L&T Finance looks to exit debt capital market biz

MUMBAI

L&T Finance Holding on Friday said the company was looking to exit its ₹8,660-crore structured finance and debt capital market (DCM) business. The decision to run down the business comes in the wake of a mark-to-market hit on account of its exposure to Dewan Housing Finance Corporation Ltd.

L&T Finance has classified its structured finance and debt capital market as "defocused" book this quarter, while it turns its focus on infrastructure finance and infra debt fund. The firm has exited its supply chain finance business.

Announcing its first quarter results, the company said its exposure to a specific HFC, part of its DCM business, saw a mark down of 50% on overall exposure of ₹567 crore. It had to take the MTM hit after ratings of the HFC was downgraded.

L&T Finance said it is looking to focus on core businesses such as rural lending, housing finance and infrastructure finance, and will look to build two business segments, including SME and consumer loans.

"In order to concentrate better on businesses where L&T Finance has 'right to win', it has de-emphasized the structured finance and DCM book, where it is a marginal player, and made them part of the defocused book," the firm in a release.

The NBFC on Friday reported a 2% jump in net profit to ₹549 crore in the June quarter against ₹538 crore a year ago.

Lenders also decide to allow bids from investors with a minimum net worth of ₹1,000 cr

The Committee of Creditors (CoC) of Jet Airways (India) Ltd on Friday approved an interim funding of $10 million (about ₹69 crore) for the airline, which will be used for the corporate insolvency resolution process, two people with direct knowledge of the matter said, requesting anonymity.

During the past two days, the airline's CoC, led by the State Bank of India (SBI), also voted on other resolutions, including calling for bids for bankrupt Jet Airways' asset sale and admission of claims by creditors.

"The CoC has today voted in favour of a $10 million interim debt infusion by bankers, which will help start the insolvency resolution process," said the first person.

"$10 million will be used to hire people on contracts to verify claims made by different creditors of the airline," said the second person.

Jet Airways was grounded on 18 April.

On 20 June, the Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) admitted Jet Airways under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) after lenders referred it to the bankruptcy tribunal.

person said, adding that advertisement seeking expressions of interest (EoI) will be published within a couple of days.

"The decision was taken so that who have the first right to proceeds from Jet Airways' bankruptcy resolution, have claimed ₹10,231 crore, while 2,400 operational creditors have claimed ₹12,372 crore.

are under verification, while those of ₹1,380.82 crore were rejected. The steep claims push the airline closer to liquidation.

A consortium of 26 bankers led by SBI had approached the tribunal to recover dues of over ₹8,500 crore.

The lenders had been trying to sell the beleaguered airline as a going concern for the past five months.

The NCLT will hear the insolvency case and the progress report by the insolvency resolution professional on 23 July.

Gopika Gopakumar contributed to the story.

Board of India (Sebi) and the ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) had sought explanations from the company on the charges of corporate governance lapses raised by Gangwal earlier this month.

If the differences are not settled quickly, the dispute could dent investor confidence in the airlines, delay decisions on key issues, invite avoidable regulatory attention and force the carrier to cede space to rivals.

Dutta said the company was making a submission to Sebi on Friday and would respond to the MCA's queries by the end of next week.

"We have said many times, when it comes to overall strategy on growth and international expansion, etc., the promoters are totally in sync. We have confirmed that again at the board meeting today. The only issue of disagreement is the agreement between the promoters. It has nothing to do with the company and the strategy," Dutta said.

Industry experts said prolonged differences between two large shareholders could lead to uncertainty in the minds of the employees, vendors and customers.

"In the services industry, such issues also dent the brand and reputation of the company which takes years to rebuild. Also, lenders, especially for a high-capex business like airlines, start getting concerned and may pull back. The best solution would be to rework the terms of agreement, or one of them should exit," said Tarun Bhatia, managing director and head, South Asia, Kroll, a risk advisory firm.

IndiGo improved its bottomline on account of higher sales and improved margins.

The fact that jet fuel prices remained softer and the domestic currency was firm in the June quarter compared to the year-ago period, also helped.

Sales jumped 44.7% from the year-ago period to ₹9,420 crore in the June quarter.

IndiGo's sales and market share have been steadily increasing in the recent past, following the grounding of rival Jet Airways in April.

IndiGo's share in the domestic market rose from 39.7% in January 2018 to 48.1% in June 2019, giving it the unique position of controlling half of India's air travel market. It ferried 6 million passengers during May 2019 compared to 4.6 million in January 2018. After posting net losses of ₹652 crore in the September 2018 quarter, on account of a weak rupee and high jet fuel prices, the carrier climbed back spectacularly in the subsequent two quarters to end the March 2019 quarter with ₹590 crore net profit, up by over 400% from a year ago.
