GIFT City gets 4,103 residential units as 2-yr-long clause ends

AVINASH NAIR
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 1

THOUGH UNDERSUBSCRIBED, the two-year long "sunset clause" — permitting anyone to own a house and live in GIFT City — attracted a total of 10 developers who have pledged to construct 4,103 housing units at the site where currently only office spaces are functional.

"The sunset clause, which ended in March this year, was not fully subscribed. However, from now, there will be no relaxation for residential projects to allow outsiders to occupy houses in GIFT City," Tapan Ray, Managing Director and Group CEO of GIFT City, told The Indian Express.

"Initially, the houses were meant only for those working at GIFT City. Then, regulation regarding the ownership was relaxed allowing outsiders to own houses, but occupants have to be those working at GIFT City. That was relaxed allowing anyone to own and occupy houses in the project and a cap of such houses was set at 5,000 housing units," Ray added.

Over the past couple of years, several stakeholders and partners have lamented the absence of "life" after work hours at GIFT City.

Though the subscription, as far as absolute numbers, might have fallen short of the targeted number of 5,000 housing units, officials point out that the total area intended for promoting housing initially at GIFT City has been met. These homes will cost at least 30-40 per cent more than those outside of the smart city area.

Among the 10 under construction or proposed housing projects that took advantage of the "sunset clause", five are located in the non-processing area of SEZ (Special Economic Zone) at GIFT City where there are no exemptions in the local laws unlike the processing area.

The developers include Savvy ATS Realty, Shivalik LLP, Shilp Infraspaces LLP, Bakeri Residences LLP and Bhandari and Sangath Builders LLP. Similarly, the housing projects in Domestic Tariff Area (DTA) belong to Sobha Ltd, Sangath IPL, Nila Spaces, Kaavyaratna LLP and State Bank of India. The SBI housing project will be meant for its own employees. Barring Bengaluru-based Sobha Ltd and M/s Bhandari, all other residential developers are either based out of Ahmedabad or Gandhinagar.

The biggest housing project belongs to Bengaluru-based Sobha Ltd, which is building 742 housing units. These units are divided into two separate projects.

Several stakeholders and partners have lamented the absence of 'life' after work hours at GIFT City. File

| BUILDERS & BUILDINGS | |
|---------------------------------|---------------|
| DEVELOPER | HOUSING UNITS |
| Sangath IPL | 336 |
| Sobha Ltd | 742 |
| Kaavyaratna LLP | 453 |
| Nila Spaces | 496 |
| State Bank of India | 173 |
| Savvy ATS Realty | 262 |
| Shivalik LLP | 372 |
| Shilp Infraspaces LLP | 646 |
| Bakeri Residences LLP | 395 |
| Bhandari & Sangath Builders LLP | 228 |

4,103 RESIDENTIAL UNITS

The Indian Express had reported that the Gujarat government, in a resolution passed on March 8, 2021, tweaked the rules allowing people not working at GIFT City to own and reside in a house built inside the campus. The rules were changed because there was a lack of interest among real-estate developers to adhere to the earlier restrictive clauses. GIFT City started out with the walk-to-work concept where everyone who worked here would have to live here. However, with residential units still under construction, most of the employees live outside the campus, either in Gandhinagar or Ahmedabad, and commute to work on private vehicles.

The first housing project comprising 330 units was executed by Janaadhar Pvt Ltd. They are currently occupied by the blue-colored employees in the smart city. Thereafter, Sobha Ltd and Gandhinagar-based Sangath IPL stepped in to build the homes.

Cost of houses
The cost of a residential unit

— from a 1-BHK studio apartment to 4-BHK or penthouse unit — can vary between Rs 70 lakh to more than Rs 4 crore. "The cost of a residential unit in the project is between Rs 5,500 and Rs 6,000 per square feet. This is about 30-40 per cent more than the cost of residential schemes outside the project in Gandhinagar and Ahmedabad," said Jigar Mota, head of transactions, Cushman and Wakefield (C&W).

When asked if the 4,103 housing units would be enough to kick-start an "evening life" in GIFT City — where only 300 odd families currently live — Mota said, "It is no to suffice. But the residential schemes that will come up as part of the proposed GIFT City expansion is expected to not have any such restrictions and will help add to the social ecosystem that is already getting built in GIFT City."

THIRD CASE IN WHICH HE HAS BEEN BOOKED

Tathya Patel held for ramming car into cafe on July 3

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 1

THE AHMEDABAD City Police Tuesday arrested Tathya Patel, who is in jail for allegedly mowing down nine persons at the Iskon flyover on July 20, for allegedly ramming a Mahindra Thar into a cafe on the Sindhu Bharan Road (SBR) on July 3. This is the third case in which Patel has been booked after he was arrested in the Iskon flyover case.

Patel was brought to the court by N Division Traffic Police, which has his custody in the Iskon flyover case. The court sent him to judicial custody in connection to ramming his Thar into the wall of Mauve Cafe on SBR.

A police officer said Patel was brought for interrogation from the Sabarmati Central Jail on a transfer warrant issued by the court. He was interrogated for six to seven hours and then returned to the jail.

According to the police, Patel and his friends had gone to a cafe on SBR around 4 am on July 3. While leaving, he rammed into the wall of Mauve Cafe. "During interrogation, Tathya and his friends confessed about crashing into the wall of the cafe," an officer said.

"We brought him to the N

Traffic Police Station around 4 pm, completed our formalities and sent him back to central jail," a senior officer said.

Mihir Shah, the owner of the Mauve Cafe, had filed a complaint in this regard, following which an FIR was registered on July 22.

Mukesh Mondal, the manager of the restaurant told The Indian Express on Tuesday that the wall was repaired last Saturday.

Patel has been booked for mowing down a crowd with his Jaguar on the Iskon flyover early July 20, killing nine persons, including two policemen and a Homeguard jawan. Following this, he was booked in a criminal case on July 27 for allegedly ramming the same car at a temple pillar at Vansajada village in Gandhinagar in the early hours of January 1.

HC dismisses PIL seeking live-streaming of GIC proceedings

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 1

THE GUJARAT High Court Tuesday dismissed a public interest litigation that sought the live-streaming of proceedings at the Gujarat Information Commission (GIC) on the ground that the court has no authority to mandate the same and is a matter of policy.

The petition sought HC's direction to GIC to livestream its proceedings so as to bring in "transparency in the procedure adopted by them". The PIL was moved by two RTI activists — Saumil Rajpara and Dipesh Joshi — associated with the forum RTI Ekta Manch.

The division bench of Chief Justice Sunita Agarwal and Justice NV Anjaria observed that according to the material brought on record by the petitioners, it was evident that some process in this regard was initiated and information to that effect was provided to the petitioners. "Live-streaming is a matter of policy and would require infrastructure; we cannot mandate live-streaming by issuing any positive mandamus... No cause has been espoused before us that would require interference of this court for the larger public interest... It is open for the petitioners to seek information about the progress in the matter by moving a proper application," the bench held while dismissing the PIL.

Remarking that "everything cannot be live-streamed", CJ Agarwal added that "live-streaming cannot be mandated by the court, it is about the infrastructure". "If they are considering it, they will do it. Where's the occasion for us to interfere? Every tribunal and forum cannot be expected to live-stream the proceedings... There is no occasion to issue any mandate at this moment... No public interest is made out by this," CJ Agarwal remarked orally.
