Marching towards global Maritime Prosperity: Double Engine Sarkar

Gujarat is strategically located with its longest coastline in the world. It makes Gujarat an important state for maritime sector. It has the highest number of operational ports and commercial cargo ports and ranks first in cargo amongst all Indian ports. Gujarat's contribution to the maritime sector has always been prominent. There are a total of 49 ports in Gujarat including 48 small Gujarat, Saurashtra and Kutch region handling approximately 40 percent of the country's cargo.

Shri Narendra Modi
Hon'ble Prime Minister

Under the leadership of the Prime Minister and the then Chief Minister of Gujarat Shri Narendra Modi, Imports in Port sector in Gujarat has almost doubled. Country's first chemical terminal was opened at Dahej, Mundra port got rail connectivity while country's first double stack container train started from Pipavav. Also, the country's first LNG terminal was started at Dahej.

Gujarat will become the hub of ship-recycling

Recycling sector will account for 20 percent of the world's ship recycling in India. Hon'ble Prime Minister was well aware of the potential of Gujarat's Ship-Recycling Yard, 98 percent of the country's ship is recycled here. Gujarat government moved forward in this direction and the ship recycling rules of 2013 and made new rules in 2014. In last 20 years, 5720 ships have consistently growing strong momentum of the maritime industry. The establishment of Gujarat Maritime University (GMU) is an endeavour by the Gujarat Maritime Board to provide a fillip to this growth by bridging the knowledge gap within the industry. It is the first of its kind sector specific university in the country to have an international affiliation in the maritime sector. From the year 2018, LL.M course has been started keeping in view the maritime sector laws. Following the success of the Maritime Law Policy and Administration School, the School of Maritime Management was launched in 2020. MBA course in Shipping and Logistics has been launched by the School of Shipino Management. This course is designed by the world renowned Copenhagen Business School.

Maritime Cluster in Gujarat

Moving ahead with the vision of Honorable Prime Minister, the first maritime cluster in the country has been launched at Gandhinagar GIDC City. It is an umbrella organization for maritime and logistics related businesses. Gujarat Maritime Cluster (GMC) represents a total maritime

National Maritime Heritage Complex at Lothal

India has a rich history of maritime trade. Maritime trade in India is around 5000 years old which existed even during Harappan and considered to be bustling ports. A national maritime heritage Complex taking shape at Lothal near Ahmedabad will be world class complex showcasing India's rich and diverse maritime heritage. Once complete, it aims to stand at par with renowned international maritime museums.
