Amitji mastered the nuances of Gujarati diction instantly, says Anand Pandit

The producers' forthcoming Gujarati entertainer 'Fakt Mahilao Mate' features a cameo by the superstar

Mumbai, Amitabh Bachchan has enviable proficiency in multiple languages is no secret but his ease with linguistic intricacies and diction continues to take even his closest friends and colleagues by surprise. Veteran producer Anand Pandit whose forthcoming Gujarati entertainer 'Fakt Mahilao Mate' features a cameo by the superstar says, "Everybody knows that Amit Ji has a great command over many languages. If you remember his blockbuster hit 'Laawaris', you will also recall that iconic scene where in a comic, fight scene, he switches to many languages while beating up the bad guys! I have no idea how he pulled off that shot but even today, his professionalism and commitment towards getting his dialogue delivery right is incredible." Bachchan who also lends his baritone as a 'sutrardhar' to 'Fakt Mahilao Mate' dealt with Gujarati dialogues in the film without stumbling even once and Pandit recalls, "I was willing to get his portions dubbed but he very humbly requested me to give him a chance and then mastered the nuances of Gujarati diction in just 24 hours! We all marveled at how effortlessly he dubbed for the movie and made every line and dialogue sound beautiful and authentic." Even though the dubbing session was long and extensive, the superstar's enthusiasm was unflagging. Pandit adds, "Amit Ji's energy levels put people half his age to shame. He loves his work and being on a set and in a recording studio fuels him and gives him great joy. The secret of his success is his work ethic and the fact that he loves every little and big challenge of being a performer." 'Fakt Mahilao Mate' jointly produced by Anand Pandit and Vaishal Shah, directed by Jay Bodas is all set to release on 19th August.

'Rakshabandhan' means a promise of protection: Rubina Dilaik

Mumbai, 'Rakshabandhan' is around the corner and the COLORS family is celebrating it in their style. While the actors have a hectic shoot schedule, they are all set to celebrate this special occasion with their real and reel life families. Here's what some of the COLORS stars have to say about their plans for 'Rakshabandhan' on celebrating 'Rakshabandhan', Rubina Dilaik says, "I have grown up with my two sisters and for me the festival will always be about my sisters and our bond. 'Rakshabandhan' means a promise of protection and we have always had one another's back through thick and thin. I know this festival is a special day for a brother happy memories of this auspicious day. When we were young, my sister used to surprise us by making handmade 'Rakhis', and we would in return surprise her with presents. As kids we used to get small things for her within the little pocket money we received from our parents. Nyrraa Banerjee (Pishachini): "Rakshabandhan has always been one of my favorite festivals as we have a huge celebration at our house. This time around I am more excited as after 2 years of the pandemic, finally we are going to do a big get-together. On 'Rakshabandhan', Tanvi Dogra of Parineeti says, "My brother is my protector, confidant, and gives me strength. 'Rakshabandhan' has always been a very special occasion for me. Surabhi Das (Nima Denzongpa): "This festival has always been very special to me. I used to be with my family to celebrate the day but since I had been caught up with the shoot of 'Nima Denzongpa' now it becomes difficult to visit my family in Assam on Rakshabandhan. I am very happy that my family had visited me few days back here in Mumbai and we all had a great time together.

and a sister, but for me, it is about me and my sisters. We used to tie 'Rakhi' to each other, but for us, it's so much more than just one day, we protect and support each other every day. This year, I will have a small celebration as I am a little pre-occupied with my backlogs of work as I was shooting for Khatron Ke Khiladi 12 in Cape Town, but like every year, we will tie 'Rakhi' and pamper each other with beautiful gifts." Mohit Malik (Khatron Ke Khiladi 12): "Rakshabandhan has always been special for me, and I have many
