TRS govt takes action against two vociferous BJP leaders

HYDERABAD: The Telangana government led by Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao on Tuesday cracked down on two important BJP leaders of the state -- party president Bandi Sanjay Kumar and Assembly Floor Leader T Raja Singh -for different reasons and in separate places. Raja Singh was arrested for his alleged derogatory remarks on Islam and Prophet Mohammad while Sanjay Kumar was picked up by the police during his 'padayatra' and shifted to his residence in Karimnagar. Singh was arrested for his alleged remarks made in a video which was later pulled down by the social media platform on which it was uploaded. Following an uproar against his remarks, BJP suspended Singh from the party.

AGENCIES Lakhimpur Kheri (UP)

Facing demand for his resignation over the alleged involvement of his son in the Lakhimpur Kheri violence, Union Minister Ajay Kumar Mishra said he is not answerable to people like Rakesh Tikait and called the farmer leader "do kaudi ka aadmi" or a second rate person. In a video apparently of a speech made to his supporters, Mishra dismissed allegations levelled against him.

"Suppose I am going to Lucknow in a car which is at a good speed, dogs bark on the road or chase the car. It's their nature, I will not say anything about that as we do not have this nature. When things come to the fore, I will give answer to everyone. I am very confident because of your support," Mishra, who is the Minister of State for Home, said.

'FOR HOW LONG WILL PM CONTINUE TO SAVE TAINTED MINISTERS

NEW DELHI: Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Tuesday slammed Union Minister Ajay Kumar Mishra for his "dogs bark or chase the car" remark and asked for how long will Prime Minister Narendra Modi continue to save "tainted ministers". Facing demand for his resignation over the alleged involvement of his son in the Lakhimpur Kheri violence last year, Mishra said he is not answerable to people like Rakesh Tikait and called the farmer leader "do kaudi ka aadmi" or a second-rate person. In a video apparently of a speech made to his supporters, Mishra dismissed allegations levelled against him. Slamming Mishra for his remarks, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi said, "Look at the effect of the intoxication of protection of power. The Minister of State for Home Affairs is making one statement after another degrading the farmers. He had threatened the farmers even before the Lakhimpur farmers' massacre." "For how long will the prime minister continue to save tainted ministers? For how long will you continue to encourage this language of abuse?" she said in a tweet in Hindi.

people, including four farmers and a journalist, were killed in the violence at Tikunia village here during a farmer protest against the visit of UP Deputy Chief Minister Keshav Prasad Maurya to Mishra's village in Lakhimpur Kheri district. In this case, Mishra's son Ashish Mishra has been arrested as the main accused. "People keep raising questions. There are also 'bevakoof patrakaar' (stupid journalists) who have no relationship with journalism and want to create confusion by such 'ulti-seedhi baat' (unfounded things)," he said.

"I know Rakesh Tikait very well, he is a 'do kaudi ka aadmi' (second rate person). He fought election twice and lost the deposit. If this kind of a man opposes anyone, it is of no value and so I do not answer to such people as it is of no relevance," Mishra said.

Led by Tikait, the Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM) had staged a 75-hour long dharna in Lakhimpur last week to press for various demands, including sacking of Mishra. "He (Tikait) is doing politics in this manner and running his livelihood. They will be given a reply at the right time," Mishra is heard telling BJP workers in the video apparently in his Kheri constituency. Reacting to Mishra's comments, Tikait said it was natural for him to be angry when his son is in jail for the past one year.

The Vyapam scam was an entrance examination, admission and recruitment scam unearthed in Madhya Pradesh, also ruled by the BJP, in 2013. The scam is called "Vyapam" which is the Hindi acronym of the politicians wherein imposters wrote answer papers. The case was handed over to the Central Bureau of Investigation following a Supreme Court order in 2015. Kejriwal listed several cases of the paper leak that were reported in Gujarat since 2015 and asked whether the BJP government felt ashamed. "They can't conduct exams, how will they run the government?" he asked. The AAP leader promised stringent action against perpetrators if voted to power.

BENGALURU: The High Court of Karnataka on Tuesday allowed the Competition Commission of India (CCI) to continue its proceedings against Intel Technology India Pvt Limited's India-specific warranty policy. The HC also imposed a cost of Rs ten lakh on the company for "delaying tactics". The petition challenging the competition watchdog's investigation into the India-specific warranty policy of Intel was pending since 2019. Earlier this year, a Supreme Court direction to dispose of the matter expeditiously and a timeframe set for it expired. Matrix Info systems, a New Delhi-based company, had filed a case before the CCI against Intel following which the CCI ordered an investigation whether the Indiaspecific warranty policy of Intel was leading to denial of business to other importers of Intel's Boxed Microprocessors into India.

Wild elephant dies in Kerala

THRISSUR (KER): A wild elephant has died after allegedly falling into a septic tank in the backyard of an uninhabited house near a forest area in this district, forest officials said on Tuesday. A forest officer said the young tuskless male elephant, which strayed into the area inhabited by humans by demolishing the solar fencing, was found dead with its face falling first into the septic tank. The incident was reported from Vellikulangara forest range. Officials said the elephant would be lifted from the area using a crane and it would be buried after the postmortem.

All political parties are in favour of freebies: SC

NEW DELHI

All political parties including BJP are in favour of freebies and due to this a judicial attempt has been made to deal with it, said the Supreme Court on Tuesday while deliberating with a PIL opposing promises of such handouts by the parties during polls. The top court also rapped Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) and some of its leaders for making statements on the issue of freebies and the judicial intervention on the ground that welfare measures are for uplifting marginalised people and cannot be held as "freebies".

"On this issue, I can say all political parties are on one side including BJP. Everybody wants freebies. That is the reason we made an attempt," a bench comprising Chief Justice N V Ramana and Justices Hima Kohli and C T Ravikumar observed during the hearing. The intention was to initiate a "wider public debate" on the issue and for this purpose, the setting up of the committee was mooted, the bench said, adding "We have to see what is freebie and what is welfare."

The bench said it has to balance the equity and it was not against any policy of the government or the scheme. "Some said, we have no right to entertain. No right to look into the issues...See, if tomorrow, somebody comes to us and says that we are not the beneficiaries of the scheme... Can we say no? We cannot deal with this. See, we have to balance it. We are not against any policy of the government. We are not against any schemes...,' the bench said. During the hearing, as soon as senior advocate P Wilson commenced submitting on behalf of the DMK, the bench referred to some statements of party leaders and came down on them.

Vijayan rejects charges of police laxity in tribal man's murder case THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan on Tuesday rejected in the Assembly allegations of the Congress-led UDF that there has been laxity on the part of the police and prosecution in the case of killing of a tribal man in Palakkad district in 2018. Vijayan told the Assembly that on noticing witnesses in the case turning hostile, the prosecution moved to cancel the bail granted to the accused. Besides that, a committee constituted in the district under the Witness Protection Scheme also held a meeting and decided to take stringent measures to ensure the witnesses are not intimidated or influenced by the accused in the case, he said.

TRS govt takes action against two vociferous BJP leaders

HYDERABAD: The Telangana government led by Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao on Tuesday cracked down on two important BJP leaders of the state -- party president Bandi Sanjay Kumar and Assembly Floor Leader T Raja Singh -for different reasons and in separate places. Raja Singh was arrested for his alleged derogatory remarks on Islam and Prophet Mohammad while Sanjay Kumar was picked up by the police during his 'padayatra' and shifted to his residence in Karimnagar. Singh was arrested for his alleged remarks made in a video which was later pulled down by the social media platform on which it was uploaded. Following an uproar against his remarks, BJP suspended Singh from the party.

'FOR HOW LONG WILL PM CONTINUE TO SAVE TAINTED MINISTERS

NEW DELHI: Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Tuesday slammed Union Minister Ajay Kumar Mishra for his "dogs bark or chase the car" remark and asked for how long will Prime Minister Narendra Modi continue to save "tainted ministers". Facing demand for his resignation over the alleged involvement of his son in the Lakhimpur Kheri violence last year, Mishra said he is not answerable to people like Rakesh Tikait and called the farmer leader "do kaudi ka aadmi" or a second-rate person. In a video apparently of a speech made to his supporters, Mishra dismissed allegations levelled against him. Slamming Mishra for his remarks, Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi said, "Look at the effect of the intoxication of protection of power. The Minister of State for Home Affairs is making one statement after another degrading the farmers. He had threatened the farmers even before the Lakhimpur farmers' massacre." "For how long will the prime minister continue to save tainted ministers? For how long will you continue to encourage this language of abuse?" she said in a tweet in Hindi.

people, including four farmers and a journalist, were killed in the violence at Tikunia village here during a farmer protest against the visit of UP Deputy Chief Minister Keshav Prasad Maurya to Mishra's village in Lakhimpur Kheri district. In this case, Mishra's son Ashish Mishra has been arrested as the main accused. "People keep raising questions. There are also 'bevakoof patrakaar' (stupid journalists) who have no relationship with journalism and want to create confusion by such 'ulti-seedhi baat' (unfounded things)," he said.

"I know Rakesh Tikait very well, he is a 'do kaudi ka aadmi' (second rate person). He fought election twice and lost the deposit. If this kind of a man opposes anyone, it is of no value and so I do not answer to such people as it is of no relevance," Mishra said.

Led by Tikait, the Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM) had staged a 75-hour long dharna in Lakhimpur last week to press for various demands, including sacking of Mishra. "He (Tikait) is doing politics in this manner and running his livelihood. They will be given a reply at the right time," Mishra is heard telling BJP workers in the video apparently in his Kheri constituency. Reacting to Mishra's comments, Tikait said it was natural for him to be angry when his son is in jail for the past one year.

SC orders shifting of conman Sukesh Chandrashekhar from Tihar to Mandoli prison

NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Tuesday ordered that alleged 'conman' Sukesh Chandrashekhar and his wife be shifted from Tihar jail to Mandoli jail in the city. A bench of Justices S R Bhat and Sudhanshu Dhulia passed the order on a plea filed by Chandrashekhar and his wife alleging a threat to their lives and seeking a transfer to a prison outside Delhi.

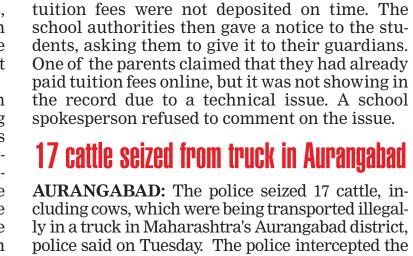

Chandrashekhar is lodged in jail on charges of alleged money laundering and duping several people. "Having considered the materials on the record and also having regard to the order made on June 17, 2022, this court is of the opinion that in terms of the statement made by the respondent on June 23, 2022, the petitioners should be shifted to Mandoli jail. It is accordingly ordered," the bench said, adding they be shifted to the Mandoli jail within a week.

"This is an order for both,' the bench said orally. Additional Solicitor General (ASG) S V Raju argued before the bench that Chandrashekhar is running an "extortion racket" and a "conning racket" from inside the Tihar Jail and several prison officials have been suspended.

He said Tihar Jail has become difficult for him to operate so he wants to be shifted to another prison so that he can start his racket again. Senior advocate R Basant, appearing for Chandrashekhar and his wife, said they are lodged in Tihar jail and they have been treated "very unfairly" there.

He said Chandrashekhar's grievance is against highranking police officials and money was extorted from him for providing him security. "The point is where is your right? Where is the perceptible threat?" the bench observed.

THRISSUR (KER): A wild elephant has died after allegedly falling into a septic tank in the backyard of an uninhabited house near a forest area in this district, forest officials said on Tuesday. A forest officer said the young tuskless male elephant, which strayed into the area inhabited by humans by demolishing the solar fencing, was found dead with its face falling first into the septic tank. The incident was reported from Vellikulangara forest range. Officials said the elephant would be lifted from the area using a crane and it would be buried after the postmortem.

15-year-old road mishap victim saves six lives with her organs

AGENCIES New Delhi

A 15-year-old girl, who met with a fatal road accident on August 15, saved with her organs the lives of six people, including a woman from Bihar's Bhagalpur who received her heart. The heart transplant on the 32-yearold woman, with terminal heart failure following childbirth, was conducted at the Atal Bihari Vajpayee Institute of Medical Sciences, Dr RML Hospital, here on Monday.

Laxmi Devi was suffering from breathlessness severe enough to curtail even routine daily activities, the hospital said in a statement. She was evaluated at the RML Hospital by a team of cardiologists who advised a heart transplant, following which she was registered with the National Organ and Tissue Transplant Organisation (NOTTO), the statement said. According to the statement, the donor girl, Basu, had met with an accident on August 15 and was admitted to the PGIMER in Chandigarh with severe head injury.

She was declared brain dead on August 20 and was kept on a ventilator to sustain her organs, the statement said. After counselling by the transplant coordinator at the Chandigarh hospital, her father, Ajo Manji, a daily wage labourer, came forward to donate all organs of Basu to needful persons suffering from end-stage diseases and awaiting healthy organs to have a new life.

In the morning of August 21, the NOTTO released an alert about the availability of a donor heart at the PGIMER-Chandigarh. A team of cardiac surgeons from the RML Hospital and AIIMS led by Dr Narender Singh Jhajhria reached the PGIMER Chandigarh the same evening and harvested the donor heart which was then expeditiously flown to New Delhi within two hours, the statement said. This was the first successful heart transplant at a central government-run hospital in New Delhi, the statement said.
