sions on the introduction of securities lending and borrowing mechanism (SLBM). They were held with a view to augment secondary market liquidity by incentivising buyand-hold-type investors such as insurance companies and pension funds to make available their securities to other market participants. Das urged for a continuation of discussions on the matter as part of overall market development.

Das said this is an opportune time to consider new instruments to facilitate hedging of long-term interest rate and reinvestment risk by market participants such as insurance companies, provident and pension funds and corporates. "The interest rate derivatives (IRD) market has developed over the years with the availability of a wide range of products. The only major liquid product, however, continues to be the Mumbai Interbank Offer Rate (MIBOR) based Overnight Indexed Swaps (OIS) market, Das said, adding, "Participation in the IRD markets is also largely limited to foreign banks, private sector banks and primary dealers."

In this regard, he appreciated FIMMDA's formulation of operational guidelines for trade in swaptions, which has now commenced.

"On its part, the Reserve Bank of India will endeavour to ensure adequate liquidity in the g-sec market as an integral element of its effort to maintain comfortable liquidity conditions in the system," Das said.

twin towers to be razed

Upholding the 2014 order of the Allahabad High Court that ordered demolition of the illegal construction, a bench comprising justices DY Chandrachud and MR Shah accepted the HC's findings that the sanction given to the two towers by the Noida Authority in 2009 was illegal. The towers violated fire safety norms, national building code and minimum distance requirement between individual buildings as well as the contractual obligation to provide garden area to residents of the housing society. The judges said the approval to the two towers was a result of "collusion" between Noida civic authorities and the real estate company.

"Noida made no effort to ensure compliance of the UP Apartments Act 2010, as a result of which the rights of the flat purchasers have been brazenly violated. This cannot point to any conclusion, other than the collusion between Noida and the appellant (Supertech) to avoid complying with the provisions of the applicable statutes and regulations for monetary gain, at the cost of the rights of the flat purchasers," it said.

Coming down heavily on the officials of Noida and Supertech, the top court said the builder had raised false pleas and attempted to mislead the court, while the officials of Noida Authority had not acted bona fide in the discharge of their duties. Supertech "has stooped to the point of producing a fabricated sanctioned plan, therefore, we confirm the directions of the High Court for sanctioning prosecution" against the officials of the builder and Noida for violations.

The two 40-floor towers to be demolished has a total of 915 apartments and 21 shops, of which 633 flats were booked by homebuyers. The Emerald Court House has 15 other towers, fully built with residents living here.

"Unfortunately, the diverse and unseen group of flat buyers suffers the impact of the unholy nexus between builders and planners. Their quality of life is affected the most. Yet, confronted with the economic might of developers and the might of legal authoritywielded by planning bodies, the few who raise their voices have to pursue a long and expensive battle for rights with little certainty of outcomes...they are denied access to information and are victims of misinformation.
