EOUATING THE role of physiotherapists to that of his government, Prime Minister Narendra Modi Saturday said the medical professionals play a crucial role in making a patient self-reliant, similar to how various social security schemes are helping Indians attain self-reliance.

"It is said the best physiotherapist is the one whose need is not felt repetitively. So, in a way, your profession teaches you about self-reliance," PM Modi said as he virtually addressed the 60th annual conference of the Indian Association of Physiotherapists, held in Ahmedabad. The conference was inaugurated by Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel.

The Prime Minister also emphasised that his government spire him. "You must've learnt that one's internal strength and schemes, including such a situation, you can aid in many ways through mobile phones. Physiotherapists' associations must definitely think on those lines." said PM Modi.

Modi also advocated combining yoga with physiotherapy. "Your professional power will increase if you imbibe yoga along with physiotherapy."

He also requested physiotherapists to document their practices in taking care of the old. "I would request you to document your practice because as the population of the aged is increasing in the world, their care, too, is becoming more challenging and costly. Your experience, documented in the form of academic papers and presentations, can serve to be useful for the whole world. The skill of Indian physiotherapists, too, will come to the fore," the

IN A setback to the Congress, four directors of Amul Dairy formerly Kaira District Cooperative Milk Producers' Union — belonging to the party joined the BJP in presence of state president CR Paatil in Gandhinagar on Saturday, bringing down the tally of the Congress to three.

On Saturday, four directors of Amul from Anand and Kheda districts-- Gautam Chauhan Mansinh Zala (Kathlal)-- joined the BJP donning the saffron sash at the hands of Paatil.

The Congress, which had won eight of 11 seats in the September 2020 elections has been reduced to three as former Anand Congress MLA Kanti Sodha Parmar, also a director of Amul from Anand, had also recently quit the Congress and joined the BJP.

At the event held at the party head office in Gandhinagar, party operatives for many years and only misused the funds and cluding all banks, dairies, most of the APMCs, and traders' associations, and is now running these cooperatives with good governance and the stakeholders, especially cattle owners, are benefitting from the BJP's administration." he said.

Vaghela said that while most of the directors have now joined the BJP, the others may follow

"Some who are remaining may also change their mind in due course. The decision is made by the individual directors voluntarily." he added.

He said physiotherapists in-willpower trumps the challenges and that the toughest challenges can be overcome with a little encouragement and support. Something similar can be seen in governance, too. Today, the country's poor and middle-class are dreaming big and have the courage to fulfill the same. They are showing the world that they are capable and self-sufficient in reaching new heights," he said listing down various social secu-Ayushman Bharat.
