- h. The Register and Index of beneficial owners maintained by a depository under the Depositories Act, 1996 shall be deemed to be the Register and Index of Members and holders of securities for the purpose of these Articles and the Act.

CALLS ON SHARES

- 30. The Board of Directors may by a resolution passed at a meeting of the Board from time to time subject to any terms on which any share may have been issued make such calls as they think fit upon the shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the time and place appointed by the Board. A call may be made payable by installments.

A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board of Directors authorizing such call was passed.
- 31. At least fourteen days notice of any call shall be given by the Company (either by letter to the member or by advertisement) specifying the time and place of payment, and to whom such shall be paid.
- 32. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
- 33. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
- 34.
 - i. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable on allotment or at any fixed time or by installment at fixed times, whether on account of the nominal amount in the share or by way of premium, every such amount or installment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or installment, accordingly.
 - ii. In the case of non-payment of such sum of all the relevant provisions of these regulations to payment of interest and expenses for forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 35. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 12 percent per annum or at rate as the Directors may determine from time to time, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment. The directors shall be authorized to waive payment of any such interest, wholly or in part.

36. The Directors may, subject to provisions of the Act, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of money unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of calls than made upon the shares in respect of which advance and the Directors agree upon. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividend or participate in profits until it is appropriated towards satisfaction for any call. The Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced. The members shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would but for such payment, become presently payable.

The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to the calls on debentures of the Company.

37. No call shall exceed one half of the nominal value of a share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last proceeding call.
38. On the trial of hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member used is entered in the register as the holder, or one of the holders of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call recorded in the Minute Book and that notice of such call was duly given to the member, in pursuance of these presents and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call not any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

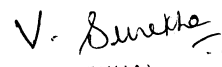

FORFEITURE, SURRENDER AND LIEN

39. If any member fails to pay any call, or installment on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment remains unpaid, serve notice on him to pay the same together with any interest that may have occurred/accrued by the Company by reason of such non-payment and stating that in the event of non-payment on or before some day to be named in the notice (such day not being less than fourteen days from the date of service of such notice) and at some place (either the office or a Bank) named in such notice, the shares in respect of which the calls were made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
40. If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls, instalments, interest may be forfeited by a resolution of the Board of Directors and the forfeiture shall be recorded in the Directors Minute Book, and the holder of such share thereupon cease to have any interest therein and his name shall be removed from the register as such holder and thereupon notice shall be given to him of such removal and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice to or to make such entry as aforesaid.
- i. The forfeiture of a share involves the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

41. Any person whose shares shall be so forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay to the Company all calls or instalment, interest or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture until payment at the rate of 12 percent per annum or at such rate as the Directors may determine. The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such in respect of the shares.
42. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and the Board of Directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
43. The Directors may at any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, may cancel the forfeiture on such conditions as they think fit.
44. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
45. Shares, which are fully paid up shall be free from any lien and in the case of partly paid shares the Company shall have a lien which shall be restricted to moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares.
46. The Directors shall be entitled to give effect to such lien by sale or forfeiture and reissue of the shares subject thereto by retaining all dividends and profits in respect thereof or by any combination of the said means but no sale or forfeiture shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and unless a sum in respect of which the exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of intention to sell or forfeit shall have served on such member, his executors or administrators and default shall have been made by him or by them in the payment fulfillment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for fourteen days after such notice.
47. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares/debentures (other than fully paid-up shares/debentures) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at fixed time in respect of such shares/debentures and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article will have full effect. And such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares/debentures unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares/debentures shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien if any, on such shares/debentures. The Directors may at any time declare any shares/debentures wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions of this clause.
48. Upon any sale after forfeiture for enforcing a lien purported exercise of the powers herein before given, the Director may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the share sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person 'unless otherwise agreed to transfer of shares will act as waiver of Companies' lien on the Shares'.

49. i. The net proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable.
- ii. The residue, if any, subject to a like lien for sums and presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of sale or to his executors, administrators, committee curator or other representative.
50. Where any shares under the powers in that behalf herein contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of the said shares the Directors may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they think it from the certificate not so delivered up.
51. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board may accept from any member the surrender on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed of all or any of his shares.

SHARE WARRANTS

52. The Company may issue Share Warrants subject to and accordance with the provisions of the Act, and accordingly, the Board may in its discretion, with respect to any share which is fully paid up, on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share and authenticated by such evidence (if any), as the Board may from time to time, require as to the identity of the person signing the application and on receiving the certificate (if any) of the share and the amount of the stamp duty on the warrant and such fee as the Board may from time to time require, issue a share warrant.
51. i. The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the Company, and so long as the warrant remains so deposited, the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a meeting of the Company, and of attending and voting and exercising the other privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiry of two clear days from the date of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the register of member as the holder of shares included in the deposited warrant.
- ii. Not more than one person shall be recognized as depositor of the share warrant.
- iii. The Company shall, on two days' written notice, return the deposited share warrant to the depositor.
53. i. Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided, no person shall, as bear of share warrant sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the Company, or attend, or vote to exercise any other privilege of member at a meeting of the Company, or be entitled to receive any notices from the Company.
- ii. The bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in other respects to the same privileges and advantages as if he were named in the register of members as the holder of a share included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the Company.

54. The Board may, from time to time make rules as to the terms on which (if it shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss or destruction.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

55. The transfer of shares and debentures shall be effected by an instrument in writing duly stamped, in the prescribed form and all the provisions of Section 56 of the Companies Act, 2013 and of any statutory modification thereof for the time being shall be duly complied with in respect of all transfers of shares and registration thereof and shall be executed both by the transferor and the transferee whose executions shall be attested by at least, one witness, who shall add his address and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee shall have been entered in the register in respect thereof.
56. Every instrument of transfer shall be deposited with the Company, and no transfer shall be registered until such instrument shall be deposited together with the certificate of the shares or debentures to be transferred, and together with any other evidence the Director may require to prove the title of the transferor, or his right to transfer the shares or debentures. The instrument of transfer shall after registration be kept by the Company, but all instruments of transfer, which the Directors may decline to register, shall be returned to the person depositing the same. One instrument of transfer should be in respect of only one class of shares. The Directors may waive the production of the instrument of transfer or any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction, on such terms as the indemnity as the Board of Directors may think fit.
57. No fee shall be charged for registration of transfer, transmission, probate, succession certificate and letters of administration, certificate of Death or Marriage, power of attorney or similar other document.
58. The Board may, without assigning any reasons but subject to the right of appeal conferred may decline to register any transfer of shares or debentures upon which the Company has a lien, and also in the case of shares which are not fully paid up . No transfer shall be made to an infant or person of unsound mind.

Provided the registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons, indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on shares.

59. Subject to the provisions of Section 91 of the Act, and Section 22A of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Directors may, at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion and by giving reasons, decline to register or acknowledge any transfer of shares whether fully paid or not and the right of refusal, shall not be affected by the circumstances that the proposed transferee is already a member of the Company but in such cases, the Directors shall within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and transferor notice of the refusal to register such transfer provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except when the Company has a lien on the shares. Transfer of shares/debentures in whatsoever lot shall not be refused.

60. Subject to the provision of Section 91 of the Companies Act, 2013, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregated in any year.

61. The executors or administrators or the holder of succession certificate in respect of shares of a deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only person, whom the Company shall recognize as having any title to the shares registered in the name of the such member and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint holders of any registered shares, the survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognizing any executor or administrator or legal heir, the Directors may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration or succession certificate or other legal representation, as the case may be, from some competent court provided nevertheless that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of probate or letters of administration upon such terms as indemnity or otherwise as the Directors may consider desirable. Provided, also that, if the member was a member of a joint Hindu mitakshra family, the Directors on being satisfied to that effect, and being satisfied that the shares standing to his name in fact belonged to the joint family, may recognize the survivors thereof as having title to shares registered in the name of such member but this provision shall in no way be deemed to modify or nullify the provisions contained hereof.
62. Any committee or guardian of a lunatic or infant member, or any person becoming entitled to or to transfer shares or debentures in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any member, or otherwise than by transfer may, with consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member upon such evidence of his title being produced, as may, from time to time, be required by the Directors, or such person, instead of being registered himself, may, subject to the regulations as to transfer herein before contained, transfer such shares. The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registrations as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
63. i. If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- ii. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elect.

- iii. All the limitations, restrictions, and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of the transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid, as if the death or insolvency of the member has not occurred, and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by the member.
64. A person becoming entitled to shares by the reason of death, insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the shares.

Provided that the Board may at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses, or other money payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

66. The Company in General Meeting may, from time to time increase the capital by creating and/ or issuing new shares. The new capital may be divided into preference shares or equity shares and may be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto, as the General Meeting resolving upon the creating and /or issuing thereof shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Board of Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company.
66. Any capital raised by the creation and/or issue of new shares be considered as part of the original capital in all respects, so far as may be subject to the foregoing provisions, with reference to the payment of calls and installment, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien and surrender, unless it may be otherwise resolved by the General Meeting sanctioning the increase.
67. The Company may, subject to confirmation by Court from time to time, by Special Resolution reduce its capital in any way, and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers by exercising powers as mentioned in the Companies Act, 2013.
68. The Company, may by Special Resolution, reduce in any manner and subject to any approval authorized and consent required by law.
- a. its share capital
 - b. any capital redemption reserve fund or
 - c. any share premium account.
 - d. Buy back its own shares.
69. The Company may consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
70. The Company may convert all or any of its fully paid up shares into stock, and re-convert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination.

71. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner, as and subject to the same regulation under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred or as near there to as circumstance admit. Provided that the Board, may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of shares from which the stock arose.
72. The holder of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividend, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

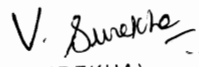

Such of the regulations of the Company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid-up share shall apply to stock and the words 'Shares' and 'Shareholders' in those regulations shall include 'Stock' and 'Stockholder' respectively.

73. The Company may sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount is fixed by the Memorandum, so however, that in the sub-division, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived.
74. The Company may cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
75. The resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such division one or more of such class of shares shall have some preference or special advantage as regards dividend, capital, or otherwise over or as compared with the other or others.
76. Whenever the capital by reason of the issue of equity or preference shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class in the capital for the time being of the Company may be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated or dealt with by agreement between the Company and any person purporting to construction on behalf of that class, provided that such agreement is ratified in writing by the holders of atleast 75% in nominal value of the issued shares of the class, or is confirmed by a special resolution, passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of shares of that class. The powers conferred upon the Company by this Article are subject to provisions of the Act.

BORROWING POWERS

77. a. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and without prejudice to the powers conferred by any other article or articles, and the Directors may, from time to time, at their discretion, borrow or secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purpose of the Company either from any Director or elsewhere on security or otherwise and may secure the repayment or payment of any sum or sums in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and in particular by the creation of any mortgage or charge on the undertaking or the whole, or any part of the property present or future or the uncalled capital of the Company or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock of the Company, than 3 months from the State in which the meetings of the Board are ordinarily held and appointment shall have effect, and such appointee whilst he holds office as a Alternate Director shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote thereat accordingly. An Alternate Director appointed under his Article shall not hold Office as such for period longer than that permissible to the Original Director in whose place he has been appointed and shall vacate office if and when the original director returns to the said State. If the term of office of original Directors is determined before he so returns to the said State any Provisions in the Act, or in these Articles for the Automatic re-appointment of the retiring Director in default of another appointment shall apply to the Original Director and not to the Alternate Director.

104. A Director shall not be required to hold any qualification shares.
105. Until otherwise determined by a General Meeting each Director shall receive out of the funds of the Company by way of sitting fee, such as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The Board of Directors may allow and pay to any Directors who having his residence at a place outside the place at which any meeting of the Directors may be held and who shall come to the place for the purpose of attending such meeting such sum as the Directors may consider fair and reasonable for his expenses in connection with his attending at the meeting in addition to his remuneration as above specified.
106. The Directors may subject to the provisions of Act, also receive remuneration or commission, or participation in profits or partly in one way or partly in another, and such remuneration shall be divided among the Directors, equally or in such other proportion as they may determine from time to time.
107. If any Director, being willing shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertion in going or, residing away from the place of the registered office of the Company, for any of the purposes of the Company, or giving attendance to the business of the Company, the Company may pay to the Directors in so doing either by a fixed sum, or by a percentage of profits or otherwise, as may be determined by the Directors, subject to obtaining the sanction of the Central Government.
108. Any Trust Deed for securing debentures or debenture-stock may if so arranged provide for the appointment from time to time by the Trustee thereof by the holders of debentures or debenture-stock of some person to be a Director of the Company and may empower such trustee or holders of debentures or debenture-stock from time to time to remove any Director so appointed. A Director appointed under this Article is herein referred to as a "Debenture Director" and the Debenture Director means a Director for the time being in office under this Article. A Debenture Director shall not be bound to hold any qualification shares and shall not be liable to retire by rotation or be removed by the Company. The Trust Deed may contain such ancillary provisions as may be arranged between the Company and the Trustees and all such provisions shall have effect notwithstanding any of the other provisions herein contained.
109. In the event of the Company entering into an agreement for the purchase of machinery and/or for promoting technical collaboration and/or assistance for the purchase of machinery, installation etc., or for any mining rights lease or concessions or other contract or agreement for assistance in any form like power, water supply with any State Government or Central Government and if the terms of agreement or contracts or arrangement provide for the appointment of a person or persons as Director or Directors, such person or persons including any State Government or Central Government with whom the said agreements are entered into shall be entitled to appoint such number of Directors hereinafter referred to as special Directors as may be agreed upon from time to time to remove any such Director or Directors so appointed and to appoint others in his or their place and to fill in vacancy caused by death or resignation of such Director or Directors or otherwise ceasing to hold office and that such special Directors shall not be required to hold any qualification shares and shall not be liable to retire by rotation or be removed by the Company in General Meeting.

110. If at any time the Company obtains any loan from any Financial Institution (herein after referred to as "the corporation") and it is a term of such loan that the Corporation shall have the right to appoint from time to time its nominee/s as Directors. Then subject to the terms and conditions of such loan, the Corporation shall be entitled to appoint one or more Directors of the Company and to remove from office any Director so appointed and to appoint another in his place or in the place of a Director so appointed who resigns or otherwise vacates his office.

The Director or Directors so appointed shall not be liable to retire by rotation of Directors in accordance with the provision of these Articles.

111. i. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board of Directors of the Company shall be entitled to exercise all such powers and to do all such deeds and things, as the Company is authorized to exercise and do:

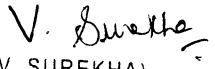

Provided that the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act or thing which is directed or required, whether by the Act, or any other Act, or by the Memorandum or Articles of the Company otherwise to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

Provided further that in exercising any such power or doing any such act or thing, the Board shall be subject to Provisions contained in that behalf in the Companies Act, 2013, or any other Act, or in the Memorandum or Articles of the Company, or in any regulations not inconsistent therewith and duly made thereunder, including regulations made by the Company in General Meeting.

- ii. No regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
