Kutch-Saurashtra region gets 100% rainfall in record time

the past four years, the quickest 100% rainfall recorded in Kutch and Saurashtra regions was in 2020 on August 15. In the other three years, it was in mid-September. From 2015 to 2018, only 2017 saw 100% rainfall in the two regions that is on August 31. The year 2018 recorded the lowest rainfall for Kutch (26%) and Saurashtra (73%) which was below normal average. In 2015 and 2016, Kutch and Saurashtra received 100% seasonal rainfall.

"The impact of cyclone Biparjoy gave ample rainfall to the region in June. In July, too, two back-to-back good systems that brought significant rain to the region resulting in a surplus," said a weather department official. "For the next two days, some parts of Saurashtra are likely to get moderate to heavy rains. The rain is likely to slow down from Tuesday onwards." Several districts have recorded widespread devastation along with loss of life.

Greenpreneur - 2023 to aim towards shaping a greener future

Ahmedabad: We are thrilled to announce the Greenpreneur 2023 event, organized by 1 Million Entrepreneurs International Forum in association with Vyaan Jagat.com and presented by Yuva Solutions Limited, powered by Boho Homes & PeersBoard.com. This event, scheduled to be held on 29th July 2023 from 1 PM to 5 PM at AMA - Ahmedabad Management Association, Gujarat, is set to be one of the most anticipated gatherings dedicated to promoting sustainable practices and shaping a

The event is open to individuals, professionals, startups, MSME leaders, CXOs, corporate entities, NGOs, sustainability leaders, among all those passionate about the environment. The Public Relations Council of India, a national body, is supporting the initiative by reaching out to organizations across the country through its network of around 55 chapters. (19-8)

Famous Pakistani drama 'Mere Paas Tum Ho' airing from 2nd August on Zindagi

Ahmedabad: How does it feel to have your show Mere Paas Tum Ho reaching the Indian audience for the first time on Zindagi? What are your expectations?

I firmly believe that MPTH will replicate its enormous success in India, just as it did in our home country. The influx of fan mail and the widespread excitement the

Tourism gets boost from World Cup fever

Ahmedabad: Gujarat's tourism landscape is set for massive gains this World Cup season. While hotels are nearly fully booked up and airfares are skyrocketing, travel companies have been flooded with inquiries for tourism packages for October-November.

Visitors are keen on exploring popular local destinations for a few days before or after matches and overall inbound tourism in Gujarat is set for a boost. Estimates from travel companies show that inbound bookings in October-November have increased by at least 40% compared to last year. Manish Sharma, chairman of the Travel Agents' Federation of India (TAFI), Gujarat, said, "Five key matches including the first fixture with the opening ceremony and the final of the World Cup are being held in Ahmedabad. This will be a major crowd puller for cricket enthusiasts from across the country and the world. We have been flooded with inquiries from NRGs, NRIs and foreign travellers who are keen on exploring Gujarat before or after the matches. Apart from popular destinations like Gir and the Statue of Unity, pilgrimage destinations such as Ambaji, Somnath, Dwarka, Palitana, Girnar and Dakor are also seeing traction."

According to case details, Miyani bought a plot owned by Vinod Prajapati and Parsons Sunayam Sundaram Roy in 2012 and prepared documents for a 4.5 lakh for plot number 18. Later, the complainant wrote to his native Bhavnagar district.

In January 2023, a relative told Miyani to check the high travel demand to Gujarat. In addition to receiving inquiries for the sporting highlight of the season, we are witnessing strong interest for offbeat destinations such as Gopnath Beach, which is rich in biodiversity and has the famous Gopinath Temple and limestone cliffs; Saputara, a scenic hill station close to the incredible Giraffe Falls; Champaner, a UNESCO world heritage site; Navlakha Temple, built in the 11th century and one of the oldest Sun temples in the country; Thol Lake Bird Sanctuary, which is home to over a hundred species of migratory birds, among others. Two cheat land owner of ?26 lakh with forged papers

Surat: Based on a complaint was filed by Katargam resident Hardik Miyani, the Singanpor police filed a Rs 26 lakh cheating and forgery case against Kaushik Solanki and Ashok Vala, who allegedly sold the former's plot to others over forged documents.

According to case details,

Miyani bought a plot owned by Vinod Prajapati and Parsons Sunayam Sundaram Roy in 2012 and prepared documents for a 4.5 lakh for plot number 18. Later, the complainant wrote to his native Bhavnagar district.

In January 2023, a relative told Miyani to check the veracity of his plot as a couple of bogus sale had taken place in his society. When Miyani checked, he found a building on his plot owned by one Anil Raval. When he asked Raval, he said that he bought the plot from Vinod Prajapati and Pravin Pumbadiya in October 2022.

Pumbadiya told Miyani

that he bought the plot from Ashok Vala. On inquiry in Surat Municipal Corporation, Miyani found that Kaushik Solanki had forged the occupancy receipt of plot number 18 to Raval. As both Vala and Solanki conspired to sell the plot by forging the documents, a cheating complaint was filed with police on July 19.

Revolutionizing interventional cardiology: Impact of Technological advancements: Dr Tejas V Patel

"According to me, minimally invasive procedures," said Dr Tejas V Patel, Interventional Cardiologist, Marengo CIMS Hospital. Interventional cardiology is part of cardiology that deals specifically with the catheter-based treatment of heart diseases as well as coronary artery disease, valvular heart disease, peripheral arterial disease, congenital heart disease, etc.

Ahmedabad, in the era of technological advancements, the field of interventional cardiology has witnessed remarkable breakthroughs that have revolutionized the diagnosis and treatment of cardiovascular diseases. With the growing prevalence of heart conditions in India, advanced technologies are enabling healthcare providers to combat these challenges and improve heart health outcomes.

"According to me, mustard oil is a silent killer. It received a bumper output of 400k tonne per bhiga from my mustard field with the help of timely advisory and high-quality products from AgroStar. I used AgroStar Nion mustard seed variety which gave me 18-20 mustard balls with big size of branches compared to other varieties. Along with this I used products like Bhumika and Sulphur 90G which helped my mustard crop become healthy," (19-8)

Mustard farmer receives 400kg+ output per bhiga with this seed variety

Ahmedabad: India produces about 44% of domestic edible oil consumption in which, mustard has the highest share of 39% followed by soybean (24%), groundnut (7%) etc. Mustard farming has been growing in popularity in Gujarat and the last year has seen record sowing in the state. Mustard is a key crop in helping India fulfill its edible oil needs and this is a big factor in attracting a large number of farmers to grow it in the state. A mustard farmer named Rama Kishan significantly increased his mustard yield. Sharing his secret, Rama Kishan said, "I received a bumper output of 400kg output per bhiga from my mustard field with the help of timely advisory and high-quality products from AgroStar. I used AgroStar Nion mustard seed variety which gave me 18-20 mustard balls with big size of branches compared to other varieties. Disqualify Manjalpur corporator: Congress

Vadodara: The city unit of Congress sought the disqualification of Kalpesh Patel alias Jay Ranchhod Patel, VMC corporator from Manjalpur who was convicted in a cheque bounce case recently. Congress submitted a memorandum to mayor Nitlesh Rathod seeking Patel's disqualification, citing provisions in the Gujarat Provincial Municipal Corporations (GPMC) Act in this regard. According to Congress, any corporator who has been awarded imprisonment for over six months has to be disqualified. The memorandum states that Patel was sentenced on July 19. It states that the VMC should have disqualified Patel on its own, but had not done so. Patel was held guilty under the Negotiable Instruments Act after the cheque he issued against money taken towards investment in real estate from one Upendra Shah had bounced. Shah had issued a notice to Patel following which he filed a suit in a court here.
