Bombardier Selects TCS as Key Strategic IT Partner

Tata Consultancy Services to Help Bombardier Transform its Application and ERP Estate and Reimagine its IT Operating Model to Enhance Agility and Drive Sustainable Growth

MONTREAL | MUMBAI, January 19, 2023: Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) has been selected as a strategic partner by Bombardier, a global leader in aviation, to accelerate its digital transformation and drive innovation.

Bombardier chose TCS for its proven experience in delivering successful digital transformation programs in the business aviation industry, as well as its extensive portfolio of intellectual property.

As the principal strategic partner, TCS will help Bombardier drive its organization-wide IT and digital transformation that aims to enhance agility. TCS will modernize the aviation leader's legacy systems that support its engineering, manufacturing, aftermarket services and defense activities. TCS will deploy and integrate new systems around the S/4 HANA ERP platform. This transformation of its application estate is expected to help Bombardier reduce technology debt, accelerate its cloud journey, promote innovation, and drive growth. Additionally, TCS will transform Bombardier's IT operating model using AI, machine learning, data and cloud services to enhance agility, resilience and user experience.

David Murray, Senior Vice President, Transformation, Operational Excellence and Information Technology, Bombardier, commented: "Bombardier will undertake powerful IT and digital transformations to unlock further potential in strategic growth areas including accelerating digital service offerings, sustainable aircraft designs and defense all while continuing to progress lean manufacturing and operational excellence programs. We are confident our collaboration with TCS will be the engine that drives the innovation needed to make Bombardier's IT systems operate with new, advanced infrastructure powered by AI, machine learning and cloud technology."

Amit Bajaj, President, North America, TCS, said, "We are excited to partner with Bombardier in transforming their core enterprise functions across supply chain, manufacturing, aftermarket, and information technology leveraging our twin strategy of SAP S/4 HANA-led ERP transformation and AI driven IT operating model transformation. This underscores the continued trust of our customers in Quebec, further building upon our investments in this important Canadian region."
