MODI DEGREE DEFAMATION CASE

Setback for Kejriwal, Singh as court refuses to quash summons

SOHINI GHOSH

AHMEDABAD, SEPTEMBER 14

IN A blow to Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal and AAP MP Sanjay Singh, an Ahmedabad sessions court Thursday refused to quash and set aside the summons issued to the two AAP leaders by an Ahmedabad trial court in relation to a criminal defamation case by the Gujarat University pertaining to PM Narendra Modi's degree.

The court of Additional Sessions Judge JM Brahmbhatt dismissed the two criminal revision applications moved by Kejriwal and Singh respectively by noting that GU is an independent authority and cannot be considered a state organ, and that the magistrate issued summons through due process and after appreciating the evidence on record. The revision applications had challenged the summons issued to them by an Ahmedabad magistrate court.

The two are facing a criminal defamation case in Ahmedabad and were initially issued summons to appear before the court on April 15 and again issued a fresh summons on May 23.

The complaint was moved by Gujarat University registrar Piyush Patel, who accused Kejriwal of defamation, citing his statements such as: "If PM studied from Delhi University, Gujarat University, then Gujarat University should celebrate that their alumnus has become the Prime Minister and yet they are trying to hide," "degree is not being shown because maybe the degree is fake, forfeited," and "if the degree is there and it is real, then why is it not being given?"

Patel alleged defamation after Singh's statements that the "Prime Minister is putting his all to prove a fake degree as right".

According to the complaint, the statement was made before the media and broadcast through Twitter with the intention of damaging the reputation of the varsity, despite knowing defamatory.

According to Patel, Kejriwal made the defamatory utterances at a press conference on April 1, and Singh made such utterances at a second press conference on April 2.

The two AAP leaders made the remarks after the Gujarat High Court set aside an order of the Central Information Commission (CIC) that had directed the varsity to "search for information" regarding Prime Minister Narendra Modi's degrees, Patel has alleged.

On the submission put forth by the AAP leaders that Gujarat University is a state organ and hence, cannot file defamation suit as per the SC-laid propositions, the court held that "Gujarat University is financially, functionally and administratively independent authority so Gujarat University is an independent legal entity" and hence, the GU registrar, who is authorised to act on its behalf, can file a defamation complaint before the magistrate. The court also held that the authority letter by GU vice-chancellor Himanshu Pandya "prima facie is a valid authorisation" for the registrar to file a complaint in court on behalf of the varsity as the varsity is an "aggrieved entity" Noting that the magistrate court duly complied with all procedures before the issuance of summons such as ordering for court inquiry, examining witnesses, appreciating the evidence on record to draw its conclusion that the AAP leaders have used words that damaged the reputation of GU, additional sessions judge Brahmbhatt held that "it would not be appropriate for this court to quash the complaint at the threshold."

The court observed in its order, while dismissing the two revision applications, "the magistrate has reached the conclusion of subjective satisfaction and issued the process after analysing and appreciating the material on record, which is neither patently illegal nor erroneous. Thus, in these circumstances, this Court does not find any merit in the present revision applications..."

Pravin was among Dihor leaders who went to the Guiarat-Rajasthan border at Shamlaji to receive the bodies. "A deputy collector from Rajasthan handed over the bodies to us and corrected the names of victims in records of the Rajasthan government on the spot, after we furnished them documents," said Makwana.
