Hardik demands compensation for farmers' crop loss, threatens stir

CONGRESS LEADER Hardik Patel on Tuesday threatened that the Congress would spearhead a Congress would spearhead a fammer agitation within a week if the state government and insur-ance companies did not pay com-pensation for crops damaged due to excessive rainfall during the monsoon. Patel claimed that the state government and insurance companies were passing the buck to each other over compensating the affected farmers. "Groundmut and cotton crops in Saurashtra and castor crop in central Guipart have failed com-petedly." Patel said, addressing a press conference in Rajiot. "We gions be paid crop insurance. If in the next five to seven days, there will be a huge agitation of farmers in Saurashtra against the state government."

The Congress leader said they ould stage a token fast and would stage a token fast and demonstrations to drive home the problems of the farmers. Taking posthots at some of the ministers in the cabinet of Chief Minister Vijay Rupari, he aald. "So-called farmers leaders and," So-called farmers leaders and, append Radabya are therein government. But have any of them visited any willage, visited any field where groundnut crop has failed? They have not held any needing at all." He also accused Chief Minister Rupani of doing nothing to help

"Two years ago, Rupani had an-nounced from Jetpur that while farmers will be eating sweetmeat of Tadhi Satam (a festival cele-brated a day before Janmashbrated a day before Janmash-rami), they will be paid crop in-surance. No farmer has got a single penny till date. The prime reason is Rupani who has no feel-ing for farmers. "Patel alleged. The Congress leader also claimed that phone numbers declared by the government for farmers to con-tact for their insurance claims on rom damage were not working.
