maharashtra, Telangana, Punjab and Andhra Pradesh, the Cotton Association of India (CAI) said on Wednesday.

The country's cotton crop may hit the lowest levels since 2009-10, mainly on account of the impact of unfavourable weather conditions on the fibre crop last year, according to the trade body.

However, according to the agriculture ministry, the cotton production was estimated lowest at 28.04 Mb in 2018-19 crop year in the last decade.

The CAI has reduced cotton production prospects for Telangana (0.5 Mb), Maharashtra (0.3 Mb), Punjab (0.2 Mb) and Andhra Pradesh (0.05 Mb) for the current crop year. It has marginally increased crop estimates for Odisha.

The cotton production in the previous year was estimated at 30.7 MB.

The lower cotton production prospects will reduce exports in the current marketing years (October-September) and likely to result in higher domestic prices of fibre and push up the cost of production of textiles companies. According to the second advance estimate of crop production released for the current crop year by the agriculture ministry, the cotton production is estimated at 33.72 MB.

In terms of consumption, the trade body has projected higher cotton consumption at 33.04 MB in the current crop year, against 31.8 MB in 2021-22 crop year.

rent season are likely to decline by 41% to 2.5 MB from 4.3 MB 2021-22 crop year. The cotton imports are likely to increase to 1.5 MB 2022-23 crop year from 1.4 MB in the previous year. Lower production may bring down carry forward stocks at the end of 2022-23 marketing year (October-September) to 1.4 MB, the lowest in more than three decades, the trade body has said. The estimate of cotton production followed the crop committee meeting of the CAI held on Tuesday. The meet was attended by 25 members representing various cotton growing regions of the country. Since its introduction two decades ago, Bt cotton has led to a dramatic rise in India's cotton yield and thereby, production, but over the last twothree years, the yield has come down marginally.

Cotton exports in the cur-

As per agriculture ministry data, the cotton production rose from 8.62 million bales (of 170 kg each) in 2002-03 to 34.04 MB in 2021-22.

Assets of banks at GIFT City cross ₹31,000 crore

Ahmedabad, April 19

CUMULATIVE ASSETS OF THE banks at the GIFT City have crossed ₹31,000 crore, Injeti Srinivas, chairperson of the International Financial Services Centres Authority (IFSCA), said on Wednesday. The GIFT City currently has the presence of 23 banks, 10 of which are foreign lenders, he at the inauguration ceremony of the new premises of Bank of Baroda there.

Bank of Baroda managing director and CEO Sanjiv Chadha said, "The GIFT City branch aims to be one of the two major centres for international business along with the New York branch."

The GIFT City has emerged as a viable alternative for wholesale business of the bank, which is around 70% of the international balance sheet, said Chadha. He said the branch, opened in 2017, now has businesses of more than ₹4,000 crore, compared with ₹800 crore three years back, an increase of more than fivefold.

"Because of this growth, the GIFT City branch has become our fourth-largest branch after New York, Dubai and London, and we believe that with a conducive, positive work environment and opportunities here, it could become the thirdlargest unit, surpassing London, in coming months."

On the vision of making the GIFT City the main business hub of the country, Chadha said, "The wholesale business of a bank can be done with a minimum footprint, and that is why we have reduced our global footprint recently. We have closed down Hong Kong and are planning to close the Brussels branch. Despite this, we have grown by more than 40% in the last 12 months."

Srinivas said banks are the backbone of the financial sec tor as they play versatile roles.

BofA global fund manager survey shows rise in bearish bets

FE BUREAU Mumbai, April 19

BANK OF AMERICA'S Global Fund Manager Survey (FMS) for April showed that investors remain bearish since December last year as credit crunch caused a double dip in global growth and the highest bond allocation since March 2009. Around 35% of those surveyed said the US Federal Reserve would start its easing cycle in the first quarter of 2024, while 28% expected it to be from Q4 of 2023. Allocation to EM equities dropped 7 percentage points month-on-month to a net 30% overweight. EM equity allocation has declined 11 ppt since February 2023, the largest two-month decline since May 2022.

Investors have been for five straight months, after having been underweight for most of 2022. Across all risk categories, EM risk has been rated as the least elevated. April FMS showed net

overweight on EM equities

63% of investors expect a weaker economy, up 13 ppt M-o-M to the most pessimistic since December 2022. Economic growth expectations continue to hover near historical lows while the S&P 500 has yet to catch up with the weak macro outlook. Investors were most overweight on bonds versus stocks since March 2009 and most bearish on real estate since July 2009. FMS cash levels held steady at 5.5%. Investors said gold was overvalued for the first time in 19 months. A net 84% of respondents said CPI was heading lower.
