HC seeks CBI view on bail petition in ISRO case

The Hindu Bureau
KOCHI

The Kerala High Court on Thursday sought the response of the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on the anticipatory bail pleas of all accused in a case registered in connection with the alleged conspiracy to frame former Indian Space Research Organisation scientist S. Nambi Narayanan in a 1994 espionage case.

The plea was filed by former Director-General of Police Siby Mathew, former Gajarat DCP R.B. Sreekumar, two police officers, and an Intelligence Bureau official.

The Supreme Court on December 2 quashed the bails granted earlier by the High Court to the accused and directed the High Court to finally dispose of the petitions on merit in four weeks.

Music sabhas should give priority to Tamil songs in concerts, says Stalin

The T.N. Chief Minister was inaugurating the 96th annual conference and concerts of the Music Academy, honouring the Sangita Kalanidhi designates, he said that nurturing music will not only nurture art, but also Tamil language

The Hindu Bureau
CHENNAI

Tamil Nadu Chief Minister M.K. Stalin on Thursday called upon music sabhas such as the Music Academy to give priority to Tamil music and songs in concerts.

"Tamil literature is a treasure house of thousands of Tamil songs. They should be sung in music sabhas. Whether it is bhakti music or film music or light music or pop and rock music, it should be in Tamil; this is my desire," he said, inaugurating the 96th annual conference and concerts of the Music Academy.

Mr. Stalin said art would survive only if the language survived. "Nurturing music

will not only nurture art, but also the Tamil language. All sabhas and artists should keep this in mind," said the Chief Minister who also honoured the Music Academy's Sangita Kalanidhi designates vocalist Neyveli R. Santhana gopalan (2020), mridhangaam player Tiruvarrur Bhaktavatsalam (2020) and violinists Lagudi GJR Krishnan and his sister GJR Vijayalakshmi.

Pointing out that Tamil music was ancient and rich and the Tamil literary work Silappathikaram was actually a musical epic, Mr. Stalin said the link between Tamil and music could be known by reading Thevaram, Thiruvachagam, Nalayira Divyaprabandam, Periyapuranam, and other works.

Recalling Music Academy president N. Murali's interview that his organisation was promoting "unity in diversity" through music, the Chief Minister said the country needed the idea very much. "You should not think that the idea is confined only to political parties. It should be the idea of every individual and organisation," he said.

Mr. Stalin also said that while he regularly read the publications of The Hindu Group, the two books that outnumbered the books he had been receiving as gifts were Maperum Tamil Kanavu, a book on DMK founder C.N. Annadurai and Theerkilunthu Oru Surayan, a book on Kalaignar, published by the group.

"No small task" Mr. Stalin also placed on record his appreciation for Music Academy saying that it was no small task that it had sustained itself for 96 years. "You can start anything, but running it successfully is not easy. It remains a Vedanthangal for music lovers from all over the world. It is the first function I have attended without any tension after assuming office as Chief Minister," he added.

Industries Minister Thangam Thennarasu participated in the event. Secretary of the Academy V. Srikanth proposed a vote of thanks.

M.P. Minister seeks police verification to prevent 'love jihad'

The Hindu Bureau
BHOPAL

To check 'love jihad', marriage registrars and other institutions responsible for solemnising marriages in Madhya Pradesh may soon have to secure police verification of the applicant couples, State Home Minister Narottam Mishra said on Thursday.

Talking to journalists, Mr. Mishra said the Marriage Registrar Bureau and other institutions involved in registration, including the notary, receive information on the bride and the groom one month prior (to the date of wedding), and should discuss it with the police. They should consider getting police verification done.

"Decision soon" 'Love jihad' is a term used to describe forcible or fraudulent religious conversion by marriage. "We are serious about 'love jihad' and therefore the government is thinking seriously that the marriage registrars and organisations like Arya Samaj get mandatory police verification [of the couple] done. Decision will be soon taken in this regard," Mr. Mishra said.

Highlighting one such alleged case from Bhopal that came to light on Wednesday, the Minister said police checks will give girls "double protection".

"The M.P. Religious Freedom Act [2021] is all ready in implementation in the State for the purpose. By getting police verification done, marriages where actual identity is hidden, could be prevented before registration. Police verification does not mean that the 'love jihad' law is not effective, but we want double protection. Therefore, the proposal is being mulled seriously so that in future no Shradha [Walkar, the victim in the Delhi murder case] has to lose her life and incidents like chopping of her body can be prevented," the Minister said.

The gov't is thinking seriously that the marriage registrars should get mandatory police verification [of couples] done

"Cases down" Claiming that the existing law was effective in bringing down the number of such cases, he said last year, when the Act was implemented, 65 cases of 'love jihad' were registered, and 49 cases have been filed so far this year.

T.N. stops auction of stolen Nataraja idol in France

R. Sivaraman
CHENNAI

The Idol Wing CID (IWICD) of the Tamil Nadu police on Thursday successfully stopped the scheduled auctioning of a bronze idol of Nataraja by Christies.com, France.

The rare variety bronze idol was suspected to have been stolen from Kayathar in Thoothukudi district half a century ago.

The officers of the special wing came across the auction notice issued by Christies.com, France, listing a bronze 'Shiva Nataraja' idol for auction on Friday at a bid price of 2,00,000 to 3,00,000 Euros (₹1.76 crore to ₹2.64 crore approximately). The bronze idol belongs to the Vijayanagara period - 15th-16th century. Director General of Police, IWICID, K. Jayanth Murali said, "As the idol was listed as belonging to Tamil Nadu, we decided to examine it when we came across an image taken in 1958 by the French Institute of Pondicherry (IFP), which bore resemblance to the idol of Nataraja listed for auction in France. IFP photo records confirmed that the listed idol was a stolen one.

After examination by an expert, we sent the records to the auction house through authorities concerned to stop the bid. Our efforts succeeded and the proposed auctioning has been stopped."

The HR&CE (Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments) Department records reveal that the idol was stolen in 1972 and was not recovered thereafter.

The records of the HR&CE Department too clearly established the idol was stolen in 1972 and the Kovilpatti police station Loose Leaf Index has entries to establish the same. "We have now insisted that the idol should be returned to India as we have adequately established the ownership as required under the UNESCO Convention of 1970," said Mr. Jayanth Murali.
