Cash-for-vote case: Accused

persons refute allegations

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG: two persons namely Welley Muksor and Briwon Pohshna, who were accused of cash-for-votes, have said the election agent of the Congress, Klinsman Lamare, lodged a false case. In a letter to the in-charge of Ummulong police beat house in West Jaintia Hills, Muksor and Pohshna said Dame Dhar of Ummulong village and Gabbar Issback (which is a fake account) and Mera Pongrope of Walnym-bai Ummulong spread the false news on social media. Lamare had alleged that Muksor and Pohshna softered Rs 3,000 to Pongrope to vote in favour of Charles Muksor, an independent candidate. (Cont on P-7)

Trump delays tariff hike on Chinese goods citing trade talk progress

President Donald Trump said on Sunday he would delay an increase in US tariffson Chinese goods thanks to "productive" trade talks and that he and Chinese PresidentXJ imping would meet to seal a deal Progress continued. The announcement was the clearest sign yet that china and the VS are closing in on a deal to end a months-long trade war that has slowed global growth and disrupted markets. Trump had planned to raise tariffs to 25 per cent from 10 per cent on $200 billion worth of Chinese imports into the US if an agreement between the world's two largest comonlise were not reached by Friday. After a week of talks that extended into the weekend, Trump said those tariffs would not go up for now. BEUTERS
