abur India has been the worst performer in the fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) space this year (CY23), posting a 1 per cent decline even as its peer index, the Nifty FMCG, has delivered returns of over 29 per cent in this period. Its performance over the last few quarters has been impacted by a slowdown in rural markets, which account for about half its revenues, resulting in lower volumes.

The slowdown in consumption was on account of higher food inflation, which impacted the home and personal care segment. While unseasonal rains hit the demand for juices, growth in the healthcare vertical moderated.

Currency headwinds impacted its international business, which accounted for a quarter of consolidated revenues. This coupled with delay in margin recovery led to brokerages cutting their earnings estimates over the last few quarters.

Dabur posted 3 per cent organic volume growth (5.8 per cent overall) in the September quarter. The subpar volume growth, according to IIFL Research, was on account of rural demand being subdued due to inflationary pressure and uneven distribution of rainfall.

However, with increases in minimum support prices, investment in rural infrastructure, a robust crop sowing season and the coming festive season, the rural demand sentiment is expected to improve in the second half of FY24, says the brokerage. While IIFL Research cut its earnings estimates post the September quarter results, it expects a gradual improvement in the demand environment. It expects Dabur to be a key beneficiary of the improvement in the rural sentiment. IIFL Research has a buy rating with a price target of ₹600.

Combine Ulip with premium waiver rider to secure your goals

Term plan plus MF combo offers greater flexibility and liquidity

BINDISHA SARANG

Kotak Mahindra Life Insurance launched a unit-linked insurance plan (Ulip) last week called TULIP. Ulips offer a combination of life cover and investment funds. Piyush Trivedi, joint president, head alternate channel and digital channels, Kotak Mahindra Life Insurance, says, "Our plan offers life cover up to 100 times the annual premium while offering market-linked returns on the amount invested." Most Ulips offer a life cover of around 10 times the annual premium.

How Ulips work

The premium paid by the policyholder is split into two parts. Naval Goel, chief executive officer (CEO). PolicyX, says, "One part pays the mortality charge for the life cover while the other is invested in market-linked funds." Investors can switch from their existing funds to other funds offered by the same insurer without paying any

Use them to fulfil life goals

By purchasing the waiver of premium (WoP) rider, a Ulip investor can secure the future of a loved one.

even if he is himself no longer around. Vivek Jain, head investments, Policybazaar.com, says, 'Ulips extend benefits beyond the policyholder's lifetime."

If a policyholder desires a specific amount to be paid to

PLAN PLUS MF COMBO

- The premium for the term plan remains constant throughout its tenure
- You can buy additional term plans if you need more coverage, allow one or more to lapse if you no longer need the coverage
- fund (MF) holding underperforms, you can shift to a plan from any fund house
- You can liquidate your MF holding anytime you want (you would only have to pay an exit load in case of an early exit) their family upon death and then wants annual investments to be made by the insurer for a goal (like funding a daughter's education), a Ulip can facilitate this, but an MF can't. Ulips offer tax advantages.

Trivedi says, "Under Section 10 (10D), all benefits are tax-exempt for annual premiums up to ₹2.5 lakh.' Capital gains on premium above ₹2.5 lakh get taxed. Maneet Pal Singh, partner, I.P. Pasricha & Co, says, "On premium above ₹2.5 lakh, long-term capital gains would be taxed at 10 per cent without indexation while short-term capital gains would be taxed at the individual's applicable income-tax slab rates.'

A large number of online, low-cost Ulips are now available that are superior to their older, highercost avatars

Understand all charges

Ulips come with several charges. Goel says, "A Ulip may have charges like premium allocation charge, policy administration charge, mortality charge, and fund management charge which can make it expensive."

In a Ulip, the mortality charge keeps increasing with age. Returns of Ulips are linked "Suppose one investor is 40 and the other is 50 years old. Both buy the same Ulip with the same tenure and premium. The returns of the older investor will be lower due to the higher mortality charge levied from him," says Deepesh Raghaw, a Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) registered investment advisor (RIA).

Investors cannot exit an underperforming Ulip fund and move to a fund from another insurer (as they can in an MF) before five years. They can also not pull their money out before this period.

Fund returns can be misleading. Fund management charge is built into the net asset value (NAV), but mortality charge and policy administration charge are recovered through cancellation of units. Suppose that you have 100 units and the NAV is ₹400 amounting to a fund value of ₹4 lakh. After a year, the NAV grows to ₹420. You would expect the fund value to be ₹4.2 lakh. That may not be the case because the number of units may have come down (some would have been cancelled to pay charges).

Choose the right type

Two types of Ulips exist: type I and type II. In type I Ulips, the family gets the higher of the sum assured and the fund value. In a type II, the family gets the sum assured plus the fund value. Investors buying for returns should go for a type I Ulip while those opting for coverage plus returns should buy a type II Ulip.

What should you do?

The term plan plus MF combo offers greater flexibility. Says Jigar Patel, member, Association of Registered Investment Advisors (ARIA): "The new Ulips have lower charges, but they are still more expensive than direct MFs and term plan. Ulips' costs are lower when compared to a regular plan plus term plan. MF plus term insurance should be preferred over Ulip."

Kapil Mehta, co-founder, SecureNow, says, "Buy a Ulip where the insurer changes the investment mix with age.
